Brown Boys and Rice Queens Eng-Beng Lim, 2013-11-22 Honorable Mention for the 2015 Cultural Studies Best Book presented by the Association of Asian American Studies Winner of the 2013 CLAGS Fellowship Award for Best First Book Project in LGBT Studies A transnational study of Asian performance shaped by the homoerotics of orientalism Brown Boys and Rice Queens focuses on the relationship between the white man and the native boy Eng Beng Lim unpacks this as the central trope for understanding colonial and cultural encounters in 20th and 21st century Asia and its diaspora Using the native boy as a critical guide Lim formulates alternative readings of a traditional Balinese ritual postcolonial Anglophone theatre in Singapore and performance art in Asian America Tracing the transnational formation of the native boy as racial fetish object across the last century Lim follows this figure as he is passed from the hands of the colonial empire to the postcolonial nation state to neoliberal globalization Read through such figurations the traffic in native boys among white men serves as an allegory of an infantilized and emasculated Asia subordinate before colonial whiteness and modernity Pushing further Lim addresses the critical paradox of this entrenched relationship that resides even within queer theory itself by formulating critical interventions around Asian performance

Exceptional Spaces Della Pollock, 2018-06-15 Taking interdisciplinary and diverse approaches these thirteen essays explore the multifaceted relationship between performance and history By considering performance as both a useful frame for understanding historical practices and a mode of historical production itself performance in history and performance as history the contributors chart new directions in such fields as cultural studies contemporary historiography museum studies and life narrative research Geographically and chronologically the collection's sweep is broad ranging from the nineteenth century to the present from Victorian theater to commissions of inquiry in Kenya from dissent in post Soviet Lithuania to plantation tours in the American South Together the essays make up a work that is truly interdisciplinary in breadth and focus By combining the methodologies of history and performance studies the contributors illuminate the structure and function of cultural production in all its forms The contributors are Michael S Bowman Ruth Laurion Bowman Elizabeth Gray Buck Kay Ellen Capo David William Cohen Tracy Davis Kirk W Fuoss Shannon Jackson D Soyini Madison Carol Mavor E S Atieno Odhiambo Della Pollock Jeffrey H Richards and Joseph R Roach

A Keener Perception Alan C. Braddock, Christoph Irmscher, 2009 A landmark collection of essays on the intersections of visual art cultural studies and environmental history in America Issues of ecology both as they appear in the works of nature writers and in the works of literary writers for whom place and the land are central issues have long been of interest to literary critics and have given rise over the last two decades to the now firmly established field of ecocriticism The essays in this volume written by art historians and literary critics seek to bring the study of American art into the expanding discourse of ecocriticism A Keener Perception offers a series of case studies on topics ranging from John White's watercolors of the Carolina landscape executed during Sir Walter Raleigh's 1585 Roanoke expedition to photographs by environmental activist Eliot Porter Rather than merely resurrect past instances of ecologically attuned art this volume features essays that resituate many canonical figures such as Thomas Eakins Aaron Douglas and Thomas Cole in an ecocritical light by which they have yet to be viewed Studying such artists and artworks through an ecocritical lens not only provides a better understanding of these works and the American landscape but also brings a new interpretive paradigm to the field of art history a field that many of these critics believe would do well to embrace environmental concerns as a vital area of research In highlighting the work of scholars who bring ecological agendas to their study of American art as well as providing models for literary scholars who might like to better incorporate the visual arts into their own scholarship and teaching A Keener Perception is truly a landmark collection timely consequential and controversial
