Quayum, 2021-11-18 This book brings together fourteen articles by prominent critics of Malaysian Anglophone literature from five different countries Australia Italy Malaysia Singapore and the US It investigates the thematic and stylistic trends in the literary products of selected writers of the tradition in the genres of drama fiction and poetry from its beginnings to the present focusing mainly on the postcolonial themes of ethnicity gender diaspora and nationalism which are central to the creativity and imagination of these writers. The book explores the works of not just the established writers of the tradition but also those who have received little critical attention to date but who are equally gifted such as Adibah Amin Edward Dorall Rehaman Rashid and Huzir Suleiman The chapters collectively address the challenges and achievements of writers in the English language in a country where English is widely used in daily life and yet marginalised in the creative domain to elevate the status of writings in the national language i e Bahasa Malaysia The book will demonstrate that in spite of such recurrent neglect of the medium Malaysia has produced a number of outstanding writers in the language who are comparable in creativity and craftsmanship to writers of other Anglophone traditions The book will be of interest to readers and researchers of Malaysian literature postcolonial literatures minority literatures gender studies and Southeast Asian studies Literary World; Choice Readings from the Best New Books, with Critical Empathy and Reading Suzanne Keen, 2022-06-23 This pioneering collection brings together Suzanne Reviews ,1888 Keen's extensive body of work on empathy and reading charting the development of narrative empathy as an area of inquiry in its own right and extending cross disciplinary conversations about empathy evoked by reading The volume offers a brief overview of the trajectory of research following the 2007 publication of Empathy and the Novel with empathy understood as a suite of related phenomena as stimulated by representations in narratives The book is organized around three thematic sections theories empathetic readers and interdisciplinary applications each preceded by a short framing essay The volume features excerpts from the author's seminal works on narrative empathy and makes available her harder to access contributions The book brings different strands of the author's research into conversation with existing debates with the aim of inspiring future interdisciplinary research on narrative empathy This book will be of interest to students and scholars in such fields as literary studies cognitive science emotion studies affect studies and applied contexts where empathetic Reading Rilke's Orphic Identity Erika M. Nelson, 2005 Studies in Modern German and Austrian Literature publishes research and scholarship devoted to German and Austrian literature of all forms and genres from the eighteenth century to the present day The series promotes the analysis of intersections of literature with thought society and other art forms such as film theatre autobiography music painting sculpture and performance art Selected Poems D. H. Lawrence, 2008-05-29 From early rhyming works in Love Poems and Others 1913 to the ground breaking exploration of free verse in Birds Beasts and Flowers 1923 the poems of D H Lawrence challenged convention and inspired later poets This volume includes extensive selections from these and other editions and contains some his most famous poems such as Piano a nostalgic reflection on lost youth and love for his mother Snake exploring human fear of the natural world the short cutting comment on sexual politics of Can t Be Borne and the quiet philosophical resignation of Basta Using the revised poems but in the order in which they appeared in their original collections this selection offers a fresh perspective that reveals an innovative poet who gave voice to his most intense emotions The Classical Journal, 1919 The Library of Literary Criticism of English and American Authors: 1875-1890 Charles Wells Moulton, 1904 1875-1890 Charles Wells A Cockney Catullus Henry Stead, 2016 A Cockney Catullus traces the reception history of the Roman poet Moulton, 1904 Catullus in Romantic era Britain identifying the influence of his poetry in the work of numerous Romantic era literary and political figures including Byron Keats Wordsworth Coleridge Hunt Canning Brougham and Gifford Reading Southeast Asia Takashi Shiraishi,2018-05-31 In this collection Japanese scholars examine the literature of and about Southeast Asia and its relationship to culture history and politics
