Weigel Theodor Oswald WEIGEL, 1865 2001 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2011-08-02 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors Current List of Medical Literature , 1955-07 Includes section Recent book acquisitions varies Recent United States publications formerly published separately by the U S Army Medical Library The Cambridge History of Classical Literature E. J. Kenney, W. V. Clausen, 1982 The Cambridge History of Classical Literature provides a comprehensive critical survey of the literature of Greece and Rome from Homer till the Fall of Rome This is the only modern work of this scope it embodies the very considerable advances made by recent classical scholarship and reflects too the increasing sophistication and vigour of critical work on ancient literature The literature is presented throughout in the context of the culture and the social and hisotircal processes of which it is an integral part The overall aim is to offer an authoritative work of reference and appraisal for one of the world s greatest continuous literary traditions The work is divided into two volumes each with a similar and broadly chronological structure Among the special features are important introductory chapters by the General Editors on Books and Readers discussing the conditions under which literature was written and read in antiquity There are also extensive Appendices or Authors and Works giving detailed factual information in a convenient form Technical annotation is otherwise kept to a minimum and all quotations in foreign languages are translated Catalogue of the Mercantile Library of Philadelphia Mercantile Library of Philadelphia, 1870 Bulletin of the Public Affairs Information Service Public Affairs Information Service, 1927 Heroic imperialists in Africa Berny Sèbe, 2015-11-01 From the height of New Imperialism until the Second World War three generations of heroes of the British and French empires in Africa were selected manufactured and packaged for consumption by a metropolitan public eager to discover new horizons and to find comfort in the concept of a civilising mission This book looks at imperial heroism by examining the legends of a dozen major colonial figures on both sides of the Channel revisiting the familiar stories of Livingstone Gordon and Kitchener from a radically new angle and throwing light on their French counterparts often less famous in the Anglophone world but certainly equally fascinating American Journal of Pharmacy, 1853 American Journal of Pharmacy and the Sciences Supporting Public Health, 1853 The Oxford World History of Empire Peter Fibiger Bang, C. A. Bayly, Walter Scheidel, 2020-12-02 This is the first world history of empire reaching from the third millennium BCE to the present By combining synthetic surveys thematic comparative essays and numerous chapters on specific empires its two volumes provide unparalleled coverage of imperialism throughout history and across continents from Asia to Europe and from Africa to the Americas Only a few decades ago empire was believed to be a thing of the past now it is clear that it has been and remains one of the most enduring forms of political organization and power We cannot understand the dynamics and resilience of empire without moving decisively beyond the study of individual cases or particular periods such as the relatively short age of European colonialism The history of empire as these volumes amply demonstrate needs to be drawn on the much broader canvas of global history Volume Two The History of Empires tracks the protean history of political domination from the very beginnings of state formation in the Bronze Age up to the present Case studies deal with the full range of the historical experience of empire from the realms of the Achaemenids and Asoka to the empires of Mali and Songhay and from ancient Rome and China to the Mughals American settler colonialism and the Soviet Union Forty five chapters detailing the history of individual empires are tied together by a set of global synthesizing surveys that structure the world history of empire into eight chronological phases Catalogue of the Mercantile Library of Philadelphia ohne Autor, 2020-04-08 Reprint of the original first published in 1870 Empires Susan E. Alcock, 2001-08-09 Empires the largest political systems of the ancient and early modern world powerfully transformed the lives of people within and even beyond their frontiers in ways quite different from other non imperial societies Appearing in all parts of the globe and in many different epochs empires invite comparative analysis yet few attempts have been made to place imperial systems within such a framework This book brings together studies by distinguished scholars from diverse academic traditions including anthropology archaeology history and classics The empires discussed include case studies from Central and South America the Mediterranean Europe the Near East South East Asia and China and range in time from the first millennium BC to the early modern era The book organises these detailed studies into five thematic sections sources approaches and definitions empires in a wider world imperial integration and imperial subjects imperial ideologies and the afterlife of empires
