European Thought and Culture, 1350-1992 Michael J. Sauter, 2021-06-06 This book explores the main currents of European thought between 1350 and 1992 which it approaches in two principal ways culture as produced by place and the progressive unmooring of thought from previously set religious and philosophical boundaries The book reads the period against spatial thought s history spatial sciences such as geography or Euclidean geometry to argue that Europe cannot be understood as a continent in intellectual terms or its history organized with respect to traditional spatial geographic categories Instead we need to understand European intellectual history in terms of a culture that defined its own place as opposed to a place that produced a given culture It then builds on this idea to argue that Europe s overweening drive to know more about humanity and the cosmos continually breached the boundaries set by venerable religious and philosophical traditions In this respect spatial thought foregrounded the human at the unchanging s expense with European thought slowly becoming unmoored as it doggedly produced knowledge at wisdom s expense Michael J Sauter illustrates this by pursuing historical themes across different chapters including European thought s exit from the medieval period the Renaissance the Reformation the Scientific Revolution the Enlightenment and Romanticism the Industrial Revolution and war and culture offering a thorough overview of European thought during this period The book concludes by explaining how contemporary culture has forgotten what early modern thinkers such as Michel de Montaigne still knew namely that too little skepticism toward one s own certainties makes one a danger to others Offering a comprehensive introduction to European thought that stretches from the late fourteenth to the late twentieth century this is the perfect one volume study for students of European intellectual history

The Art of Decision Making Joseph Bikart, 2019-07-09 Drawing insights from philosophy psychology literature and theology a longtime executive business coach explores how and why we make the decisions we do What is it that makes some of us better or worse than others at committing to a choice What are the forces that hold us back and how can we successfully overcome them Every facet of our lives depends on the decisions we make Yet how often do we pause to reflect on our ability to make the best and smartest choices The key is how we confront and refine the decision making process Here Joseph Bikart explores the intricacies of decision making challenging us to understand why we make the choices we do He explores how the true power of decisions especially the toughest among them help us to face our fears and may in turn change how we think about ourselves Breaking his study into four clear parts and short practical essays Bikart presents a lively and compelling exploration of the process of decision making He covers Indecision Indecision What makes us indecisive What holds us back and why Where Art Thou How and where we get stuck and the importance of relaxing one's grip The Momentum of Decisiveness Keeping our focus and proactivity The Deciding Mind Making our smartest choices Drawing from such different fields as philosophy psychology neurology literature art history and theology The Art of Decision Making takes us on a journey from the depths of procrastination to the elation of decision making Presenting a fresh perspective on what to do at the proverbial fork in the road Bikart's unique philosophy is insightful thought provoking and potentially life changing

Freud for Thought Tom Donovan, 2023-10-01 Prof Tom Donovan suggests reading Freud today for inspiration in shaping one's outlook and taking control of one's life We all have to confront the human condition and we face a constant challenge to steer a satisfying course around over and through the distractions that tempt us to accept the easy gratifications and let the real treasures dribble away Can one live a philosophical life in a world that has killed God and given the reins of society to what Nietzsche called the last men Many of us are unsatisfied with the alternatives offered up today from various ideologies as well as the obscene nature of today's consumer capitalism and the incoherent and distracting roaring of identity politics But are there viable choices in the search for meaning happiness and value There are major threads throughout our philosophical tradition for understanding the human condition and coming to terms with both our individual and collective lives This book suggests that we return to our Western philosophical tradition The Ancients the Frankfurt School and the existentialist penseurs Tom Donovan places Freud within this tradition and utilizes Civilization and its Discontents as a catalyst to offer theoretical tools and concrete practices on how to forge ourselves into excellent humans Happiness requires the evolution of a self A coherent interpretive and hermeneutic approach understands that identities are situational We should be wary of essentializing them This book argues that there is a philosophical way of living and that this path emphasizes the pursuit of excellence and the courage to mediate our instincts through deep reflection conversation and noble practices Rather than searching for some child within what if we try to forge mature and deep ways of being and acting La vie philosophique is the true path towards happiness and capturing human meaning and noble values This book is for readers interested in forging a meaningful life and for those of us who are not interested in dogmatic religions vulgar
