Catastrophe What Went Wrong In Zimbabwe:

Catastrophe Richard Bourne, 2012-09-13 No one in 1980 could have guessed that Zimbabwe would become a failed state on such a monumental and tragic scale In this incisive and revealing book Richard Bourne shows how a country which had every prospect of success when it achieved a delayed independence in 1980 became a brutal police state with hyperinflation collapsing life expectancy and abandonment by a third of its citizens less than thirty years later Beginning with the British conquest of Zimbabwe and covering events up to the present precarious political situation this is the most comprehensive up to date and readable account of the ongoing crisis Bourne shows that Zimbabwe s tragedy is not just about Mugabe s evil but about history Africa today and the world s attitudes towards them The Hard Road to Reform Brian

Raftopolos, 2013-02-17 The defeat of ZANU PF in the 2008 parliamentary election marked the end of one party rule in Zimbabwe The Global Political Agreement signed later that resulted in a Government of National Unity and the former ruling party was for the first time faced with the reality of sharing power The Hard Road to Reform presents a penetrating analysis of developments since the GNU was established reviewing recent political history from a range of perspectives political economic social and historical and featuring the best work of Zimbabwe s young scholars As Brian Raftopolos writes in his introduction the book is an attempt to analyse and assess both the hopes and frustrations of the last four years and to confront the harsh challenges that lie ahead Robert Mugabe and the Will to Power in an African Postcolony

William J. Mpofu, 2021-03-04 This book is a philosopher s view into the chaotic postcolony of Zimbabwe delving into Robert Mugabe s Will to Power The Will to Power refers to a spirited desire for power and overwhelming fear of powerlessness that Mugabe artfully concealed behind performances of invincibility Nietzsche s philosophical concept of the Will to Power is interpreted and expanded in this book to explain how a tyrant is produced and enabled and how he performs his tyranny Achille Mbembe s novel concept of the African postcolony is mobilised to locate Zimbabwe under Mugabe as a domain of the madness of power The book describes Mugabe s development from a vulnerable youth who was intoxicated with delusions of divine commission to a monstrous tyrant of the postcolony who mistook himself for a political messiah This account exposes how post political euphoria about independence from colonialism and the heroism of one leader can easily lead to the degeneration of leadership However this book is as much about bad leadership as it is about bad followership Away from Eurocentric stereotypes where tyranny is isolated to African despots this book shows how Mugabe is part of an extended family of tyrants of the world He fought settler colonialism but failed to avoid being infected by it and eventually became a native coloniser to his own people The book concludes that Zimbabwe faces not only a simple struggle for democracy and human rights but a Himalayan struggle for liberation from genocidal native colonialism that endures even after Robert Mugabe s dethronement and death Police Brutality, Racial Profiling, and Discrimination in the Criminal Justice System Egharevba, Stephen, 2016-11-17 In order to protect and defend citizens the foundational concepts of fairness and equality must be adhered to within any criminal justice system When this is not the case accountability of authorities should be pursued to maintain the integrity and pursuit of justice Police Brutality Racial Profiling and Discrimination in the Criminal Justice System is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly material on social problems involving victimization of minorities and police accountability Presenting relevant perspectives on a global and cross cultural scale this book is ideally designed for researchers professionals upper level students and practitioners involved in the fields of criminal justice and corrections

Decentralization and Constitutionalism in Africa Charles M. Fombad,Nico Steytler,2019-09-10 This collection of essays assesses the efforts of African governments to constitutionalise decentralisation be it in the form of federalism local government or traditional authorities Since the end of the Cold War jurisdictions across Africa have witnessed an ostensible return to multi party democracy within the paradigm of constitutionalism and the rule of law Linked to the democratisation process many countries took steps to decentralize power by departing from the heavily centralized systems inherited from colonial regimes The centralization of power typically characterized by the personalization and concentration of power in the hands of leaders and privileged elites in capital cities mostly resulted in repressive regimes and fragile states As decentralisation is a response to these challenges this volume analyses the dynamic relationship between the efforts to implement decentralization and presence or absence of constitutionalism This volume examines a variety of forms and degrees of decentralization found across Africa It advances a new understanding of trends and patterns and facilitates the exchange of ideas among African governments and scholars about the critical role that decentralisation may play in democratization of and constitutionalism in Africa Mugabeism? Sabelo J. Ndlovu-Gatsheni,2015-12-26 What is distinctive about this book is its interdisciplinary approach towards deciphering the complex meanings of President Gabriel Mugabe of Zimbabwe making it possible to evaluate Mugabe from a historical political philosophical gender literal and decolonial perspectives It is concerned with capturing various meanings of Mugabeism Migration, Crisis and Temporality at the Zimbabwe-South Africa Border Kudakwashe Vanyoro,2024-02-29 This insightful book explores the governance of immobilities and temporality in African migration It shares lessons from the experiences of Zimbabwean migrants fleeing economic crisis to the South African town of Musina and asks what the work of state and non state actors there tell us about the management of immobile people and places Indigenous, Traditional, and Non-State Transitional Justice in Southern Africa Everisto Benyera,2019-09-13 The book investigates the use of bottom up community based healing and peacebuilding approaches focusing on their strengths and suggesting how they can be enhanced The main contribution of the book is an ethnographic investigation of how post conflict communities in parts of Southern Africa use their local resources to forge a future after mass violence The way in which Namibia s Herero and Zimbabwe s Ndebele dealt with their respective genocides is a major contribution of the book The focus of the book is on two Southern African countries that never experienced institutionalized transitional justice as dispensed in post apartheid South Africa via the famed Truth and Reconciliation Commission We answer the question how have communities healed and reconciled after the end of protracted violence and gross human rights abuses in Zimbabwe and Namibia We depart from statist top down one size fits all approaches to transitional justice and investigate bottom up approaches Mugabeism after Mugabe? Duri, Fidelis Peter Thomas,Marongwe, Ngonidzashe,Mawere, Munyaradzi,2019-10-22 Arguably one of the long waited political handover of power globally happened in November 2017 in Zimbabwe when the former and now late 37 year long serving and divisive President Robert Gabriel Mugabe was forced out of power by a combination of forces that were spearheaded by the military s Operation Restore Legacy Mugabe s departure ushered in President Emmerson Dambudzo Mnangagwa s reign This transition has variously been characterised as marking the inauguration of the Second Republic or New Dispensation or as heralding a new Zimbabwe that is Open for Business From the moment of the investiture of President Mnangagwa s government anticipations of seismic changes to the order of doing business by both the incoming government and the larger Zimbabwean society in general were extremely high There was an expectation that international cooperation with global partners especially in the West would be restored alongside the reinvigoration of a near comatose domestic economy But did this ever happen This volume interrogates the impact of the introduction of the Mnangagwa administration from November 2017 The book seeks to broadly dissect and troubleshoot issues of continuity and change from Mugabe's reign into Mnangagwa's Second Republic In doing so the book attempts to respond to the grand question To what extent has Mugabeism that was the hallmark of Mugabe's reign continued or discontinued into the Second Republic The volume which comes as a sequel to The end of an era Robert Mugabe and a conflicting legacy is sure to generate interest and responses from students and academics in the fields of History International Studies Political Science Sociology and Social anthropology as well as from practitioners in the human rights transitional justice conflict resolution security studies and diplomatic fields

Zimbos Never Die?, 2023-05-08 This book seeks to explore how the Zimbabwean society and its institutions have survived if not succumbed to continuous economic crises in the country From the 1990s Zimbabwe experienced a sustained economic decline challenged by both internal and external strains Coupled with internal misgovernance and corruption the nation plunged into a political and economic crisis which culminated in the second highest world inflation rate for an economy that is not at war In the face of the harsh and continuously deteriorating economic environments Zimbabweans as individuals as well as part of institutions adopted various strategies to negotiate and survive the economic scourge Contributors include Wellington Bamu Nathaniel Chimhete Anusa Daimon Innocent Dande Sylvester Dombo Tinotenda Dube Rudo Gaidzanwa Tafara Evelyn Kombora Ushehweu Kufakurinani Bernard Kusena Eric Kushinga Makombe Albert Makochekanwa Blessed Masawi Ivo Mhike Joseph P Mtisi Joseph Mujere Wesley Mwatwara Pius S Nyambara Tinashe Nyamunda Mark Nyandoro Takesure Taringana and Nicola Yon Mutimurefu

Dictators and Autocrats Klaus Larres, 2021-10-31 In order to truly understand the emergence endurance and legacy of autocracy this volume of engaging essays explores how autocratic power is acquired exercised and transferred or abruptly ended through the careers and politics of influential figures in more than 20 countries and six regions The book looks at both traditional hard dictators such as Hitler Stalin and Mao and more modern soft or populist autocrats who are in the process of transforming once fully democratic countries into autocratic states including Recep Tayyip Erdoğan in Turkey Brazilian leader Jair Bolsonaro Rodrigo Duterte in the Philippines Narendra Modi in India and Viktor Orbán in Hungary The authors touch on a wide range of autocratic and dictatorial figures in the past and present including present day autocrats such as Vladimir Putin and Xi Jinping military leaders and democratic leaders with authoritarian aspirations They analyze the transition of selected autocrats from democratic or benign semi democratic systems to harsher forms of autocracy with either quite disastrous or more successful outcomes An ideal reader for students and scholars as well as the general public interested in international affairs leadership studies contemporary history and politics global studies security studies economics psychology and behavioral studies

African Foreign Policies in International Institutions Jason Warner, Timothy M. Shaw, 2018-05-18 This book is the first to exclusively consider the foreign policy tendencies of African states in international institutions As an edited volume offering empirically based perspectives from a variety of scholars this project disabuses the notion that Africa should be considered a niche interest in the field of foreign policy analysis It asserts that the actions of the continent's states collectively serve as an important heuristic by which to interrogate and understand the foreign policies of other global states and are not simply anomalously extant entities whose actions should be studied only insofar as they deviate from predictions based on the experiences of Western or other non African states

Mugabe
Stephen Chan, 2019-04-18 On 21st November 2017 Robert Mugabe resigned as President of Zimbabwe after 37 years in power A week earlier the military had seized control of the country and forced him to step down as leader of the ruling Zanu PF party In this revised and updated edition of his classic biography Stephen Chan seeks to explain and interpret Mugabe in his role as a key player in the politics of Southern Africa In this masterly portrait of one of Africa's longest serving leaders Mugabe's character unfolds with the ebb and flow of triumph and crisis Mugabe's story is Zimbabwe's from the post independence hopes of idealism and reconciliation to electoral victory the successful intervention in the international politics of Southern Africa and the resistance to South Africa's policy of apartheid But a darker picture emerged early with the savage crushing of the Matabeleland rising the elimination of political opponents growing corruption and disastrous intervention in the Congo war all worsened by drought and the HIV AIDS crisis Stephen Chan's highly revealing biography based on close personal knowledge of Zimbabwe depicts the emergence and eventual downfall of a ruthless and single minded despot amassing and tightly clinging to political power We follow the triumphant nationalist leader who reconciled all in the new multiracial Zimbabwe degenerate into a petty tyrant consumed by hubris and self righteousness and ultimately face an ignominious endgame at the hands of his own army

State-Business Relations and Economic Transformation in South Africa and Zimbabwe Sinan Baran, 2023-06-12 In State Business Relations and Economic Transformation in South Africa and Zimbabwe Unfinished Transformation Sinan Baran examines state business relations SBRs in semi peripheral South Africa and peripheral Zimbabwe after each country's transition to majority rule to address why SBRs are likely to either consolidate or fracture in post transition communities In both countries the majority governments faced unresolved post transition divisions relating to race inequality and underdevelopment Baran analyzes the liberalisation and indigenisation policy choices intended to address these areas that are impacting the mining industries in South Africa and Zimbabwe as case studies Using comparative analysis and a Modern World Systems lens he argues that semi peripheral countries are less susceptible to pressures from domestic and external powers than peripheral countries during periods of economic transformation He further argues that China s significant political and economic presence in a peripheral country like Zimbabwe has more effect on SBRs than in a semi peripheral country like South Africa

Mobility in Contemporary Zimbabwean Literature in English Magdalena Pfalzgraf, 2021-06-29 This monograph explores the concept of mobility in Zimbabwean works of fiction published in English between the introduction of the controversial Fast Track Land Reform Programme and the end of the Mugabe era Since 2000 Zimbabwe has experienced unprecedented levels of transnational out migration in response to the political conflicts and economic downturn often referred to as the Zimbabwe Crisis This in turn has led to an increased outpouring of literary texts about migration both in locally produced texts and in works by authors based in the diaspora Situating Zimbabwe s recent literary developments in a wider context of Southern African writing and history this book focuses on texts that portray movement within Zimbabwe s cities between village and city to South Africa and overseas The author examines important developments and trends in recent Zimbabwean literature investigating the link between state authoritarianism and control of mobility and literature s potential to intervene into dominant political discourses The book includes in depth analyses of ten recent works of fiction published in the post 2000 era and develops mobility as a key category of literary analysis of Zimbabwe s contemporary literatures Setting out a rich dialogue between literary criticism and mobility studies this book will be of interest to researchers of African literature Southern Africa migration and mobility

The Role and Future of the Commonwealth Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Foreign Affairs Committee, 2012-11-15 The Commonwealth is working for the UK however if the organisation is to reach its potential and influence events the Commonwealth Secretariat needs to sharpen strengthen and promote its diplomatic performance Recently the Commonwealth has appeared less active and less publicly visible The Government does not appear to have a clear and co ordinated strategy for its relations with the Commonwealth The moral authority of the Commonwealth has too often been undermined by the repressive actions of member governments The Committee is disturbed to note the ineffectiveness of the mechanisms for upholding the Commonwealth s values and expresses support for the Eminent Persons Group s proposal for a Commonwealth Charter The Committee also says that it is not convinced that member states are making the most of the economic and trading opportunities offered by the Commonwealth The report welcomes the fact that the Commonwealth continues to attract interest from potential new members and the report says that there are advantages in greater diversity and an extended global reach for the Commonwealth however the application process should be rigorous

There is also concern at the continuing evidence of serious human rights abuses in Sri Lanka and the Committee urges the Prime Minister to state publicly his unwillingness to attend the Commonwealth Heads of Government Meeting in Colombo meeting unless he receives convincing and independently verified evidence of substantial and sustainable improvements in human and political rights in Sri Lanka The Art of Survival Joseph Chikowero, Anna Chitando, Angeline M.

Madongonda, Government Phiri, 2015-11-25 The Art of Survival Depictions of Zimbabwe and the Zimbabwean in Crisis offers a fresh interdisciplinary examination of a period against which development in Zimbabwe is often measured one epitomized by the severe shortages and runaway inflation of 2008 While journalistic stories of the 1998 2008 era often privilege the reductive stories of woe defeat and crushed hopes this volume explores how survival was still possible in those circumstances The book offers insights into how ordinary Zimbabweans battled the odds by making startling innovations in language use to legitimize new survival strategies how they weaved new songs and reinterpreted old ones to fight for survival how social institutions such as churches reinterpreted popular gospel and how authors playwrights and dramatists crafted works that acknowledge the unprecedented difficulties and yet find humour laughter and love in unusual places This work will appeal to both scholars who will appreciate the depth of the analysis and the general reader Seeking Urban Transformation

Davison Muchadenyika, 2020-02-10 Seeking Urban Transformation Alternative Urban Futures in Zimbabwe tells the stories of ordinary peoples struggles to remake urban centres It interrogates and highlights the principle conditions in which urban transformation takes place The main catalysts of the transformation are social movements and planning institutions Social movements pool resources and skills acquire land install infrastructure and build houses Planning institutions change policies regulations and traditions to embrace and support a new form of urban development driven by grassroots movements Besides providing a comprehensive analysis of planning and housing in Zimbabwe there is a specific focus on three urban centres of Harare Chitungwiza and Epworth In metropolitan Harare the book examines new housing and infrastructure series to the predominantly urban poor population vital roles played by the urban poor in urban development and the adoption by planning institutions of grassroots centered urban planning approaches The book draws from three case studies and in depth interviews from diverse urban shapers i e representatives and members of social movements urban planners engineers surveyors policy makers politicians civil society workers and students to generate a varied selection of insights and experiences Based on the Zimbabwean experience the book illustrates how actions and power of ordinary people contributes to the transformation of African cities
