Post Art Gallery, 1978 David Rosetzky: Double Exposures David Rosetzky, 2021-02-27 This exquisite limited edition book designed by Anna Zagala Sweet Polka brings together 45 photographs by artist David Rosetzky accompanied by an essay from Dr Shaune Lakin Senior Curator of Photography at the National Gallery of Australia and a Q A between David Rosetzky and fellow artist Hoda Afshar Rosetzky's use of the double exposure results in a single combined image that is created through a process of chance and the random placement of pictorial elements within the frame. This process enables the artist a fluid and hybrid approach to representation and is suggestive of relative and shifting states of being and ways of looking that extends beyond conventional portrait formats. This ongoing series explores new ways of representing queer non binary and marginal identities through photography. Double Exposure Paul Kaufman, Ruth Lisa Schechter, 1978-01-01
