Emerson And Universal Mind:

Emerson and Universal Mind Richard G. Geldard, 2013 Geldard delves into what remains of Emerson's late Harvard Lectures to explore his core ideas on Mind the Powers and Laws of Thought Instinct and Inspiration and Memory In the process he presents Transcendentalism as an American development of the grand Neoplatonic vision This one of a kind book concludes with The Platonic Philosopher's Creed by Thomas Taylor the great Platonist whose translations and writings Emerson studied in depth The Romantic Foundations of the American Renaissance Leon Chai, 2019-05-15 The Romantic Foundations of the American Renaissance illuminates the process by which the cultural legacy of European Romanticism was assimilated by and transformed in the literature of mid nineteenth century America Leon Chai traces the development various governing concepts or tendencies from their genesis in British French and German Romantic traditions through their subsequent appropriation by such American writers as Poe Emerson Hawthorne and Melville Among the topics he addresses are the shift from allegory to symbolism selected trends in Romantic science the secularization of religion the emergence of a historical consciousness and a philosophy of history pantheism the relation of subjectivity to objectivity in Romantic philosophy and Romantic poets Democratic Humanism and American Literature Harold Kaplan, Thoreau's Democratic Withdrawal Shannon L. Mariotti, 2010-01-21 Best known for his two year sojourn at Walden Pond in Massachusetts Henry David Thoreau is often considered a recluse who emerged from solitude only occasionally to take a stand on the issues of his day In Thoreau's Democratic Withdrawal Shannon L. Mariotti explores Thoreau's nature writings to offer a new way of understanding the unique politics of the so called hermit of Walden Pond Drawing imaginatively from the twentieth century German social theorist Theodor W. Adorno she shows how withdrawal from the public sphere can paradoxically be a valuable part of democratic politics Separated by time space and context Thoreau and Adorno share a common belief that critical inquiry is essential to democracy but threatened by modern society While walking huckleberrying and picking wild apples Thoreau tries to recover the capacities for independent perception and thought that are blunted by Main Street conventional society and the rapidly industrializing world that surrounded him Adorno's thoughts on particularity and the microscopic gaze he employs to work against the alienated experience of modernity help us better understand the value of Thoreau's excursions into nature Reading Thoreau with Adorno we see how periodic withdrawals from public spaces are not necessarily apolitical or apathetic but can revitalize our capacity for the critical thought that truly defines democracy In graceful readable prose Mariotti reintroduces us to a celebrated American thinker offers new insights on Adorno and highlights the striking common ground they share Their provocative and challenging ideas she shows still hold lessons on how we can be responsible citizens in a society that often discourages original critical analysis of public issues Emersonian Circles Joel Myerson, 1997 The enormous critical resurgence of interest in Ralph Waldo Emerson over the past fifteen years has restored the Sage of Concord to his former role as an American icon At the same time this renewed interest raises old historical and critical questions about his place in American Transcendentalism and in American culture generally This collection of essays seeks to address the variety of critical questions about Emerson and to reevaluate his significance through his own metaphors of insight and influence particularly that of the circle ROBERT E BURKHOLDER is Associate Professor of English at the Pennsylvania State University WESLEY T MOTT is Professor of English at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute Contributors ROBERT A GROSS ALBERT J VON FRANK LEN GOUGEON RONALD A BOSCO FRANK SHUFFELTON PHYLLIS COLE ROBERT D RICHARDSON JR DAVID M ROBINSON DANIEL SHEALY HELEN R DEESE KENT P LJUNGQUIST GARY L COLLISON PHILIP F GURA Emerson's Metaphysics Joseph Urbas, 2016-10-12 This book gives the first complete fully historicized account of Emerson's metaphysics of cause and effect and its foundational position in his philosophy as a whole Urbas tells the story of the making of a metaphysician and in so doing breaks with the postmodern anti metaphysical readings that have dominated Emerson scholarship since his philosophical rehabilitation began in late 1970s This is an intellectual biography of Emerson the metaphysician but also a chapter in the cultural life story of a concept synonymous in the Transcendentalist period with life itself the story of the principle at the origin of all being and change Emerson's Metaphysics proposes an account of Emerson's metaphysical thought as it unfolds in his writings as it informs his philosophy as a whole and as it reflects the intellectual and religious culture in which he lived and moved and had his being This book will be of interest to philosophers literary scholars and students of English philosophy and intellectual and religious history who are interested in Emerson and the American Transcendentalist movement The New Romanticism Eberhard Alsen, 2014-02-04 The New Romanticism is an overview of the romantic trend taken up by American novelists in the twentieth century Includes three classic essays by Saul Bellow Thomas Pynchon and Toni Morrison The Primitive mind-cure.
