Engaging with Emotion Cynthia Whissell,2023-01-01 This work informs by encouraging the reader to interact with the text itself and with the literature in the area It is a learning tool rather than an encyclopaedic presentation of its topic The writing style is personal direct and accessible Citations are employed but always for specific purposes Cited materials are made accessible whenever possible by the provision of URLs Readers learn about emotion and its relationship to brain body cognition memory and appraisal They are also introduced to the role of emotion in language and in the fine arts Readers of Engaging with Emotion will likely be students within the first two years of university or college taking a related course or those who are interested in learning more about emotion This book is ideal for adaptation to an online course format as it includes exercises and learning guides The book uses straightforward and helpful language and examples to avoid frustrating or confusing students but instead to keep them actively involved with the material in the book and to help motivated learners learn

Civil Justice, Privatization, and Democracy Trevor C.W. Farrow,2014-04-30 Privatization is occurring throughout the public justice system including courts tribunals and state sanctioned private dispute resolution regimes Driven by a widespread ethos of efficiency based civil justice reform privatization claims to decrease costs increase speed and improve access to the tools of justice But it may also lead to procedural unfairness power imbalances and the breakdown of our systems of democratic governance Civil Justice Privatization and Democracy demonstrates the urgent need to publicize politicize debate and ultimately temper these moves towards privatized justice Written by Trevor C W Farrow a former litigation lawyer and current Chair of the Canadian Forum on Civil Justice Civil Justice Privatization and Democracy does more than just bear witness to the privatization initiatives that define how we think about and resolve almost all non criminal disputes It articulates the costs and benefits of these privatizing initiatives particularly their potential negative impacts on the way we regulate ourselves in modern democracies and it makes recommendations for future civil justice practice and reform

Proceedings of the First LHC Detector Alignment Workshop S. Blusk,2007 Open Access and the Future of Scholarly Communication Kevin L. Smith,Katherine A. Dickson,2016-10-05 It is impossible to imagine the future of academic libraries without an extensive consideration of open access the removal of price and permission barriers from scholarly research online As textbook and journal subscription prices continue to rise improvements in technology make online dissemination of scholarship less expensive and faculty recognize the practical and philosophical appeal of making their work available to wider audiences As a consequences libraries have begun to consider a wide variety of open access flavors and business models These new possibilities have significant impact on both library services and collection policies and the call for new skills within library staffing Volume 9 of the series Creating the 21st Century Academic Library is the first of two addressing the topic of open access in academic libraries and focuses on policy and infrastructure for libraries that wish to provide leadership on their campus in the transition to more open forms of scholarship Chapters in the book discuss how to make the case for open access on campus as well as the political and policy implications of libraries that themselves want to become publishing entities Infrastructure issues are also addressed including metadata standards and research management services Also considered here is how interlibrary loan preservation and the library's role in providing textbooks support the concept of open access It is hoped that this volume and the series in general will be a valuable and exciting addition to the discussions and planning surrounding the future directions services and careers in the 21st century academic library

Mapping Deathscapes Suvendrini Perera, Joseph Pugliese, 2021-12-30 This volume offers a critical and creative analysis of the innovations of Deathscapes a transnational digital humanities project that maps the sites and distributions of custodial deaths in locations such as police cells prisons and immigration detention centres An international team of authors take a multidisciplinary approach to questions of race geographies of state violence and countermaps of resistance across North America Australia and Europe The book establishes rich lines of dialogic connection between digital and other media by incorporating both traditional scholarly resources and digital archives databases and social media Chapters offer a comprehensive mapping of the key attributes through which racial violence is addressed and contested through digital media and articulate in the process the distinctive dimensions of the Deathscapes site This interdisciplinary volume will be an important resource for scholars students and activists working in the areas of Cultural Studies Media and Visual Studies Indigenous Studies Refugee Studies and Law Television by Stream Christina Adamou, Sotiris Petridis, 2023-05-22 Online television streaming has radically changed the ways in which programs are produced disseminated and watched While the market is largely globalized with some platforms streaming in multiple countries audiences are fragmented due to a large number of choices and often solitary viewing However streaming gives new life to old series and innovates conventions in genre narrative and characterization This edited collection is dedicated to the study of the streaming platforms and the future of television It includes a plethora of carefully organized and similarly structured chapters in order to provide in depth yet easily accessible readings of major changes in television Enriching a growing body of literature on the future of television essays thoroughly assess the effects new television media have on institutions audiences and content Connecting Canadians Andrew Clement, 2012 Connecting Canadians examines the role of community informatics or community based ICT initiatives in this process of transition The Community Research Alliance for Community Innovation and Networking CRACIN set out to study how civil society groups in locations ranging from Vancouver to Labrador and from remote Northern communities to Toronto and Montreal sought to enable local communities to develop on their own terms within the broader context of federal and provincial policies and programs Drawing on diverse theoretical perspectives from sociology to library and information sciences to women's studies the essays not only document specific local initiatives but analyze the overall trajectory of the government's vision of a digitally inclusive Canada

Justice Lord Dyson, 2018-02-08 This selection of essays speeches and personal reflections draws on the analysis of one of the leading lawyers of a generation Lord Dyson as Master of the Rolls and Head of the Civil Justice System oversaw a period of reform of both law and legal process This collection discusses some key themes of and challenges faced during his tenure as one of the most senior lawyers in England and Wales Through these insightful engaging and compelling pieces a picture emerges of a robust system of law whose core values can be plotted back to the Magna Carta but which is flexible enough to respond to current changes without fracturing A truly compelling exploration of continuity and change in the law by one of its key jurists Communicating Development with Communities Linje Manyozo, 2017-07-14 Communicating Development with Communities aims to take students researchers and development professionals away from the theory of the classroom or policy making boardroom and out into the community Building on the work of Robert Chambers and Arturo Escobar the book is an empirically grounded critical reflection on how the development industry defines imagines and constructs development at the implementation level Communicating Development With Communities is written for students scholars and practitioners in participatory development to prepare them for the complexities and challenges that await them when it comes to working with marginalised people in both the north and the south The Entrepreneurial Librarian Mary

Krautter, Mary Beth Lock, Mary G. Scanlon, 2014-01-10 The old image of an entrepreneur as a scrappy independent risk taker has been replaced by the reality of individuals incorporating innovative ideas in more traditional settings This collection of essays illustrates how librarians are infusing entrepreneurial principles in a variety of arenas including public private academic and special libraries It chronicles how entrepreneurial librarians are flourishing in the digital age advocating social change responding to patron demands designing new services and developing exciting fundraising programs Applying new business models to traditional services they eagerly embrace entrepreneurship in response to patrons demands funding declines changing resource formats and other challenges By documenting the current state of entrepreneurship in libraries this volume upends the public image of librarians as ill suited to risky or creative ventures and places them instead on the cutting edge of innovations in the field Law Enforcement Assistance Administration United States. Committee on the Judiciary, 1973 Law and Society in a Populist Age Amitai Etzioni, 2018-07-11 The law based political institutions in many democratic societies are being challenged by fast growing populist movements parties and leaders In other nations the state is failing These seismic changes call for greater attention to be paid to the role society plays in forming and challenging laws and how the law copes with these challenges Amitai Etzioni one of the most respected thinkers in the US argues for a new liberal communitarian approach as an effective response to populism This recognizes that different members of the society have differing values interests and needs that cannot be fully reconciled to legislation in a populist age The book considers the core challenge in a variety of contexts including national security versus privacy private sector responsibility freedom of the press campaign finance reform regulatory law and the legal status of terrorists Thus the book offers a timely discussion of key issues for contemporary society and the relationship of the law to the citizen in a fast changing environment The Melanin Millennium Ronald E. Hall, 2012-09-14 In the aftermath of the 60s Black is Beautiful movement and publication of The Color Complex almost thirty years later the issue of skin color has mushroomed onto the world stage of social science Such visibility has inspired publication of The Melanin Millennium for insuring that the discourse on skin color meet the highest standards of accuracy and objective investigation This volume addresses the issue of skin color in a worldwide context A virtual visit to countries that have witnessed a huge rise in the use of skin whitening products and facial feature surgeries aiming for a more Caucasian like appearance will be taken into account The book also addresses the question of whether using the laws has helped to redress injustices of skin color discrimination or only further promoted recognition of its divisiveness among people of color and Whites The Melanin Millennium has to do with now and the future In the 20th century science including eugenics was given to and dominated by discussions of race category Heretofore there remain social scientists and other relative to the issue of skin color loyal to race discourse However in their interpretation and analysis of social phenomena the world has moved on Thus while race dominated the 20th century the 21st century will emerge as a global community dominated by skin color and making it the melanin millennium
