The Politics of the Crucified John C. Peet, 2021-07-30. Jesus died not peacefully in bed but on the cross, the instrument of execution used by the Romans to keep potential disturbers of the established political order in their place. Until the pioneering work of Jürgen Moltmann, the cross has been the elephant in the room in Christian political theology. This book explores the difference Jesus's crucifixion makes or should make to Christian political theology by examining the crucifixion in the theologies of the Mennonite John Howard Yoder and the liberation theologians Leonardo Boff and Jon Sobrino. In the light of the cross and of the kenotic God revealed by the cross, questions of political power are explored and a kenotic political ethic outlined. In conclusion, suggestions are made as to how the contemporary church can live out a cruciform or cross-shaped political spirituality and ecclesiology.
