Emerging Johannesburg Perspectives On The Postapartheid City:

Emerging Johannesburg Richard Tomlinson, 2003 First Published in 2003 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company

The Making of Global City Regions Klaus Segbers, Simon Raiser, Krister Volkmann, 2007 Publisher description

A Place That Matters Yet Sara Byala, 2013-06-15 A Place That Matters Yet unearths the little known story of Johannesburg's MuseumAfrica a South African history museum that embodies one of the most dynamic and fraught stories of colonialism and postcolonialism its life spanning the eras before during and after apartheid Sara Byala in examining this story sheds new light not only on racism and its institutionalization in South Africa but also on the problems facing any museum that is charged with navigating colonial history from a postcolonial perspective Drawing on thirty years of personal letters and public writings by museum founder John Gubbins Byala paints a picture of a uniquely progressive colonist focusing on his philosophical notion of three dimensional thinking which aimed to transcend binaries and thus quite explicitly racism Unfortunately Gubbins died within weeks of the museum's opening and his hopes would go unrealized as the museum fell in line with emergent apartheid politics Following the museum through this transformation and on to its 1994 reconfiguration as a post apartheid institution Byala showcases it as a rich and problematic archive of both material culture and the ideas that surround that culture arguing for its continued importance in the establishment of a unified South Africa

World City Syndrome David A. McDonald, 2012-08-06 The literature on world cities has had an enormous influence on urban theory and planning alike From Manila to London academics and policy makers have attempted to understand and to some extent strive for world city status This book is a study of Cape Town's standing in this network of urban centres and an investigation of the conceptual appropriateness of this world city hypothesis Drawing on more than a dozen years of fieldwork in Cape Town McDonald provides an historical overview of institutional and structural reforms examining fiscal imbalances political marginalization de racialization privatization and other neoliberal changes By examining and analyzes these reforms and changes McDonald contributes the first radical critique of the world city literature from a developing country perspective

Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities Claire Bénit-Gbaffou, 2024-02-27 Why are even progressive local authorities with the will to improve seldom able to change cities Why does it seem almost impossible to redress spatial inequalities deliver and maintain basic services elevate impoverished areas and protect the marginalised communities Why do municipalities in the Global South refuse to work with prevailing social informalities and resort instead to interventions that are known to displace and aggravate the very issues they aim to address Local Officials and the Struggle to Transform Cities analyses these challenges in South African cities where the brief post apartheid moment opened a window for progressive city government and made research into state practices both possible and necessary In debate with other progressive moments in large cities in Brazil the USA and India the book interrogates City officials practices It considers the instruments they invent and negotiate to implement urban policies the agency they develop and the constraints

they navigate in governing unequal cities This focus on actual officials practices is captured through first hand experience state ethnographies and engaged research These reveal day to day practice that question generalised explanations of state failure in complex urban societies as essential malevolence contextual weakness corruption and inefficiency It is hoped that opening the black box of the workings of state opens paths for the construction of progressive policies in contemporary cities

The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities M. Diouf,R. Fredericks,2014-12-16 The Arts of Citizenship in African Cities pushes the frontiers of how we understand cities and citizenship and offers new perspectives on African urbanism Nuanced ethnographic analyses of life in an array of African cities illuminate the emergent infrastructures and spaces of belonging through which urban lives and politics are being forged Governing Complex City-Regions in the Twenty-First Century Philip Harrison,2023-11-10 Provides a comparative study of the complex governance challenges confronting city regions in each of the BRICS countries It traces how governance approaches emerge from the disparate intentions actions and practices of multiple collaborating and competing actors working in diverse contexts of political settlement and culture

Handbook of Research on Urban Informatics: The Practice and Promise of the Real-Time City Foth, Marcus,2008-12-31 This book exposes research accounts which seek to convey an appreciation for local differences for the empowerment of people and for the human centred design of urban technology Provided by publisher Advancing Refugee Protection in South Africa Jeff Handmaker, Lee Anne de la Hunt, Jonathan Klaaren,2008-03-01 Divided into three thematic parts to guide the reader this important volume documents the development and implementation of refugee policy in South Africa over a 10 year period from 1996 until 2006 In doing so it addresses issues of detention gender children and health as well as welfare policies for refugees The contributions all written by academics and practitioners of refugee protection vividly illustrate the tangible shifts and concerns of a process that is not only aimed at establishing policies and legislation but also practices concerning refugees Imagining Globalization H. Leung,M. Hendley,R. Compton,B. Haley,2009-11-23 This collection gives voice to the peoples and groups impacted by globalization as they seek to negotiate their identities language use and territorial boundaries within a larger global context Rather than viewing globalization as one dimensional i e cultural economic or political the approaches taken by the authors reflect a nuanced and multifaceted discussion of globalization that integrates all three perspectives They explore identity boundaries language use and other issues in the context of specific temporal and spatial contexts Cities in Flux Olivier Moreillon, Alan Muller, Lindy Stiebel,2017 The essays in this volume all circle around questions of urbanisation in post apartheid South Africa and its effects on the country s socio political realities as well as its representation in and effect on the country s literary and artistic production The included essays discuss the constant flow of people not only into within and out of a city but also between different cities the continuously changing conditions both physical and immaterial as well as past and present of South Africa s urban areas and these shifting conditions effects on South Africa s cities Series Swiss African Studies Schweizerische Afrikastudien Etudes africaines

suisses Vol 12 Subject African Studies Urban Studies Sociology Afrikaners and the Boundaries of Faith in Post-Apartheid South Africa Annika Björnsdotter Teppo, 2021-09-30 This book examines the shifting moral and spiritual lives of white Afrikaners in South Africa after apartheid The end of South Africa s apartheid system of racial and spatial segregation sparked wide reaching social change as social cultural spatial and racial boundaries were transgressed and transformed This book investigates how Afrikaners have mediated the country s shifting boundaries within the realm of religion For instance one in every three Afrikaners used these new freedoms to leave the traditional Dutch Reformed Church NGK often for an entirely new religious affiliation within the Pentecostal or Charismatic churches or New Religious Movements such as Wiccan neopaganism Based on long term ethnographic fieldwork in the Western Cape area the book investigates what spiritual life after racial totalitarianism means for the members of the ethnic group that constructed and maintained that very totalitarianism Ultimately the book asks how these new Afrikaner religious practices contribute to social solidarity and integration in a persistently segregated society and what they can tell us about racial relations in the country today This book will be of interest to scholars of religious studies social and cultural anthropology and African studies

Confronting Fragmentation Philip Harrison, 2003 The fragmentation of South Africa s cities persists despite the ending of apartheid New forms of segregation are emerging in the context of globalisation and a largely neo liberal policy environment This poses an enormous challenge for policy making planning and community activism Although there has been an improvement in service infrastructure in certain parts of South African cities since 1994 the major structural changes required to alter the trajectory of urban change have not yet happened This book provides a provocative careful analytical perspective on the problems of fragmentation with particular reference to the provision of urban shelter The cross national nature of the author team reflects the fact that many of the issues facing South African cities are being experienced globally This is a fascinating book The text is both theoretical and practical It will be of great value to policy makers planners community leaders and students in the field of development and the built environment Social Housing and Urban Renewal Paul Watt, Peer Smets, 2017-08-15 Contemporary urban renewal is the subject of intense academic and policy debate regarding whether it promotes social mixing and spatial justice or instead enhances neoliberal privatization and state led gentrification This book offers a cross national perspective on contemporary urban renewal in relation to social rental housing Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang, 2024-10-18 In Reconfiguring Racial Capitalism Mingwei Huang traces the development of new forms of racial capitalism in the twenty first century Through fieldwork in one of the China malls that has emerged along Johannesburg s former mining belt Huang identifies everyday relations of power and difference between Chinese entrepreneurs and African migrant workers in these wholesale shops These relations Huang contends replicate and perpetuate global structures of white supremacy anti Blackness capitalism and colonialism even when whiteness is not present Huang argues that this dynamic reflects the sedimented legacies and continued operation of white supremacy and colonialism which have been transformed in the shift of capitalism's center of gravity toward China and the Global South. These new forms of racial capitalism and empire layer onto and extend histories of exploitation and racialization in South Africa. Taking a palimpsestic approach, Huang offers tools for understanding this shift and decentering contemporary Western conceptions of race, empire, and racial capitalism in the Chinese Century.

Women's Rights in Democratizing States Denise M. Walsh, 2010-11-15. This study offers an explanation for why advances in women's rights rarely occur in democratizing states. Drawing on deliberative theory, Denise Walsh argues that the leading institutions in the public sphere are highly gendered, meaning women's ability to shape the content of public debate and put pressure on the state to advance their rights is limited. She tests this claim by measuring the openness and inclusiveness of debate conditions in the public sphere during select time periods in Poland, Chile, and South Africa. Through a series of structured, focused comparisons, the book confirms the importance of just debate for securing gender justice. The comparisons also reveal that counterpublics in the leading institutions in the public sphere are crucial for expanding debate conditions. The book concludes with an analysis of counterpublics and suggests an active role for the state in the public sphere.

International Handbook of Urban Policy H. S. Geyer, 2011. This important Handbook reveals that most urban growth takes place in the less developed world and much of it represents overurbanization, that is, urbanization in which most migrants cannot effectively compete for employment, cannot find adequate shelter, and do not have the means to feed themselves properly. Yet, compared to rural poverty, urban poverty is widely regarded as the lesser of the two evils. H. S. Geyer and his contributors highlight the enormous challenges posed by urbanization to decision makers at all levels of government. This final volume in a series of three original reference works covers four broad themes: including urban growth patterns, spatial issues, policy issues, and urban growth determinants. The chapters have been written not only for the advanced student and academics but also with undergraduate students in mind. The Handbook will appeal to scholars and researchers interested in international urban development issues.

The Politics of Solidarity Carmen Ludwig, 2020-04-08. Politische Transformation und dann 25 Jahre nach dem Ende der Apartheid sieht sich die südafrikanische Gesellschaft nach wie vor mit drastischen Ungleichheiten konfrontiert. Carmen Ludwig nimmt den Wandel öffentlicher Dienstleistungen im Post-Apartheid Südafrika und die Auswirkungen der kommunalen Privatisierungen in den Blick. Sie zeigt anhand dreier Gro ÷ t ÷ te politische Konfliktlinien und lokale Gewerkschaftsstrategien im Spannungsfeld von inklusiver und exklusiver Solidarität auf. Zudem stellt sie die Frage, wie es Gewerkschaften gelingen kann, Solidarität in fragmentierten Belegschaften herzustellen.

International Migrants and the City Marcello Balbo, 2005. This new book, which is jointly published by UN HABITAT and the Università di Venezia, gives an account of different policies, practices, and governance models that are addressing the issue of international migration in an urbanizing world. The book reviews the policies and practices of ten cities, including Bangkok, Berlin, Dakar, Johannesburg, Karachi, Naples, São Paulo, Tijuana, Vancouver, and Vladivostok. Key issues of analysis include the impact of national policies on international migration, the role of migrants in the local economy the relationship between local and migrant communities and the migrants use of urban space It reveals the importance and the advantages of promoting communication between stakeholders and establishing channels for representation and participation of migrants in decisions affecting their livelihoods Research in Urban Sociology

Mark Clapson, Ray Hutchison, 2010-12-14 Presents contributions in comparative suburban studies for urban regions not just in Europe and the United States but also metropolitan regions in China India and other areas of the world This title examines the patterns of suburban development in metropolitan regions around the globe
