Bulletin ,1995 Criminal-Inquisitorial Trials in English Church Trials Henry Ansgar Kelly,2023-09-22 After inquisitorial procedure was introduced at the Fourth Lateran Council in Rome in 1215 the same year as England's first Magna Carta virtually all court trials initiated by bishops and their subordinates were inquisitions That meant that accusers were no longer needed Rather the judges themselves leveled charges against persons when they were publicly suspected of specific offenses like fornication or witchcraft or simony Secret crimes were off limits including sins of thought like holding a heretical belief Defendants were allowed full defenses if they denied charges These canonical rules were systematically violated by heresy inquisitors in France and elsewhere especially by forcing self incrimination But in England due process was generally honored and the rights of defendants preserved though with notable exceptions In this book Henry Ansgar Kelly a noted forensic historian describes the reception and application of inquisition in England from the thirteenth century onwards and analyzes all levels of trial proceedings both minor and major from accusations of sexual offenses and cheating on tithes to matters of religious dissent He covers the trials of the Knights Templar early in the fourteenth century and the prosecutions of followers of John Wyclif at the end of the century He details how the alleged crimes of criminous clerics were handled and demonstrates that the judicial actions concerning Henry VIII's marriages were inquisitions in which the king himself and his queens were defendants Trials of Alice Kyteler Margery Kempe Eleanor Cobham and Anne Askew are explained as are the unjust trials condemning Bishop Reginald Pecock of error and heresy 1457 59 and Richard Hunne for defending English Bibles 1514 He deals with the trials of Lutheran dissidents at the time of Thomas More's chancellorship and trials of bishops under Edward VI and Queen Mary including those against Stephen Gardiner and Thomas Cranmer Under Queen Elizabeth Kelly shows there was a return to the letter of papal canon law which was not true of the papal curia In his conclusion he responds to the strictures of Sir John Baker against inquisitorial procedure and argues that it compares favorably to the common law trial by jury Oswaal Government Exams Question Bank 12th Pass | Quantitative Aptitude | General English | Logical Reasoning |General Awareness | Set of 4 Books | For 2024 Exam Oswaal Editorial Board,2024-03-30 Description of the product 100% Updated with Topic wise Practice Questions Explanations Fill Learning Gaps with Revision Notes Supported Videos Concept Recap with Smart Mind Maps Chapter Analysis Smart Short cuts with short cuts and detailed explanations Valuable Exam Insights with Tips and Tricks to ace Government Exams in the first attempt Teaching English in the Primary School Annika Kolb,Marita Schocker,2021-11-15 Grundschulenglisch kompetent unterrichten Qualitativ hochwertiger Englischunterricht in der Grundschule h ngt vor allem von der professionellen Kompetenz der Lehrkr fte ab Der vorliegende Band in englischer Sprache behandelt in 13 Kapiteln grundlegende Themen und Konzepte f r deren Entwicklung in Aus und Fortbildung sowie im Selbststudium Der Praxisband geht auf die besonderen Bedingungen der Bundesrepublik Deutschland ein und ber cksichtigt die internationalen Forschungen zum

Transformations of Religious Practices in Late Antiquity Eric Rebillard, 2024-08-01 The eighteen papers collected in this volume fifteen of which are published in English for the first time explore the transformations of religious practices between the third and the fifth centuries in the Western part of the Roman Empire They share an approach that privileges the study of processes and interactions and does not take for granted the categories and roles traditionally ascribed to social actors A first group of papers focuses on the sermons and letters of Augustine of Hippo These texts are precious evidence for balancing the clerical perspective that characterizes most of our sources and can thus shed a different light on the problem of Christianization The second group collects papers that propose to shift attention from the construction of heresies to that of orthodoxy through the case study of the controversy of Augustine against Pelagius and Julian of Eclanum A last group present studies that look at the complex relation between burial and religion with a particular focus on the role played by the church in the organization of the burial of Christians in Late Antiquity

Poems on Bishops by Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian Giovanni Colpani, 2025-06-16 Gregory of Nazianzus and Ephrem the Syrian are both regarded as foundational poets for their respective literary traditions They wrote in the same period the 4th Century and they both devoted a cycle of poems to a debated theme of the time bishops Aim of this work is enhancing the appreciation of these cycles Gregory s carmina II 1 10 12 13 17 and Ephrem s carmina nisibena 13 21 as works of literature embedded in the performance and reading practices of the time in theological debates on the episcopal office and in their respective communities The book compares performance and transmission methods of the two corpora the word choice and imagery describing the episcopal office and how portraits of real life bishops are influenced by theological expectations on what a bishop should be Two chapters are devoted to literary phenomena peculiar to each author This book the first extensive comparison of these two authors from a literary point of view will interest scholars of Late Antique poetry and literature Church history and Patristic theology A new English translation of both corpora constitutes the appendix

Nationalizing France's Army Christopher J. Tozzi, 2016-05-30 Before the French Revolution tens of thousands of foreigners served in France s army They included troops from not only all parts of Europe but also places as far away as Madagascar West Africa and New York City Beginning in 1789 the French revolutionaries driven by a new political ideology that placed the nation at the center of sovereignty began aggressively purging the army of men they did not consider French even if those troops supported the new regime Such efforts proved much more difficult than the revolutionaries anticipated however owing to both their need for soldiers as France waged war against much of the rest of Europe and the difficulty of defining nationality cleanly at the dawn of the modern era Napoleon later faced the same conundrums as he vacillated between policies favoring and rejecting foreigners from his army It was not until the Bourbon Restoration when the modern French Foreign Legion appeared that the French state established an enduring policy on the place of foreigners within its armed forces By telling the story of France's noncitizen soldiers who included men born abroad as well as Jews and blacks whose citizenship rights were subject to contestation Christopher Tozzi sheds new light on the roots of revolutionary France's inability to integrate its national community despite the inclusionary promise of French republicanism Drawing on a range of original unpublished archival sources Tozzi also highlights the linguistic religious cultural and racial differences that France's experiments with noncitizen soldiers introduced to eighteenth and nineteenth century French society Winner of the Walker Cowen Memorial Prize for an Outstanding Work of Scholarship in Eighteenth Century Studies New Perspectives in Seleucid History, Archaeology and Numismatics Roland Oetjen, 2019-12-16 Dedicated to Getzel M Cohen a leading expert in Seleucid history this volume gathers 45 contributions on Seleucid history archaeology numismatics political relations policy toward the Jews Greek cities non Greek populations peripheral and neighboring regions imperial administration economy and public finances and ancient descriptions of the Seleucid Empire The reader will gain an international perspective on current research The English Historical Review Mandell Creighton, Justin Winsor, Samuel Rawson Gardiner, Reginald Lane Poole, Sir John Goronwy Edwards, 1916 Third Party Funding for Dispute Resolution Beibei Zhang, 2021-03-25 This book represents a comparative study of Third Party Funding TPF and its regulation in England Hong Kong Singapore the Netherlands and the Mainland of China It provides a general review of the background in which TPF grows and the platform where third party funders are allowed to operate In each and every chosen jurisdiction the book analyses the legal risks related to TPF the regulatory measures and the questions surrounding the challenges that lay ahead This book is featured by the empirical study of the Chinese TPF market As of the time of this writing TPF activities operating in China have not been expanded upon in English or Chinese literature The language barrier may be one reason The lack of empirical materials may also contribute to this situation In order to obtain some first hand evidence of the TPF market in China the author conducted empirical research in Shenzhen with the assistance of Chinese third party funders and some local organizations and authorities The empirical study took the form of questionnaire surveys The first survey saw in total 175 responses and the second saw 18 responses Due to the fact that many funding arrangements for commercial disputes are kept in the dark it is hard if not impossible to measure the size of the Chinese TPF market This study provides a dataset that serves a humble purpose namely to offer an insight into the Chinese TPF market rather than to grasp the full picture of the industry California. Court of Appeal (2nd Appellate District). Records and Briefs California (State)., Received document entitled EXHIBITS TO PETITION FOR WRIT Mémoires, Plaidoiries Et Documents International Court of Justice, 1948* Gendering the Memory of Work Maria Tamboukou, 2016-07-07 This book explores gendered aspects in the memory of work by looking at auto biographical narratives and political writings of women workers in the garment industry The author draws on cutting edge theoretical approaches and insights in memory studies neo materialism and discourse analysis particularly looking at entanglements and intra actions between places bodies and objects Tamboukou aims to enrich our appreciation of the role of women s labour history in the wider realm of cultural memory as well as in the politics of women s work The book addresses a significant gap in the literature by focusing on the memory of work from a gendered perspective It also examines the relationship between workspaces and personal spaces the intimate intense and often invisible ways through which workers occupy workspaces and populate them with their ideas emotions beliefs habits and everyday practices The book will be a theoretical and methodological toolbox for students and researchers in the interface of the social sciences and the humanities as well as a vital resource in women s labour history It will be particularly relevant for sociologists cultural theorists feminist scholars and social historians
