Narrating Violence in the Postcolonial World Rebecca Romdhani, Daria Tunca, 2021-09-05 This book examines representations of violence across the postcolonial world from the Americas to Australia in novels short stories plays and films The chapters move from what appear to be interpersonal instances of violence to communal conflicts such as civil war

showing how these acts of violence are specifically rooted in colonial forms of abuse and oppression but constantly move and morph Taking its cue from theories in such fields as postcolonial violence gender and trauma studies the book thus shows that violence is slippery in form but also fluid in nature so that one must trace its movement across time and space to understand even a single instance of it When analysing such forms and trajectories of violence in postcolonial creative writing and films the contributors critically examine the ethical issues involved in narrating abuse depicting violated bodies and presenting romanticized resolutions that may conceal other forms of violence Sugar Mill Stories Sue Hastings,2016-05-27 On a small Caribbean island Will Mattison controls everything even the death and interment of his son in law Charles Collier Ava Collier Charless mom arrives on the island for the funeral and soon understands that she must stay to uncover the truth about her sons death and reclaim his ashes from Mattisons three hundred year old sugar mill Allies emerge to aid Ava in her questa Rasta boardwalk bum an aboriginal mystic in the rainforest a crusading radio station owner and Anole a dark young man named for a climbing lizard What Ava learns from these islanders and others will change her forever and the sugar mill becomes her powerful symbol of endurance Herman Wouk ,1994 This study shows how Wouk s plays and novels exemplify an extraordinary and often highly perceptive preoccupation with American society in war and peace Situating Wouk in the same literary tradition as Cervantes Richardson Balzac and Dickens Beichman demonstrates that Wouk s novels have strong plots moralist outcomes and active essentially positive characters Beichman s focus is on the social and literary qualities of Wouk s work Anderson's Travel Companion Compiled by Sarah Anderson,2016-12-05 A selection of the best in travel writing with both fiction and non fiction presented together this companion is for all those who like travelling like to think about travelling and who take an interest in their destination It covers guidebooks as well as books about food history art and architecture religion outdoor activities illustrated books autobiographies biographies and fiction and lists books both in and out of print Anderson s Travel Companion is arranged first by continent then alphabetically by country and then by subject cross referenced where necessary There is a separate section for guidebooks and comprehensive indexes Sarah Anderson founded the Travel Bookshop in 1979 and is also a journalist and writer on travel subjects She is known by well known travel writers such as Michael Palin and Colin Thubron Michael Palin chose her bookshop as his favourite shop and Colin Thubron and Geoffrey Moorhouse among others made suggestions for titles to include in the Travel Companion Who's Who of Twentieth Century Novelists Tim Woods,2008-02-21 Taking in novelists from all over the globe from the beginning of the century to the present day this is the most comprehensive survey of the leading lights of twentieth century fiction Superb breadth of coverage and over 800 entries by an international team of contributors ensures that this fascinating and wide ranging work of reference will be invaluable to anyone with an interest in modern fiction Authors included range from Joseph Conrad to Albert Camus and Franz Kafka to Chinua Achebe Who s Who of Twentieth Century Novelists gives a superb insight into the richness and diversity of the twentieth century novel Advice
