ROBERT GOULET, 1958 Cinema, Slavery, and Brazilian Nationalism Richard A. Gordon, 2015-01-20 A unique contribution to film studies Richard Gordon's Cinema Slavery and Brazilian Nationalism is the first full length book on Brazilian films about slavery By studying Brazilian films released between 1976 and 2005 Gordon examines how the films both define the national community and influence viewer understandings of Brazilianness Though the films he examines span decades they all communicate their revised version of Brazilian national identity through a cinematic strategy with a dual aim to upset ingrained ways of thinking about Brazil and to persuade those who watch the films to accept a new way of understanding their national community By examining patterns in this heterogeneous group of films Gordon proposes a new way of delineating how these films attempt to communicate with and change the minds of audience members Gordon outlines five key aspects that each film incorporates which describe their shared formula for and role in constructing social identity These elements include the ways in which the films attempt to create links between the past and the viewers present and their methods of encouraging viewers to identify with their protagonists who are often cast as a prototype for the nation By aligning themselves with this figure viewers arrive at a definition of their national identity that while Afrocentric also promotes racial and ethnic inclusiveness Gordon s innovative analysis transcends the context of his work and his conclusions can be applied to questions of national identity and film across cultures

Crossing Boundaries and Weaving

Intercultural Work, Life, and Scholarship in Globalizing Universities Adam Komisarof, Zhu Hua, 2015-10-23 This book generates a fresh complex view of the process of globalization by examining how work scholarship and life inform each other among intercultural scholars as they navigate their interpersonal relationships and cross boundaries physically and metaphorically Divided into three parts the book examines 1 the socio psychological process of crossing boundaries constructed around nations and work organizations 2 the negotiation of multiple aspects of identities and 3 the role of language in intercultural encounters in particular adjustment taking place at linguistic and interactional levels The authors reflect upon and give meaning and structure to their own intercultural experiences through theoretical frameworks and concepts many of which they themselves have proposed and developed in their own research They also provide invaluable advice for transnational scholars and those who aspire to work and live abroad to improve organizational participation and mutual intercultural engagement when working in a globalizing workplace Researchers and practitioners of applied linguistics communication studies and higher education in many regions of the world will find this book an insightful resource

Polygraphies Alison Rice, 2012-08-30 Coinciding with the fiftieth anniversary of Algeria s independence Polygraphies is significant and timely in its focus on autobiographical writings by seven of the most prominent francophone women writers from Algeria today including Ma ssa Bey H l ne Cixous Assia Djebar and Malika Mokeddem These authors witnessed both the before and after of the colonial experience in their land and their fictional and theoretical texts testify to the lasting impact of this history From a variety of personal perspectives and backgrounds each writer addresses linguistic religious and racial issues of crucial contemporary importance in Algeria Alison Rice engages their work from a range of disciplines striving both to heighten our sensitivity to the plurality inherent in their texts and to move beyond a true false dichotomy to a wealth of possible truths all communicated in writing

Reading Cy Twombly Mary Jacobus, 2016-08-16

The first book on the central importance of literary sources in the paintings of Cy Twombly Many of Cy Twombly s paintings and drawings include handwritten words and phrases naming or quoting poets ranging from Sappho Homer and Virgil to Mallarm Rilke and Cavafy Enigmatic and sometimes hard to decipher these inscriptions are a distinctive feature of his work Reading Cy Twombly poses both literary and art historical questions How does poetic reference in largely abstract works affect their interpretation Reading Cy Twombly is the first book to focus specifically on the artist's use of poetry Twombly's library formed an extension of his studio and he sometimes painted with a book open in front of him Drawing on original research in an archive that includes his paint stained and annotated books Mary Jacobus's account richly illustrated with more than 125 color and black and white images unlocks an important aspect of Twombly's practice Jacobus shows that poetry was an indispensable source of reference throughout Twombly's career as he said he never really separated painting and literature Among much else she explores the influence of Ezra Pound and Charles Olson Twombly's fondness for Greek pastoral poetry and Virgil's Eclogues the inspiration of the Iliad and Ovid's Metamorphoses and Twombly's love of Keats and his collaboration with Octavio Paz Twombly's art reveals both his distinctive relationship to poetry and his use of quotation to solve formal problems A modern painter he belongs in a critical tradition that goes back by way of Roland Barthes to Baudelaire Reading Cy Twombly opens up fascinating new readings of some of the most important paintings and drawings of the twentieth century Cumulated Index Medicus, 1968 Gender and Education in India Nandini

Manjrekar, 2021-06-16 Examining the complex linkages between gender and education in the Indian context forms part of a wider matrix of inquiry related to understanding gender and its intersections with class caste religion and region The sixteen essays in this Reader by eminent scholars offer critical feminist perspectives covering many issues related to these linkages examining ideologies structural contexts knowledge pedagogy and experiences through a socio historical lens They point to the range of sources and methods that can be used to uncover the linkages between gender and education such as quantitative data literature autobiographies oral histories and ethnography This book is co published with Aakar Books New Delhi Taylor Francis does not sell or distribute the print versions of this book in India Pakistan Nepal Bhutan Bangladesh and Sri Lanka Recycled Culture in Contemporary Art and Film Vera Dika, 2003-06-09 The reuse of images plots and genres from film history has become prominent in contemporary culture In this study Vera Dika explores this phenomenon from a broad range of critical perspectives examining works of art and film that resist the pull of the past Dika provides an in depth analysis of works in several media including performance photography Punk film and examples from mainstream American and European cinema Proclaiming the renewed importance of the image and of genre she investigates works as diverse as Cindy Sherman's Untitled Film Stills Amos Poe's The Foreigner Terence Malick's Badlands and Francis Ford Coppola's One from the Heart Her study positions avant garde art work within the context of contemporary mainstream film practice as well as in relationship to their historical moment
