Encounter Between Eastern Orthodoxy and Radical Orthodoxy Dr Adrian Pabst, Mr Christoph Schneider, 2013-05-28

This book presents the first debate between the contemporary movement Radical Orthodoxy and Eastern Orthodox theologians. Leading international scholars offer new insights and reflections on a wide range of contemporary issues from a specifically theological and philosophical perspective. The ancient notion of divine Wisdom Sophia serves as a common point of reference in this encounter. Both Radical and Eastern Orthodoxy agree that the transfiguration of the world through the Word is at the very centre of the Christian faith. The book explores how this process of transformation can be envisaged with regard to epistemological, ontological, aesthetical, ecclesiological and political questions. Contributors to this volume include Rowan Williams, John Milbank, Antoine Arjakovsky, Michael Northcott, Nicholas Loudovikos, Andrew Louth and Catherine Pickstock.

The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology Christopher D. Rodkey, Jordan E. Miller, 2018-10-10. The Palgrave Handbook of Radical Theology is the definitive guide to radical theology and the commencement for new directions in that field. For the first time, radical theology is addressed and assessed in a single comprehensive volume including introductory and historical essays for the beginner, essays on major figures and their thought, and shorter articles on various themes, concepts and related topics. This book is a seminal work for the radical theology movement. It clarifies origins and demonstrates the exigency and utility of current figures and issues. A useful and essential guide for newcomers and veterans in the field, this volume serves as both a reference work and an introduction to omitted or forgotten topics within contemporary discussions.

The Hidden and the Manifest Hart, David Bentley, 2017. Rowan Williams says that David Bentley Hart can always be relied on to offer a perspective on the Christian faith that is both profound and unexpected. The Hidden and the Manifest, a new collection of this brilliant scholar's work, contains twenty essays by Hart on theology and metaphysics. Spanning Hart's career, both topically and over time, these essays cover such subjects as the Orthodox understanding of Eucharistic sacrifice, the metaphysics of Paradise Lost, Christianity, modernity and freedom, death, final judgment, and the meaning of life, and many more.

Eastern Orthodox Christianity and American Higher Education Ann Mitsakos Bezzerides, Elizabeth H.

Prodromou,2017-01-15 Over the last two decades the American academy has engaged in a wide ranging discourse on faith and learning religion and higher education and Christianity and the academy Eastern Orthodox Christians however have rarely participated in these conversations The contributors to this volume aim to reverse this trend by offering original insights from Orthodox Christian perspectives that contribute to the ongoing discussion about religion higher education and faith and learning in the United States The book is divided into two parts Essays in the first part explore the historical experiences and theological traditions that inform and sometimes explain Orthodox approaches to the topic of religion and higher education in ways that often set them apart from their Protestant and Roman Catholic counterparts Those in the second part problematize and reflect on Orthodox thought and practice from diverse disciplinary contexts in contemporary higher education The contributors to this volume offer provocative insights into philosophical questions about the relevance and application of Orthodox ideas in the religious and secular academy as well as cross disciplinary treatments of Orthodoxy as an identity marker pedagogical framework and teaching and research subject

New Voices in Greek Orthodox Thought Trine Stauning Willert,2016-05-13 New Voices in Greek Orthodox Thought brings to the light and discusses a strand in contemporary Greek public debate that is often overlooked namely progressive religious actors of a western orientation International and Greek media tend to focus on the extreme views and to categorise positions in the public debate along well known dichotomies such as traditionalists vs modernisers Demonstrating that in late modernity parallel to rising nationalisms there is a shift towards religious communities becoming the central axis for cultural organization and progressive thinking the book presents Greece as a case study based on empirical field data from contemporary theology and religious education and makes a unique contribution to ongoing debates about the public role of religion in contemporary Europe

Gregory Palamas' Metaphysics of Light Patrícia Calvário,2024-12-23 This book examines Gregory Palamas perspective on light applying the metaphysics of light framework introduced by Clemens Baeumker and adapting it to propose a new theoretical approach to Palamas thought It explores Palamas understanding of light addressing its ontological epistemological and transformative aspects which he articulates through the integration of scriptural exegesis and the direct experiences of monastic prayer The analysis covers Palamas key concepts from the essence energy distinction to the potential for experiencing the divine through the body in this life The book situates Palamas thought both within its historical context and the broader field of metaphysics providing a philosophical perspective This meticulous study invites readers interested in the intersections of Byzantine theology philosophy and metaphysics offering a comprehensive examination of a system that challenges conventional views on corporeality and finitude

Eastern Christianity and Politics in the Twenty-First Century Lucian N. Leustean,2014-05-30 This book provides an up to date comprehensive overview of Eastern Christian churches in Europe the Middle East America Africa Asia and Australia Written by leading international scholars in the field it examines both Orthodox and Oriental churches from the end of the Cold War up to the present day The book offers a unique insight into the myriad church state relations in Eastern Christianity and tackles contemporary concerns opportunities and challenges such as religious revival after the fall of communism churches and democracy relations between Orthodox Catholic and Greek Catholic churches religious education and monastic life the size and structure of congregations and the impact of migration secularisation and globalisation on Eastern Christianity in the twenty first century

Gregory Palamas and the Making of Palamism in the Modern Age Norman Russell, 2019-03-21 The fourteenth century Greek hesychast and controversialist Gregory Palamas has been so successfully cast as the other in Western theological discourse that it can be difficult to gain a sympathetic hearing for him In the first part of this book Norman Russell traces the historical reception of Palamite thought in Orthodoxy and in the West and investigates how Palamism was constructed in the early twentieth century by both Western and Eastern theologians principally Martin Jugie and John Meyendorff for polemical or apologetic purposes Russell argues that we need to go behind these ideological constructions in order to gain a true perception of the teaching of Gregory Palamas In his recent survey of Palamite scholarship Robert Sinkewicz noted that it is now time to raise the larger questions The second part of the book attempts to do this following the contours of Palamas thinking in three areas his relationship to tradition his philosophy and his theology Russell shows that Palamite thought when freed of misunderstanding and misrepresentation has the potential to enrich our understanding of divine human communion This study contributes to the changing paradigm of scholarship on Palamas nudging it towards the point at which Palamite thought can be used fruitfully by contemporary Western and Eastern theologians without the need to subscribe to what has been regarded as Palamism

The Living Christ, 2021-08-26 The only comprehensive critical anthology of theological and historical aspects related to Florovsky's thought by an international group of leading academics and church personalities It is the only book in English translation of Florovsky's key study in French The Body of the Living Christ An Orthodox Interpretation of the Church The contributors tackle a broad range of subjects that comprise the theological legacy of one of the most influential theologians of the twentieth century The essays examine the life and work of Florovsky his theology and theological methodology as well as ecclesiology and ecumenism A must have volume for those who study Florovsky and his legacy

Spirit and Salvation Veli-Matti Karkkainen, 2016-12-09 The fourth installment in a wide and deep constructive theology for our time This fourth volume in Veli Matti Karkkainen's ambitious five volume systematic theology develops a constructive Christian pneumatology and soteriology in dialogue with the diverse global Christian tradition and with other major living faiths Judaism Islam Buddhism and Hinduism

More Than Communion Scott MacDougall, 2015-05-21 The dominant contemporary model for ecclesiology theological views of the church itself is the ecclesiology of communion MacDougall argues that communion ecclesiologies are often marked by a problematic theological imagination of the future eschatology He argues further that as a result our ways of practising and being the church are not as robust as they might otherwise be Reimagining the church in the light of God's promised future then becomes a critical conceptual and practical task MacDougall presents a detailed exploration of what communion ecclesiologies are and some of the problems they raise. He offers two case studies of such theologies by examining how distinguished theologians John Zizioulas and John Milbank understand the church and the future how these combine in their work and the conceptual and practical implications of their perspectives. He then offers an alternative theological view and demonstrates the effects that such a shift would have. In doing so MacDougall offers a proposal for recovering the more to communion and to ecclesiology to help us imagine a church that is not beyond the world as in Zizioulas or over against the world as in Milbank but in and for the world in love and service. This concept is worked out in conversation with systematic theologians such as Jürgen Moltmann, Wolfhart Pannenberg and Johannes Baptist Metz and by engaging with a theology of Christian practices currently being developed by practical theologians such as Dorothy C. Bass, Craig Dykstra and those associated with their ongoing project. The potential for the church to become an agent of discipleship, love and service can best be realised when the church anticipates God's promised perfection in the full communion between God and humanity among human beings within human persons and between humanity and the rest of creation.

Repetition and Mythos Matthew R. Boulter, 2022-02-03. Writing his Habilitationsschrift as a young man in the late 1950s, future Pontiff Joseph Ratzinger argues that when St. Bonaventure composed his Collationes in Hexameron in the spring of 1273, not since St. Augustine's De Civitate Dei contra Paganos had the world seen such a ground-breaking work on the logos of history. Indeed, for Ratzinger, St. Bonaventure's history is first philosophy. The thirteenth-century Franciscan rails against the widespread assumption rooted in the newly rediscovered Aristotle of history's unintelligibility. For Bonaventure, mythos mediates the difference between science and history, yielding a non-positivistic approach to the latter. Building on the dynamics of Plato's Line, Boulter shows that the days of creation narrated by Bonaventure structure both history and thought. Because like a story it has beginning and end, history as a whole can be grasped. Hence, eschatological knowledge of the end of the world is possible. Yet this work also shows how the false progress myths of modernity are counterfeit versions of true spiritual advancement of the kind embodied by saints such as Francis and Bonaventure himself. What is the logos of history? It turns out that it is mythos.

T&T Clark Handbook of Political Theology Rubén Rosario Rodríguez, 2019-10-03. The T and the contributors then build on previously discussed historical resources and methods to engage with contemporary issues and challenges, emphasizing interreligious dialogue even while addressing concerns of relevance to a particular faith tradition. The volume concludes with three essays that look at the future of political theology from the perspective of each Abrahamic religion. Complete with select bibliographies for each topic, this companion features the most current overview of political theology that will reach a broader global audience of students and scholars.

The Oxford Handbook of Russian Religious Thought Caryl Emerson, George Pattison, Randall A. Poole, 2020. A comprehensive collection exploring the role of ideas, institutions and movements in the evolution of Russian religious thought. Contains cutting-edge scholarship that expands understanding of one of the richest aspects of Russian cultural and intellectual life Considers the influence of Russian religious thought in the West and the role of religion in aesthetics music poetry art film and the novel An authoritative reference for students and scholars Book jacket Lacanian Psychoanalysis and Eastern Orthodox Christian Anthropology in Dialogue Carl Waitz,Theresa Tisdale,2021-10-26 This book vigorously engages Lacan with a spiritual tradition that has yet to be thoroughly addressed within psychoanalytic literature the Eastern Orthodox Christian tradition The book offers a unique engagement with a faith system that highlights and extends analytic thinking For those in formation within the Orthodox tradition this book brings psychoanalytic insights to bear on matters of faith that may at times seem opaque or difficult to understand Ultimately the authors seek to elicit in the reader the reflective and contemplative posture of Orthodoxy as well as the listening ear of analysis while considering the human subject This work is relevant and important for those training in psychoanalysis and Orthodox theology or ministry as well as for those interested in the intersection between psychoanalysis and religion Analogia Maximos Constas,Nikolaos Loudovikos,David Bradshaw,Marcus Plested,and Christos Lydia Petridou Terezis,Miroslav Griško,2022-03-04 Analogia is a peer reviewed academic journal dedicated to the scholarly exposition and discussion of the theological principles of the Christian faith A distinguishing feature of this journal will be the effort to advance a dialogue between Orthodox Christianity and the views and concerns of Western modes of theological and philosophical thought A key secondary objective is to provide a scholarly context for the further examination and study of common Christian sources Though theological and philosophical topics of interest are the primary focus of the journal the content of Analogia will not be restricted to material that originates exclusively from these disciplines Insofar as the journal seeks to cultivate theological discourse and engagement with the urgent challenges and questions posed by modernity topics from an array of disciplines will also be considered including the natural and social sciences As such solicited and unsolicited submissions of high academic quality containing topics of either a theological or interdisciplinary nature will be encouraged In an effort to facilitate dialogue provision will be made for peer reviewed critical responses to articles that deal with high interest topics Analogia strives to provide an interdisciplinary forum wherein Christian theology is further explored and assumes the role of an interlocutor with the multiplicity of difficulties facing modern humanity Eastern Christianity and the Cold War, 1945-91 ,2011

Experiencing Byzantium Claire Nesbitt,Mark Jackson,2016-04-22 From the reception of imperial ekphraseis in Hagia Sophia to the sounds and smells of the back streets of Constantinople the sensory perception of Byzantium is an area that lends itself perfectly to an investigation into the experience of the Byzantine world The theme of experience embraces all aspects of Byzantine studies and the Experiencing Byzantium symposium brought together archaeologists architects art historians historians musicians and theologians in a common quest to step across the line that divides how we understand and experience the Byzantine world and how the Byzantines themselves perceived the sensual aspects of their empire and also their faith spirituality identity and the nature of being in Byzantium The papers in this volume derive from the 44th

Spring Symposium of Byzantine Studies held for the Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies by the University of Newcastle and University of Durham at Newcastle upon Tyne in April 2011 They are written by a group of international scholars who have crossed disciplinary boundaries to approach an understanding of experience in the Byzantine world Experiencing Byzantium is volume 18 in the series published by Ashgate on behalf of the Society for the Promotion of Byzantine Studies

Lacan and Religion Aron Dunlap, 2016-06-16 The French psychoanalyst Jacques Lacan is one of the most influential intellectuals of the past century His work is invoked by philosophers film critics and feminist theorists but religious scholars have tended to keep their distance Whilst the religious dimensions of Freud and Jung have been investigated exhaustively much work still needs to be done in exploring this aspect of Lacan's thought Lacan and Religion presents students of religion and theology with a clear introduction to a famously difficult thinker The theological analysis is grounded in a solid understanding of Lacan's work as a psychoanalyst whilst the book also explores how Lacan's concepts can be fruitful for those who labour in what Lacan called the field of the divine
