En Toute Intimite Elisabeth Emery:

Interior decorating in nineteenth-century France Anca I. Lasc, 2018-07-16 This book explores the beginnings of the interior design profession in nineteenth century France Drawing on a wealth of visual sources from collecting and advice manuals to pattern books and department store catalogues it demonstrates how new forms of print media were used to sell the idea of the unified interior as a total work of art enabling the profession of interior designer to take shape In observing the dependence of the trades on the artistic and public visual appeal of their work the book establishes crucial links between the fields of art history material and visual culture and design history French Cultural Studies for the Twenty-First Century Masha Belenky, Kathryn Kleppinger, Anne O'Neil-Henry, 2017-03-30 French Cultural Studies for the Twenty First Century brings together current scholarship on a diverse range of topics from French postcards and Third Republic menus to Haitian literary magazines and representation of race in vaudeville theater in order to provide methodological insight into the current practice of French cultural studies The essays in the volume show how scholars of French studies can effectively analyze what we term non traditional sources in their historical and geographical contexts In doing so the volume offers a compelling vision of the field today and maps out potential paradigms for future research This book builds upon previous scholarship that defined the stakes of using an interdisciplinary approach to analyze cultural objects from France and Francophone regions and aims to evaluate the current state of this complex and constantly evolving field and its current methodological practices The Mediatization of the Artist Rachel Esner, Sandra Kisters, 2018-01-31 This book offers trans historical and trans national perspectives on the image of the artist as a public figure in the popular discourse and imagination Since the rise of notions of artistic autonomy and the simultaneous demise of old systems of patronage from the late eighteenth century onwards artists have increasingly found themselves confronted with the necessity of developing a public persona In the same period new audiences for art discovered their fascination for the life and work of the artist The rise of new media such as the illustrated press photography and film meant that the needs of both parties could easily be satisfied in both words and images Thanks to these new media the artist was transformed from a simple producer of works of art into a public figure The aim of this volume is to reflect on this transformative process and to study the specific role of the media themselves Which visual media were deployed to what effect and with what kind of audiences in mind How did the artist critic photographer and filmmaker interact in the creation of these representations of the artist's image States of Decadence Guri Barstad, Karen P. Knutsen, 2016-12-14 States of Decadence is a two volume anthology that focuses on the literary and cultural phenomenon of decadence Particular attention is given to literature from the end of the 1800s the fin de siècle however the essays presented here are not restricted to this historical period but draw lines both back in time and forward to our day to illuminate the contradictory multiplicity inherent in decadence Furthermore the essays go beyond literary studies drawing on a number of the tropes and themes of decadence manifested in the arts and culture such as in music opera film history and even jewelry design Volume 2 comprises essays on the following thematic areas Images of Decadent Women Transmedia Decadence Contemporary Decadence and Poetic Decadence The contributors are part of an active network of international scholars from many different countries As the expansive title of the volume suggests they explore the decadent aesthetic approach to the arts to culture and to a worldview that juxtaposes a strange mixture of conservatism and rebellion ambivalence and deep convictions

Photojournalism and the Origins of the French Writer House Museum (1881-1914) Elizabeth Emery, 2017-07-05 Why did writers private homes become so linked to their work that contemporaries began preserving them as museums Photojournalism and the Origins of the French Writer House Museum addresses this and other questions by providing an overview of the social forces that brought writers homes to the forefront of the French imagination at the end of the nineteenth century and the beginning of the twentieth This study analyzes representations of the apartments and houses of Corneille Hugo Balzac Dumas Sand Zola Loti Montesquiou Mallarm and Proust among others arguing that the writer s home became a contested space and an important part of the French patrimony at this time This is the first book to emphasize the house museum as an essentially modern construct and to trace the history of ideas leading to its institutionalization in twentieth century France The interdisciplinary study also brings new attention to the importance of photojournalism for fin de si e France and brings to light fascinating and forgotten examples of at home photography by Dornac and Henri Mairret Elizabeth Emery provides a fresh and compelling perspective on conjunctions between visual literary and material cultures

Medicine and Maladies , 2018-07-03 Medicine and Maladies explores the aesthetic medical and socio political contexts that informed depictions of illness and disease in nineteenth century France Eleven essays by specialists in nineteenth century French literature and visual culture probe the acts of writing reading and viewing corporeal afflictions across the works of medical practitioners surgeons pharmacists novelists and artists Tracing scientific discourse in literary narratives and signalling references to fiction in medical texts the contributions to this interdisciplinary volume invite us to rethink the relationship between the humanities and the medical sciences

Reframing Japonisme Elizabeth Emery, 2020-09-17 Japonisme the nineteenth century fascination for Japanese art has generated an enormous body of scholarship since the beginning of the twenty first century but most of it neglects the women who acquired objects from the Far East and sold them to clients or displayed them in their homes before bequeathing them to museums The stories of women shopkeepers collectors and artists rarely appear in memoirs left by those associated with the japoniste movement This volume brings to light the culturally important yet largely forgotten activities of women such as Cl mence d Ennery 1823 1898 who began collecting Japanese and Chinese chimeras in the 1840s built and decorated a house for them in the 1870s and bequeathed the Mus e d Ennery to the state as a free public museum in 1893 A friend of the Goncourt brothers and a fifty year patron of Parisian dealers of Asian art d Ennery s struggles to gain recognition as a collector and curator serve as a lens through which to examine the collecting and display practices of other women of her day

Travelers to Japan such as the Duchesse de Persigny Isabella Stewart Gardner and Laure Durand Fardel returned with souvenirs that they shared with friends and family Salon hostesses including Juliette Adam Louise Cahen d Anvers Princesse Mathilde and Marguerite Charpentier provided venues for the discussion and examination of Japanese art objects as did well known art dealers Madame Desoye Madame Malinet Madame Hatty and Madame Langweil Writers actresses and artists Judith Gautier Th r se Bentzon Sarah Bernhardt and Mary Cassatt to name just a few took inspiration from the Japanese material in circulation to create their own unique works of art Largely absent from the history of Japonisme these women and many others actively collected Japanese art interacted with auction houses and art dealers and formed collections now at the heart of museums such as the Louvre the Mus e Guimet the Mus e Cernuschi the Mus e Unterlinden and the Metropolitan Museum of Art
