The Cambridge Companion to the Poetry of the First World War Santanu Das,2013-11-18 This Companion offers a major re examination of the poetry of the First World War at the start of the war s centennial commemoration

From the Battlefield to the Big Screen Melody Foreman,2022-11-04 Look closely behind the lives of the stars who appeared in a host of legendary war films and discover how memories of their real life experiences in the armed forces were haunted with heartbreak and yet filled with extraordinary heroism Just what did America s most decorated soldier Audie Murphy go through in battle which led him to star as himself in the classic war film To Hell and Back When the Japanese attacked Pearl Harbor in December 1941 Murphy joined the US Army aged just 17 He went on to fight at Anzio the Colmar Pocket and Nuremberg And for single handedly holding off an enemy attack he was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor But Murphy s military and celebrity stardom did little to extinguish the pain of his private battle to fit in to a new post war world he perceived as disappointing shallow and unfulfilling Tormented by PTSD Murphy was a man unable to escape from his past Only the great director and decorated wartime documentary maker John Huston gained Murphy s true respect When war broke out on 3 September 1939 a number of British stars including Laurence Olivier his future wife Vivien Leigh and David Niven were in the United States under contract to the Hollywood Studios Keen not to shirk their duties at home and against advice from the British Consul they made their way back to Blighty Olivier joined the Royal Navy s Fleet Air Arm as a pilot Then with Churchill s approval he directed and starred in powerful propaganda films including Shakespeare s Henry V In 1943 the beautiful Vivien Leigh ruined her health by enduring the brutalities of the North African climate to entertain the troops in the desert Meantime Dirk Bogarde was a British Army intelligence officer seconded to the pioneering RAF Medmenham where he studied aerial photographs and pinpointed enemy targets for Bomber Command As Lieutenant van den Bogaerde he was posted to France just after D Day He went on to star in many leading war films such as Appointment in London 1953 and King and Country 1964 Years later in 1991 Sir Dirk Bogarde was interviewed by the author of this book He had witnessed the horrors of Belsen in April 1945 and said it changed his attitude to life forever In this book the author honors the real life stories of some big screen idols who showed true grit behind the glamor

story is based on a true love story that spanned almost two decades The names and places have been changed to protect the privacy of the individuals involved in this affair The chronological sequence of events has been maintained for continuity All the stories and experiences are based on facts This book is about a love story that was kept secret for 18 years and perhaps should've remained a secret The first book related to this love story was a book of poems entitled Somewhere Sometime Somehow Love Poems and Short Stories published in 2008 by this author and Xlibris For the perceptive reader of this book one can trace the ups and downs of our love relationship These 18 years were filled with robust love and passion for each other Perhaps it was fantasy perhaps it was the most real thing we will ever experience The heartbreaking part of this love affair is that I am not really sure my lover ever really understood or appreciated my profound and unconditional love for her I opened my heart to her through poetry and thoughtful letters but she rarely showed me what was in her heart Perhaps it was a one sided love affair but I surely think and hope not I was convinced that she truly loved me through her words and actions At least I experienced a pure love that I had only dreamed was possible The story is told mainly through the exchange of letters and emails to each other Perhaps readers can experience and hopefully feel the deep love we felt for each other
