What Can Literature Do for Me? Charles Alphonso Smith,1913 Translation, the Canon and its Discontents Miguel Ramalhete Gomes,2017-08-21 This collection addresses the complex process by which translation and other forms of rewriting have contributed to canon formation revision destabilization and dismantlement Through the play between version and subversion which is inherent to any form of rewriting these essays focusing on translations since the sixteenth century down to the present day stress the role of translation and adaptation as potentially transformative mediations capable of shaping and undermining identities Such manipulation is deeply ambivalent since it can be used as a means of disseminating the ideology of oppressive regimes at the expense of the source text but it can also serve to garner attention to marginalised texts This tense interplay between political social and aesthetic purposes almost inevitably generates discontents which may turn out to be the outcome of translation in general However discontent is a relational concept depending on where one
