Scholarship in Action: Essays on the Life and Work of Christiaan Snouck Hurgronje (1857-1936), 2023-02-06 The Dutch scholar Christiaan Snouck Hurgronje 1857 1936 was one of the most famous orientalist of his time He acquired early fame through his daring research in Mecca in 1884 85 masterly narrated in two books and accompanied by two portfolios of photographs As an adviser to the colonial government in the Dutch East Indies from 1889 until 1906 he was on horseback during campaigns of pacification and published extensively on Indonesian cultures and languages Meanwhile he successively married two Sundanese women with whom he had several children In 1906 he became a professor in Leiden and promoted together with colleagues abroad the study of modern Islam meant to be useful for colonial purposes Despite his considerable scholarly political and cultural influence in the first decades of the twentieth century nowadays Snouck Hurgronje has been almost forgotten outside a small circle of specialists since he mainly published in Dutch and German The contributors to this volume each offer new insights about this enigmatic scholar and political actor who might be considered a classic proponent of orientalism Their detailed studies of his life and work challenge us to reconsider common views of the history of the study of Islam in European academia and encourage a more nuanced post orientalist approach with ample attention for cooperation exchange and hybridization Contributors

Facing Fear Michael Laffan, Max Weiss, 2012-10-14 Fear is ubiquitous but slippery It has been defined as a purely biological reality derided as an excuse for cowardice attacked as a force for social control and even denigrated as an unnatural condition that has no place in the disenchanted world of enlightened modernity In these times of institutionalized insecurity and global terror Facing Fear sheds light on the meaning diversity and dynamism of fear in multiple world historical contexts and demonstrates how fear universally binds us to particular presents but also to a broad spectrum of memories stories and states in the past From the eighteenth century Peruvian highlands and the California borderlands to the urban cityscapes of contemporary Russia and India this book collectively explores the wide range of causes experiences and explanations of this protean emotion The volume contributes to the thriving literature on the history of emotions and destabilizes narratives that have often understood fear in very specific linguistic cultural and geographical settings Rather by using a comparative multidisciplinary framework the book situates fear in more global terms breaks new ground in the historical and cultural analysis of emotions and sets out a new agenda for further research In addition to the editors the contributors are Alexander Etkind Lisbeth Haas Andreas Killen David Lederer Melani McAlister Ronald Schechter Marla Stone Ravi Sundaram and Charles Walker The Piety of Learning: Islamic Studies in Honor of Stefan Reichmuth

Rethinking Halal ,2021-03-22 This book invites to rethink certain aspects of halal and in particular the issue of the halal market and halal certification in Muslim minority contexts Rather than limiting itself to elucidating the doctrinal traditions relating to halal haram or on the contrary focusing only on the external economic financial political or demographic factors that explain the changes taking place Rethinking Halal shows the need to underline the points of balance between the aspects of religious doctrine on the one hand and the economic or political contextual aspects on the other hand Through the study of various countries Rethinking Halal demonstrates that Islam underwent a process of positivisation that is a kind of reframing of its rules and principles through the lens of a characteristically modern standardising scientificising and systematising mind Contributors are Ayang Utriza Yakin Louis L on Christians Baudouin Dupret Jajat Burhanudin Syafiq Hasyim Zaynab El Bernoussi En Chieh Chao Rossella Bottoni Lauren Crossland Marr Konrad P dziwiatr Matteo Benussi Harun Sencal and Mehmet Asutay Guests of God Robert Bianchi,2008-03-25 Each year about two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the Islamic holy city of Mecca for the hajj While the hajj is first and foremost a religious festival it is also very much a political event No government can resist the temptation to manipulate the hajj for political and economic gain Every large Muslim state has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it The Muslim world s leading multinational organization the Organization of the Islamic Conference has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage Yet Robert Bianchi argues no secular or religious authority national or international can really control the hajj State sponsored pilgrimage management consistently backfires giving government opponents valuable ammunition and allowing them to manipulate the symbols and controversies of the hajj to their own ends Bianchi has been researching the hajj for over ten years and draws on interviews with and data from hajj directors in five Muslim countries Pakistan Malaysia Turkey Indonesia and Nigeria statistics from Saudi Arabian hajj authorities as well as his personal experience as a pilgrim The result is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere and a wide ranging work on Islam politics and power Guests of God : Pilgrimage and Politics in the Islamic World Robert R. Bianchi

Formerly Associate Professor of Political Science University of Chicago, 2004-09-09 Each year more than two million pilgrims from over 100 countries converge on the holy city of Mecca to reenact the ritual dramas that Muslims have been performing for centuries Making the hajj is one of the most important duties in the life of a Muslim The pilgrimage and its impact on international politics is enormous and growing every year yet Westerners know virtually nothing about it What is the hajj and what does it mean Who are the hajjis What do they do and say in Mecca and how do they interpret their experiences Who runs the hajj and what are their political objectives How does the hajj encourage international cooperation among Muslims and can it also promote harmony between Islam and the West In Guests of God Robert R Bianchi seeks to answer these and many other questions While it is first and foremost a religious festival he shows the hajj is also very much a political event The Muslim world's leading multinational organization the Organization of the Islamic Conference has established the first international regime explicitly devoted to pilgrimage Every large Muslim nation has developed a comprehensive hajj policy and a powerful bureaucracy to enforce it Yet Bianchi argues no authority secular or religious national or international can really control the hajj Pilgrims believe that they are entitled to travel freely to Mecca as Guests of God not as guests of any nation or organization that might wish to restrict or profit from their efforts to fulfill a fundamental religious obligation Drawing on his personal experience as a pilgrim and a wealth of data gathered over the course of ten years of research Bianchi has produced a fascinating look at the hajj filled with personal candid stories from political and religious leaders and hajjis from all walks of life A wide ranging study of Islam politics and power Guests of God is the most complete picture of the hajj available anywhere Rainbows of Malay Literature and Beyond: Festschrift in Honour of Professor Md. Salleh Yaapar (Penerbit USM) Lalita Sinha, 2014-11-25 This Festschrift engages in the richness and variety of literatures and cultures of the Malay world and goes beyond its shores to encounters between different cultures and traditions and to the relationship between literary and other disciplines Rainbows of Malay Literature and Beyond communicates the absorbing richness of inter disciplinary study and knowledge Islamic Nationhood and Colonial Indonesia Michael Francis Laffan, 2003-09-02 Drawing on previously unavailable archival material this book argues that Indonesian nationalism rested on Islamic ecumenism heightened by colonial rule and the pilgrimage The award winning author Laffan contrasts the latter experience with life in Cairo where some Southeast Asians were drawn to both reformism and nationalism After demonstrating the close linkage between Cairene ideology and Indonesian nationalism Laffan shows how developments in the Middle East continued to play a role in shaping Islamic politics in colonial Indonesia 日本国文学研究振興会 (Japan), 1987
