Empty Meeting Grounds The Tourist Papers By Dean Maccannell 1992 08:

Teaching African American Literature Maryemma Graham, Sharon Pineault-Burke, Marianna White Davis, 2013-12-16 This book is written by teachers interested in bringing African American literature into the classroom Documented here is the learning process that these educators experienced themselves as they read and discussed the stories pedagogical

Geography and Vision Denis Cosgrove, 2012-11-25 Leading geographer Denis Cosgrove provides a series of personal reflections on the complex connections between seeing imagining and representing the world geographically In a series of eloquent essays he draws upon pictorial images including maps sketches cartoons paintings and photographs to explore and elaborate upon the many and varied ways in which the vast and varied earth and at times the heavens beyond have been both imagined and represented as a place of human habitation The essays include reflections upon geographical discovery urban cartography and utopian visions ideas of landscape and the shaping of America wilderness and masculinity conceptions of the Pacific and the imaginative grip of the Equator Extensively illustrated this engaging work reveals the richness of the geographical imagination as expressed over the past five centuries Women Write Iran Nima Naghibi, 2016-05-01 Women Write Iran is the first full length study on life narratives by Iranian women in the diaspora Nima Naghibi investigates auto biographical narratives across genres including memoirs documentary films prison testimonials and graphic novels and finds that they are tied together by the experience of the 1979 Iranian revolution as a traumatic event and by a powerful nostalgia for an idealized past Naghibi is particularly interested in writing as both an expression of memory and an assertion of human rights She discovers that writing life narratives contributes to the larger enterprise of righting historical injustices By drawing on the empathy of the reader spectator witness Naghibi contends life narratives offer the possibilities of connecting to others and responding with an increased commitment to social justice. The book opens with an examination of how the widely circulated video footage of the death of Neda Agha Soltan on the streets of Tehran in June 2009 triggered the articulation of life narratives by diasporic Iranians It concludes with a discussion of the prominent place of the 1979 revolution in these narratives Throughout the focus is on works that have become popular in the West such as Marjane Satrapi s best selling graphic novel Persepolis Naghibi addresses the significant questions raised by these works How do we engage with human rights and social justice as readers in the West How do these narratives draw our attention and elicit our empathic reactions And what is our responsibility as witnesses to trauma atrocity and human suffering The Cinematic Footprint Nadia Bozak, 2011-10-28 Film is often used to represent the natural landscape and increasingly to communicate environmentalist messages Yet behind even today s green movies are ecologically unsustainable production distribution and consumption processes Noting how seemingly immaterial moving images are supported by highly durable resource dependent infrastructures The Cinematic Footprint traces the history of how the hydrocarbon imagination has been central to the development of film as a medium Nadia Bozak s innovative fusion of film studies and environmental studies makes provocative connections between the disappearance of material resources and the emergence of digital media with examples ranging from early cinema to Dziga Vertov s prescient eye from Chris Marker s analog experiments to the digital work of Agn s Varda James Benning and Zacharias Kunuk Combining an analysis of cinema technology with a sensitive consideration of film aesthetics The Cinematic Footprint offers a new perspective on moving images and the natural resources that sustain Claiming Back Their Heritage Geneviève Susemihl, 2023-10-04 This book provides a unique in depth look at three Indigenous World Heritage sites in Canada and their use for Indigenous empowerment and community development Based on extensive ethnographic field studies and comprehensive narrative interviews it shows how the three First Nation communities presented in the case studies enforce recognition of their collective rights to preserve their cultural heritage and assert their right to political economic cultural and social self determination It also considers the prevailing universalistic discourses around World Heritage and the various ways in which they serve to either reinforce existing oppressive conditions regarding Indigenous communities and voices or provide opportunities to overcome them The book will be of interest to scholars and students working on social and cultural histories histories of colonialism and in heritage and museum studies A History of Modern Tourism Eric Zuelow, 2015-10-26 Tourism is one of the largest industries in the world yet leisure travel is more than just economically important It plays a vital role in defining who we are by helping to place us in space and time In so doing it has aesthetic medical political cultural and social implications However it hasn t always been so Tourism as we know it is a surprisingly modern thing both a product of modernity and a force helping to shape it A History of Modern Tourism is the first book to track the origins and evolution of this pursuit from earliest times to the present From a new understanding of aesthetics to scientific change from the invention of steam power to the creation of aircraft from an elite form of education to family car trips to see national shrines this book offers a sweeping and engaging overview of a fascinating story not yet widely known On Landscapes Susan Herrington, 2013-12-19 There is no escaping landscape it s everywhere and part of everyone s life Landscapes have received much less attention in aesthetics than those arts we can choose to ignore such as painting or music but they can tell us a lot about the ethical and aesthetic values of the societies that produce them Drawing on examples from a wide range of landscapes from around the world and throughout history Susan Herrington considers the ways landscapes can affect our emotions our imaginations and our understanding of the passage of time On Landscapes reveals the design work involved in even the most naturalistic of landscapes and the ways in which contemporary landscapes are turning the challenges of the industrial past into opportunities for the future Inviting us to thoughtfully see and experience the landscapes that we encounter in our daily lives On Landscapes demonstrates that art is all around us Egyptian Gothic Jay Sullivan, 2025-07-13 The Egyptian Gothic consists of novels and short stories about ancient Egyptian mummies returning to life to seek retribution or romance as well as cursed object tales Now mostly forgotten from the 1880s through to the 1920s it was more popular than the vampire genre This book is the first to examine the genre by using the frequent sensory descriptions within these texts to interrogate attitudes towards Empire Its aims are twofold Firstly it demonstrates that despite their status as disposable popular fiction these texts are rich in sensory discourses that have thus far been unexamined Secondly reading these discourses of touch sight smell sound and taste reveals new and intriguing ways in which Egypt is allowed to strike back against the British Empire The book argues that the Egyptian Gothic does not support the domination of Empire but instead presents a power dynamic in flux with the mummy fighting back against Western occupation Egypt and its artefacts evoke simultaneous feelings of fear and desire where those who meddle by invading tombs or stealing mummies are destroyed by Egyptian revenants The Ghostly and the Ghosted in Literature and Film Lisa B. Kröger, Melanie Anderson, 2013-03-14 The Ghostly and the Ghosted in Literature and Film Spectral Identities is a collection of essays expanding the concepts of ghost and haunting beyond literary tools used to add supernatural flavor to include questions of identity visibility memory and trauma and history Using a wide scope of texts from varying time periods and cultures including fiction and film this collection explores the phenomenon of social ghosts What does it mean for example to be invisible to be a ghost particularly when that ghost is representative of a person or group living on the margins of society Why do specific types of ghosts tend to haunt certain cultures and or places What is it about a people s history that invites these types of hauntings The essays in this book like pieces of a puzzle approach the larger questions from diverse individual perspectives but taken together they offer a richly detailed composite discussion of what it means to be haunted Orphanage Tourism in Nepal Dr. Esther Bott, 2025-02-11 This book tackles for the first time the complex issues surrounding the phenomenon of orphanage tourism which is a growing and highly lucrative tourism niche in Nepal and several other economically developing countries The book explores the occurrence of orphanage tourism in Nepal how it is experienced understood sustained opposed and crucially how it shapes the lives of the children involved Rather than exploring the motives of tourists who engage in volunteering in orphanages while on holiday as so much extant literature does the book examines the factors that contribute to the emergence of commercial orphanages and the experiences of the children involved A central concern is to illustrate the inadequate ways in which orphanage tourism is understood framed and politicised especially in terms of who is blamed for its prevalence and how various Western entities position themselves as agents of rescue By examining Nepal's socioeconomic and geopolitical landscape as well as the role of Western international development and structural adjustment and the impacts of tourism the book presents a deeper and more complete picture of the emergence of orphanage tourism and other forms of child labour Furthermore by examining the everyday realities of life in Nepal especially for children and young adults who grew up in contact with Western volunteers in commercial orphanages the simplistic depiction of orphans as victims who need saving from villains by heroes is dismantled The book is especially focused on showing how the historical and everyday realities of life for children compelled to work are all too often ignored obscured and distorted in the interventionist discourse that is beginning to surround orphanage tourism

I will argue that common orphan tropes imbued with desperation and vulnerability are circulated in no small way towards predominantly fulfilling the agendas of various Western parties The Ethnography of Tourism Kathleen M. Adams, Ouetzil E. Castañeda, Naomi M. Leite, 2019-10-11 Winner of the 2020 Edward M Bruner Book Award from the Anthropology of Tourism Interest Group Leite Castaneda and Adams s volume is a beautiful retrospective of the enduring importance of Ed Bruner's work and legacy in our field and we have no doubt that it will be used as a central historical theoretical and teaching text by many Prize Committee What does it mean to study tourism ethnographically How has the ethnography of tourism changed from the 1970s to today What theories themes and concepts drive contemporary research Thirteen leading anthropologists of tourism address these questions and provide a critical introduction to the state of the art Focusing on the experience near interpretive humanistic approach to tourism studies widely associated with anthropologist Edward Bruner the contributors draw on their fieldwork to illustrate and build upon key concepts in tourism ethnography from experience encounter and emergent culture to authenticity narrative contested sites the borderzone embodiment identity and mobility With its comprehensive introductory chapter keyword based organization and engaging style The Ethnography of Tourism will appeal to anthropology and tourism studies students as well as to scholars in both fields and beyond For more information check out A Conversation with the Editors of the Ethnography of Tourism Edward M Bruner and Beyond and In Memoriam Ed Bruner Take Me to My Paradise Colleen Ballerino Cohen, 2010-09-27 The British Virgin Islands BVI markets itself to international visitors as a paradise But just whose paradise is it Colleen Ballerino Cohen looks at the many players in the BVI tourism culture from the tourists who leave their graffiti at beach bars that are popularized in song to the waiters who serve them and the singers who entertain them Interweaving more than twenty years of field notes Cohen provides a firsthand analysis of how tourism transformed the BVI from a small neglected British colony to a modern nation that competes in a global economic market With its close reading of everything from advertisements to political manifestos and constitutional reforms Take Me to My Paradise deepens our understanding of how nationalism develops hand in hand with tourism and documents the uneven impact of economic prosperity upon different populations We hear multiple voices including immigrants working in a tourism economy nationalists struggling to maintain some control and the anthropologist trying to make sense of it all The result is a richly detailed and accessible ethnography on the impact of tourism on a country that came into being as a tourist destination Identity Matters Donna LeCourt, 2012-02-01 Identity Matters explores the question that consistently plagues composition teachers why do their pedagogies so often fail Donna LeCourt suggests that the answer may lie with the very identities values and modes of expression higher education cultivates In a book that does precisely what it theorizes LeCourt analyzes student written literacy autobiographies to examine how students interact with and challenge cultural theories of identity This analysis demonstrates that writing instruction does indeed matter and has a significant influence on how students imagine their potential in both academic and cultural realms

LeCourt paints not only a compelling and vexing picture of how students interact with academic discourse as both mind and body but also offers hope for a reconceived pedagogy of social material writing practice The Pleasure Garden, from Vauxhall to Coney Island Jonathan Conlin, 2012-11-29 Summers at the Vauxhall pleasure garden in London brought diverse entertainments to a diverse public Picturesque walks and arbors offered a pastoral retreat from the city while at the same time the garden's attractions indulged distinctly urban tastes for fashion novelty and sociability High and low born alike were free to walk the paths the proximity to strangers and the danger of dark walks were as thrilling to visitors as the fountains and fireworks Vauxhall was the venue that made the careers of composers inspired novelists and showcased the work of artists Scoundrels sudden downpours and extortionate ham prices notwithstanding Vauxhall became a must see destination for both Londoners and tourists Before long there were Vauxhalls across Britain and America from York to New York Norwich to New Orleans This edited volume provides the first book length study of the attractions and interactions of the pleasure garden from the opening of Vauxhall in the seventeenth century to the amusement parks of the early twentieth Nine essays explore the mutual influences of human behavior and design landscape painting sculpture and even transient elements such as lighting and music tacitly informed visitors how to move within the space what to wear how to behave and where they might transgress The Pleasure Garden from Vauxhall to Coney Island draws together the work of musicologists art historians and scholars of urban studies and landscape design to unfold a cultural history of pleasure gardens from the entertainments they offered to the anxieties of social difference they provoked British Artists and the Modernist Landscape Ysanne Holt, 2018-01-12 Title first published in 2003 In this detailed study of the landscapes and rural scenes of Britain and France made by artists like George Clausen Philip Wilson Steer Augustus John Laura Knight J D Fergusson and Spencer Gore Ysanne Holt investigates the imaginary geographies behind the pictures and reconsiders the relationship between national identity Englishness and the native landscape Combining close investigation of important works with a broader enquiry into the appeal of the Mediterranean for an age preoccupied with cultural degeneracy and bodily health Ysanne Holt draws fascinating conclusions about the impact of modernism on the British tradition of landscape painting

Theologies on the Move Gemma Tulud Cruz, Deenabandhu Manchala, 2020-10-13 Theologies on the Move examines how the experiences of migration and pilgrimage that are created as a result of the pressures of neoliberal capitalism shape theological and religious traditions Based on these insights the contributors examine what difference religion can make in a world dominated by the interests of the few rather than the many HBO's Treme and Post-Katrina CatharsisDominique Gendrin, Catherine Dessinges, Shearon Roberts, 2017-04-07 Ten years after Hurricane Katrina outsiders will have two versions of the Katrina experience One version will be the images they recall from news coverage of the aftermath The other will be the intimate portrayal of the determination of New Orleans residents to rebuild and recover their lives HBO s Treme offers outsiders an inside look into why New Orleanians refused to abandon a place that many questioned should not be rebuilt after the levees failed This critically acclaimed series expanded the boundaries of television making in its format plot casting use of music and realism in fictionalized TV However Treme is not just a story for the outside gaze on New Orleans It was a very local collaborative experience where the show s creators sought to enlist the city in a commemorative project Treme allowed many in the city who worked as principals extras and who tuned in as avid viewers to heal from the devastation of the disaster as they experimented with art imitating life imitating art This book examines the impact of HBOs Treme not just as television making but in the sense in which television provides a window to our worlds The book pulls together scholarship in media communications gender area studies political economy critical studies African American studies and music to explain why Treme was not just about television Travel and Drugs in Twentieth-Century Literature Lindsey Michael Banco, 2013-01-11 This book examines the connections between two disparate yet persistently bound thematics mobility and intoxication and explores their central yet frequently misunderstood role in constructing subjectivity following the 1960s Emerging from profound mid twentieth century changes in how drugs and travel were imagined the conceptual nexus discussed sheds new light on British and North American responses to sixties counterculture With readings of Aldous Huxley William Burroughs Alex Garland Hunter S Thompson and Robert Sedlack Banco traces twin arguments looking at the ways travel is imagined as a disciplinary force acting upon the creative destabilizing powers of psychedelic intoxication and exploring the ways drugs help construct travel spaces and practices as at times revolutionary and at other times neo colonial By following a sequence of shifting understandings of drug and travel orthodoxies this book traverses fraught and irresistibly linked terrains from the late 1950s up to a period marked by international postmodern tourism As such it helps illuminate a world where tourism is continually expanding yet constantly circumscribed and where illegal drugs are both increasingly unregulated in the global economy and perceived more and more as crucial agents in the construction Critics and Writers Speak Igor Maver, 2006-01-01 This book of new critical essays and interviews of human subjectivity with writers interrogates the current usage of the term and the category of the post colonial as a theoretical concept discourse and state of mind By looking at contemporary writing in English throughout the world it critically revisions the current practice of post colonial studies and calls attention to its significant weaknesses Staging Place Una Chaudhuri, 1997 The first book length study of the notion of place and its implications in modern drama
