The Law of the Sea Laura Pineschi,Tullio Treves,2021-09-27 The United Nations Convention on the Law of the Sea of 10 December 1982 entered into force on 16 November 1994 Since this date a single binding instrument has regulated the rights and duties of States at sea and regarding the sea New concepts such as the exclusive economic zone archipelagic waters transit passage through straits and the International Seabed Area are now fully recognized The fifteen member States of the European Union are a significant sample for analyzing the practice of States or at least that of the Western industrialized States as regards the law of the sea They include major and small maritime powers coastal and land locked States States with coasts on the Atlantic Ocean and States with coasts on semi enclosed seas such as the Baltic and the Mediterranean States with and without involvement in deep seabed mining and States with different interests as regards fisheries The fact that they all belong to the European Union is a very important common feature which amply justifies the choice made to study them together The book s aim is to give through essays prepared by well known specialists a detailed survey of the attitudes and practice concerning the law of the sea of the member States of the European Union and of the European Community as such The common positions of the member States and the results of their coordinated action also emerge from

Journal officiel de la République française France, 1880 Yearbook of the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment/Annuaire de la convention européenne pour la prévention de la torture et des peines ou traitements inhumains ou dégradants Council of Europe/Conseil de l'Europe, 2018-11-01 The European Convention for the Prevention of Torture and Inhuman or Degrading Treatment or Punishment was adopted by the Committee of Ministers of the Council of Europe in June 1987 It entered into force in February 1989 and all 47 member States are Parties to the Convention The Convention has already established itself as an important human rights instrument Its approach is quite different from that of the European Convention on Human Rights Whereas the ECHR provides a remedy for particular human rights violations after the event the Convention for the Prevention of Torture ECPT seeks to prevent human rights violations through a system of visits to places of detention The Convention is intended to be an integrated part of the Council of Europe system for the protection of human rights placing a proactive non judicial mechanism alongside the reactive judicial mechanism established under the ECHR The Yearbook of the European Convention for the Prevention of Torture offers an essential annual overview of developments in relation to the ECPT Part One contains general information Part Two is about the European Committee for the prevention of torture and inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment CPT Part Three is a general report on the activities of the European Committee for the prevention of torture and inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment Part Four contains reports on visits by the European Committee for the prevention of torture and inhuman or degrading treatment or punishment and responses of governments Bilingual English and French 2 volume set Genocide and Crimes Against Humanity Caroline Fournet, 2013-01-31 This book explores the ambiguities of the French law of genocide by exposing the inexplicable dichotomy between a progressive theory and an overly conservative practice Based on the observation that the crime of genocide has remained absent from French courtrooms to the benefit of crimes against humanity this research dissects the reasons for this absence reviewing and analysing the potential legal obstacles to the judicial use of the law of genocide before contemplating the definitional impact of this judicial reluctance and the consequent confusion between the two crimes Whilst it uses the French law of genocide and related case law on crimes against humanity as its focal points the book further adopts a more general standpoint suggesting that the French misunderstandings of the crime of genocide might ultimately be symptomatic of a more widespread misconception of the crime of genocide as a crime perpetrated against a group Official Journal, 1921
