Epistemic Communities Elias G. Carayannis, Ali Pirzadeh, Denisa Popescu, 2011-11-25 Over the past several decades as the pace of globalization has accelerated operational issues of international coordination have often been overlooked For example the global financial crisis that began in 2007 is attributed in part to a lack of regulatory oversight As a result supranational organizations such as the G 20 the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund have prioritized strengthening of the international financial architecture and providing opportunities for dialogue on national policies international co operation and international financial institutions Prevailing characteristics of the global economic systems such as the increasing power of financial institutions changes in the structure of global production decline in the authority of nation states over their national economy and creation of global institutional setting e g global governance have created the conditions for a naturally evolving process towards enabling national epistemic communities to create institutions that comply with global rules and regulations can control crises In this context transfer of technical knowledge from the larger organizations and its global epistemic communities to member communities is becoming a policy tool to convince participants in the international system to have similar ideas about which rules will govern their mutual participation In the realm of finance and banking regulation the primary focus is on transfer of specialized and procedural knowledge in technical domains such as accounting procedures payment systems and corporate governance principles thereby promoting institutional learning at national and local levels In this volume the authors provide in depth analysis of initiatives to demonstrate how this type of knowledge generated at the international organization level is codified into global standards and disseminated to members particularly in the developing world where the legal and regulatory infrastructure is often lacking They argue that despite the challenges when a country intends to join the global system its institutions and economic structures need to move toward the global norms In so doing they shed new light on the dynamics of knowledge transfer financial regulation economic development with particular respect to supporting global standards and avoiding future crises

Long, 2024-03-12 In Proclaiming the Parables noted preacher and scholar Thomas G Long moves away from past treatment of the parables primarily as literary devices and moves toward an emphasis on their theological impact as pointers to the kingdom of God While the parables are indeed significant poetic literary creations that have enchanted readers over the centuries their main power he claims lies in their disclosure of the kingdom of God which is not merely an idea nor even just a complex symbol with generative and centrifugal force but an event the inbreaking of the life of God into human history and experience Long sees parables not merely as creative figures of speech but as GPS devices taking hearers to those places where the event of God is happening all around us This book provides two chapters for each synoptic Gospel The first focuses on the Gospel as a whole and the parables place in it and the second provides preachers and teachers with detailed exegetical and homiletical commentary for each major parable in that Gospel Two introductory chapters additionally situate this book in the history and theology of the parables interpretation and address questions that preachers have about preaching the parables Preachers who consult this volume will be informed about each major parable guided through the controversies regarding interpretation and stimulated to preach on the parable in fresh faithful and creative ways Bentley's Miscellany Charles Dickens, William Harrison Ainsworth, Albert Smith, 1844 The Trial Franz Kafka, 2020-10-01 In Kafka's powerful and disturbing novel an innocent man is arrested and repeatedly interrogated for a crime that is never ever explained Part of the Macmillan Collector's Library a series of stunning clothbound pocket sized classics with gold foiled edges and ribbon markers These beautiful books make perfect gifts or a treat for any book lover This edition is translated from German by Douglas Scott and Chris Waller and features an afterword by David Stuart Davies On the morning of his thirtieth birthday a young bank official named Joseph K is arrested although he has done nothing wrong and is never told what he's been charged with The Trial is the chronicle of his fight to prove his innocence of his struggles and encounters with the invisible Law and the untouchable Court where he must make regular visits It is an account ultimately of state induced self destruction presenting in a nightmarish scenario the persecution of the outsider and the incomprehensible machinations of the state Using the power of simple straightforward language Kafka draws the reader into this bleak and frightening world so that we too experience the fears uncertainties and tragedy of Joseph K
