Apocalyptic Ecologies Shannon Gay, 2024-12-06 A meditative reflection on what medieval disaster writing can teach us about how to respond to the climate emergency When a series of ecological disasters swept medieval England writers turned to religious storytelling for precedents Their depictions of biblical floods fires storms droughts and plagues reveal an unsettled relationship to the natural world at once unchanging and bafflingly unpredictable In Apocalyptic Ecologies Shannon Gay traces representations of environmental calamities through medieval plays sermons and poetry such as Cleanness and Piers Plowman In premodern disaster writing she recovers a vision of environmental flourishing that could inspire new forms of ecological care today a truly apocalyptic sensibility capable of seeing in every ending every emergency a new beginning waiting to emerge

Be Holding Ross Gay, 2020-09-08 Be Holding is a love song to legendary basketball player Julius Erving known as Dr J who dominated courts in the 1970s and 80s as a small forward for the Philadelphia 76ers as well as over his career in both the NBA and ABA But this book length poem is more than just an ode to a magnificent athlete Through a kind of lyric research or lyric meditation Ross Gay connects Dr J's famously impossible move from the 1980 NBA Finals against the Los Angeles Lakers to pick up basketball and the flying Igbo and the Middle Passage to photography and surveillance and state violence to music and personal histories of flight and familial love Be Holding wonders how the imagination or how our looking might make us or bring us closer to each other How our looking might make us reach for each other And might make us be reaching for each other And how that reaching might be something like joy

 Ellison,2019-11-12 Carole Ellison began writing poems to her children in the 1970s when they were reaching the age of reason and as she found herself in the position of becoming a single parent She felt she needed something special to share with them something that would become a tradition something they could always count on And so her Advent Poems began one day decades ago with a poem each day during the Advent season in December The poems were accompanied by a little trinket or sweet for them to enjoy Forty years later her children still look forward to the annual poems that started a family tradition that new generations have embraced Or maybe it s the trinkets they love Children of the Light was among the first poems she wrote and it is included in each of the first three books in this collection After writing hundreds of poems it is still her favorite Light she explains represented all that was good and pure and right with the world and she believed then as she does today that those elements live in her children and perhaps in all of us We need only to dare and to reach for it Inspirations is a new gift book by Kathryn Carole Ellison and her other titles include Heartstrings Celebrations Sojourns Awakenings Sanctuary Inspirations Milestones and Tapestry as well as new 2020 titles Horizons Beginnings Moments
