An Integral Approach to Development Economics Basheer A. Oshodi, 2016-04-15 Developing economies such as those in sub Saharan Africa are searching for realistic economic policy prescriptions Despite economic growth in countries like Nigeria poverty and unemployment blight the lives of many in the midst of plenty Simultaneously much neo classical economic thought is being questioned against the backdrop of global economic meltdown giving rise to inquiry about more integral approaches to sustainable development In An Integral Approach to Development Economics Basheer Oshodi examines modernization theories dependency theories world system theories and emerging 21st century economic theories and links a neo modern mix of economic thought with the practicalities of finance in parts of the World where poverty is rife In a specifically African setting over half of the population are Muslims Oshodi considers Islamic finance in the context of the triple heritage of indigenous culture Westernized Christianity and Islam He argues that the principles of Islamic banking and finance can be integrated with other elements of that heritage focusing on meeting the challenges of poverty and unemployment Islamic finance is not just a religiously oriented Sharia compliant alternative financial model It can contribute to overall socio economic transformation and a wider people centred approach to economic development International organizations financial institutions reserve banks policy makers donor agencies and students will find resonance in this valuable addition to Gower s Transformation and Innovation Series

Essays in Empirical Development Economics Esther Duflo, 1999 Essays in Empirical Development Economics Evaluating and Designing Health Interventions Jana Kuhnt, 2018 Epistemics of Development Economics Kofi Kissi Dompere, Manzur Ejaz, 1995-08-22 The effective use of development economic theories in practice is limited the authors contend by the lack of explicit criterion for judging their scientific content The directional progress of critical research and teaching is also constrained by this deficiency This study advances a meta theory designed to assist in evaluating the scientific validity of theories in economic development and how these theories can be improved to assist social practice Using this model the study then examines existing theories dividing them into explanatory and prescriptive theories The explanatory theories include the stage based theories of Marx Schumpeter and Rostow and factor based theories including capital based human capital based and technology based theories The prescriptive theories include explanatory theory based prescriptions interventionist prescriptive theories and theories of economic planning In conclusion the authors contend that modern analysis of development economics is plagued with logical ills misleading notions and a weak theoretical structure that lacks scientific appeal Most of the theories except for those of Marx and Schumpeter neglect an analysis of the mechanism of change

What Works in Development? Jessica Cohen, William Easterly, 2010-02-01 What Works in Development brings together leading experts to address one of the most basic yet vexing issues in development what do we really know about what works and what doesn't in fighting global poverty The contributors including many of the world's most respected economic development analysts focus on the ongoing debate over which paths to development truly maximize results Should we emphasize a big picture approach focusing on the role of institutions macroeconomic policies growth strategies and other country level factors Or is a more grassroots approach the way to go with the focus on particular microeconomic interventions such as conditional cash transfers bed nets and other microlevel improvements in service delivery on the ground The book attempts to find a consensus on which approach is likely to be more effective Contributors include Nana Ashraf Harvard Business School Abhijit Banerjee MIT Nancy Birdsall Center for Global Development Anne Case Princeton University Jessica Cohen Brookings William Easterly NYU and Brookings Alaka Halla Innovations for Poverty Action Ricardo Hausman Harvard University Simon Johnson MIT Peter Klenow Stanford University Michael Kremer Harvard Ross Levine Brown University Sendhil Mullainathan Harvard Ben Olken MIT Lant Pritchett Harvard Martin Ravallion World Bank Dani Rodrik Harvard Paul Romer Stanford University and David Weil Brown
