Don't Judge, Hug!!! Danny Ray Christian,2021-03-04 The Public Service Campaign If you see something say something was started after 911 I have seen things I do not think are kosher for too long without saying anything My silence ends with this book I have seen too many people being made to feel like they do not belong because they march to the beat of their own drum and stand opposed to the status quo I am talking about the so called minorities the physically and mentally challenged the poor and uneducated those battling addictions the old the young those to the religious left and right as well as those in the LGBT community and a marid of other individuals and groups who do not fit with the in crowd It has almost gotten to the point that the only people welcome to the party are those who put a gag on their mouth and will do anything to fit in hesitant to rock the boat for fear of persecution My goal with the writing of this book is to blow the trumpet to announce that it is time we start to do more hugging than judging each other I am tired of seeing people hurt simply because they do not fit into the cookie cutter role and place society and tradition says they belong in If I refuse to hug you I have no right to judge you The same goes for those who refuse to hug me because I am Black a father son brother uncle have mental emotional and spiritual challenges battling addiction loneliness and uncertainty homeless am a returning citizen unapologetically male and a follower of Jesus Christ American and most importantly a free thinker If you can find any reason not to hug me or I attempt to find a reason not to hug you neither of us have the right to judge or say anything about the other I am completing this book while I reside at City View Multicare Center in Cicero where I was blessed to find housing after being homeless for two years as the result of a mental and drug relapse I am thankful to the staff and residents here who have welcomed me into their midst with open arms I pray that they will take a chance to read it and be encouraged to love and hug themselves as well as others every day Though nursing homes are typically thought of as places of abandonment there is a prevailing sense of family here at City View which I am privileged to be a part of and supported by Their Motto is Heroes live here and work here and it is true in every sense of the word Who knows if we all did a little more hugging and a lot less judging we may find that many of our problems will go away Don't Judge A Book By It's Cover Elliot Thomas,2024-01-01 This is Elliot Thomas

White Race Discourse John Foster,2013-07-11 The election of Barack Obama as president led some to suggest that not only has US society made significant strides toward racial equality but it has moved beyond race or become post racial In fact studies have exposed numerous contradictions between the ways white Americans answer questions on surveys and how they respond to similar questions during in depth interviews How do we make sense of these contradictions In White Race Discourse Preserving Racial Privilege in a Post Racial Society John D Foster examines the numerous contradictions sixty one white college students exhibit as they discuss a variety of race matters Foster demonstrates that the whites interviewed possess a sophisticated method of communication to come across as ambivalent tolerant and innocent while simultaneously expressing their intolerance fear and suspicion of nonwhite Americans Whether intended or not this ambivalence assists in efforts to preserve social inequities while failing to address racial injustices While many scholars have written about the racetalk of whites few have succeeded in bridging both the theoretical and methodological gaps between whiteness scholars and discourse analysts White Race Discourse presents evidence that these white Americans are bureaucrats of whiteness in that they defend the racial status quo through their discourse It will be a valuable addition to the library of students and scholars of race studies and linguistics who research US race relations and discourse analysis

THE ART OF RELATIONSHIPS RICHARD MARTINEZ, 2021-07-19 Do you feel that your current relationship is hopeless that the passion is gone and that the person you are with does not understand you value you or provide what you need Everything that matters most in life revolves around people Our relationships determine our quality of life Therefore toxic relationships will create a dysfunctional life The relationship with our partner is the most intimate since we share more time space and energy with that person than any other The way we treat our partner and the relationship with our children and the rest of our family are great challenges yet they are the most important and enriching relationships in our lives
