Double Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky:

The Double - Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky, 2021-07-19 First published in 1846 Fyodor Dostoyevsky's novella The Double is a classic doppelgänger and the second major work published by the author. It is the story of Yakov Petrovich Golyadkin, a government clerk who believes that a fellow clerk has taken over his identity and is determined to bring about his ruin. Considered the most Gogol-esque of Dostoyevsky's works, the novella brilliantly depicts Golyadkin's descent into madness in a way that is hauntingly poetic. The Double illustrates Dostoyevsky's uncanny ability at capturing the complexity of human emotion, especially the darker side of the human psyche. THE DOUBLE Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2019-05-04 While his literary reputation rests mainly on such celebrated novels as Crime and Punishment, The Brothers Karamazov, and The Idiot, Dostoyevsky also wrote much superb short fiction. The Double is one of the finest of his shorter works. It appeared in 1846, his second published work, and is by far the most significant of his early stories, not least for its successful straight-faced treatment of a hallucinatory theme. In The Double, the protagonist Golyadkin senior is persecuted by his double, Golyadkin junior, who resembles him closely in almost every detail. The latter abuses the former with mounting scorn and brutality as the tale proceeds toward its frightening denouement. Characteristic Dostoyevskian themes of helplessness, victimization, and scandal are beautifully handled here with an artistry that qualifies the story as a small masterpiece. Students of literature, admirers of Dostoyevsky, and general readers will all be delighted to have this classic work available in this inexpensive but high-quality edition. The Double Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2010-09 Most significant of the Russian novelist's early stories, 1846 offers straight-faced treatment of a hallucinatory theme. Golyadkin senior is ruthlessly persecuted by Golyadkin junior, his double, in almost every respect. The Double Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2009-01-16 With keen psychological insight far ahead of its time, leading to wide misinterpretation among critics upon its first publication in 1846, Dostoyevsky's second novel is now recognized as one of his most important works and one that inspired literally hundreds of imitations. Unhappy with the negative reception for The Double, Dostoyevsky re-wrote his original version of 1846 fifteen years later. Dostoyevsky wrote: "This revision, provided with an introduction, will be the equivalent of a new novel. They will finally see what The Double is. In a word, I'm challenging everybody to a battle. Why should I lose a superb idea, a great type in its social importance, which I was the first to discover and of which I was the herald." The Double by Fyodor Mikhailovich Dostoyevsky Unabridged 1846 Original Version Fyodor Dostoyevsky, 2017-07-07 The Double centers on a government clerk who goes mad. It deals with the internal psychological struggle of its main character, Yakov Petrovich Golyadkin, who repeatedly encounters someone who is his exact double in appearance but confident, aggressive, and extroverted characteristics that are the polar opposites to those of the toadying pushover protagonist. The motif of the novella is a doppelgänger. Russian dvoynik Golyadkin is a titular councillor. This is rank 9 in the Table of Ranks established by Peter the Great. As rank eight led to hereditary nobility, 3 being a titular councillor is symbolic of a low-level bureaucrat still struggling.

to succeed Golyadkin has a formative discussion with his Doctor Rutenspitz who fears for his sanity and tells him that his behavior is dangerously antisocial. He prescribes cheerful company as the remedy. Golyadkin resolves to try this and leaves the office. He proceeds to a birthday party for Klara Olsufyevna, the daughter of his office manager. He was uninvited and a series of faux pas lead to his expulsion from the party. On his way home through a snowstorm, he encounters his double who looks exactly like him. The following two thirds of the novel then deals with their evolving relationship. At first Golyadkin Sr, the original main character, and Golyadkin Jr, his double, are friends, but Golyadkin Jr proceeds to attempt to take over Sr's life and they become bitter enemies. Because Golyadkin Jr has all the charm, unctuousness, and social skills that Golyadkin Sr lacks, he is very well liked among the office colleagues. At the story's conclusion, Golyadkin Sr begins to see many replicas of himself, has a psychotic break, and is dragged off to an asylum by Doctor Rutenspitz.

The Double - Dostoevsky Fyodor Dostoevsky, 2025-01-18. The Double is a psychological exploration of identity, paranoia, and existential crisis within the rigid structure of 19th-century Russian society. Fyodor Dostoevsky examines the fragile nature of self-perception through the story of Yakov Petrovich Golyadkin, a government clerk who encounters his uncanny double. As Golyadkin's life unravels, the novel delves into themes of alienation, madness, and the struggle for recognition in a bureaucratic and hierarchical world. Since its publication, The Double has been recognized for its psychological depth and innovative narrative style. Its portrayal of a fractured identity and the tension between self and society has influenced discussions on existentialism and modernist literature. The novel's unsettling atmosphere and exploration of paranoia continue to captivate readers, solidifying its place as an essential work in Dostoevsky's literary evolution. The novel's lasting significance lies in its ability to depict the instability of human identity and the psychological toll of societal pressures. By confronting readers with the ambiguity of perception and the fragility of selfhood, The Double invites reflection on the nature of consciousness and the fears that arise when one's reality is questioned.
