Tiny You Jennifer L. Holland, 2020 Caroline Bancroft History Prize 2021 Denver Public Library Armitage Jameson Prize 2021 Coalition of Western Women's History David J Weber Prize 2021 Western History Association W Turrentine Jackson Prize 2021 Western History Association Tiny You tells the story of one of the most successful political movements of the twentieth century the grassroots campaign against legalized abortion While Americans have rapidly changed their minds about sex education pornography arts funding gay teachers and ultimately gay marriage opposition to legalized abortion has only grown As other socially conservative movements have lost young activists the pro life movement has successfully recruited more young people to its cause Jennifer L. Holland explores why abortion dominates conservative politics like no other cultural issue Looking at anti abortion movements in four western states since the 1960s turning to the fetal pins passed around church services the graphic images exchanged between friends and the fetus dolls given to children in school she argues that activists made fetal life feel personal to many Americans Pro life activists persuaded people to see themselves in the pins images and dolls they

held in their hands and made the fight against abortion the primary bread and butter issue for social conservatives Holland ultimately demonstrates that the success of the pro life movement lies in the borrowed logic and emotional power of leftist activism

Brands of Faith Mara Einstein, 2007-09-14 In a society overrun by commercial clutter religion has become yet another product sold in the consumer marketplace and faiths of all kinds must compete with a myriad of more entertaining and more convenient leisure activities Brands of Faith argues that in order to compete effectively faiths have had to become brands easily recognizable symbols and spokespeople with whom religious prospects can make immediate connections Mara Einstein shows how religious branding has expanded over the past twenty years to create a blended world of commerce and faith where the sacred becomes secular and the secular sacred In a series of fascinating case studies of faith brands she explores the significance of branded church courses such as Alpha and The Purpose Driven Life mega churches and the popularity of the televangelist Joel Olsteen and television presenter Oprah Winfrey as well as the rise of Kaballah She asks what the consequences of this religious marketing will be and outlines the possible results of religious commercialism good and bad Repackaging religion updating music creating teen targeted bibles is justifiable and necessary However when the content becomes obscured religion may lose its unique selling proposition the very ability to raise us above the market
