Encountering Religious Pluralism The Challenge To Christian Faith Mission:

Encountering Religious Pluralism Harold Netland, 2001-08-14 Harold Netland traces the emergence of the pluralistic ethos that challenges Christian faith and mission interacting heavily with philosopher John Hick and providing a framework for developing a comprehensive evangelical theology of religions Christianity and Religious Diversity Harold A.

Netland, 2015-05-12 This book explores how religions have changed in a globalized world and how Christianity is unique among them Harold Netland an expert in philosophical aspects of religion and pluralism offers a fresh analysis of religion in today's globalizing world He challenges misunderstandings of the concept of religion itself and shows how particular religious traditions such as Buddhism undergo significant change with modernization and globalization Netland then responds to issues concerning the plausibility of Christian commitments to Jesus Christ and the unique truth of the Christian gospel in light of religious diversity The book concludes with basic principles for living as Christ's disciples in religiously diverse contexts Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue Celucien L. Joseph, Charlene Desir, Lewis A.

Clormeus, 2023-10-30 Vodou and Christianity in Interreligious Dialogue addresses both historical factors and ideological issues that created antagonism and conflict between Christians and Vodouists in Haiti The book offers practical solutions and strategies to help create a harmonious and peaceful environment between religious practitioners associated with Vodou and Christianity Toward this goal this volume considers various perspectives and theories such as autobiography anthropology ethnographic fieldwork religious experience and gender to examine the subject matter This volume offers practical examples and resources on how to engage in interreligious dialogue and promote interreligious education in Haiti There are three philosophical and practical ideas underlying this book project 1 it is grounded on the belief that religion has value and it could bring social goods to different communities and enhance human dignity and justice 2 it is premised on the idea that dialogue and cooperation are necessary for nation building and human development as democratic ideals and that one of the leading functions of the world's religious traditions is to promote both cooperation and dialogue through mutual understanding and for the common good and 3 that the power and public role of religion in society can be used as a major force of unification and peace building among divergent factions and schools of thought and to promote reconciliation mutual respect and friendship in the world Contemporary Muslim and Christian Responses to Religious Plurality Lewis E

Winkler, 2012-04-26 In our rapidly changing and progressively globalized world Christians and Muslims are faced with the prospect of directly encountering and responding to people of other faiths and cultures This has pushed us all to address the vital question of how best to live with work beside and love one another as fellow citizens of our planet Using resources from Christian theologian Wolfhart Pannenberg Muslim ethicist Abdulaziz Sachedina and several others Winkler argues that we must continually dialogue with one another not only about the beliefs and practices held in common between us but also about the ways in which we are distinctively different Only then can we take the opportunity more comprehensively to Missions and Unity Norman E. Thomas, 2010-11-01. This study is the first comprehensive history of the impact of the modern missionary movement on the understanding of and work toward Christian unity. It tells stories from all branches of the church: Roman Catholic, Orthodox, and Protestant in its many types: conciliar, evangelical, Pentecostal, and independent. Part 1, Historical, highlights the contribution of modern missions to Christian unity from William Carey and his antecedents and peers to present-day missions. Part 2, Ten Models of Unity, takes an inductive approach to history, asking not how should Christians cooperate but how has the missionary movement helped Christians to work together at the local, national, regional, and global level. Part 3, Wider Ecumenism, broadens the evidence to include how the missions movement has helped not only institutional churches but also broader society to have concern for the unity of the entire human family. Included here is the story of how the Protestant missionary movement influenced the forming of the United Nations as well as the drafting of the Universal Declaration of Human Rights. The study also covers the movement's impact on Christian attitudes toward and relations with persons of other faiths. Mission and Unity is the standard reference work in the field for persons studying modern history, modern church history, missions, and ecumenics.

The Ocean of God Roland Faber, 2019-06-29. The Ocean of God conveys the proposition that the future of religions, if they will not want to contribute to the destruction of humanity, will become transreligious. Based on the assumption that the spiritual impulse of humanity cannot simply be eradicated, religiosity will persist in transreligious forms as secularizations, naturalizations, and transhumanist dreams only envision such transformations but fall short in their ability to replace the force of spirituality to further civilized peace of human existence on Earth and its future in evolutionary, ecological, and cosmological dimensions. In relating the contributions of religious pluralism to the concept of the unity of religions, which have arisen in this new axial age for overcoming the checkered history of religions in furthering peace, the program of a polyphilic pluralism with its transreligious discourse based on the insight of the fundamental relativity of religious truth and the special contributions of process philosophy and theology as well as the Bah universe of thought analyses and projects a new religiosity or spirit enabling religions to overcome their deepest motives of strife and warfare The Cape Town Commitment: A Confession of Faith, A Call to Action Darrell L. Bock, 2013-06-14 The Cape Town Commitment which arose from The Third Lausanne Congress on World Evangelization Cape Town 2010 stands in the historic line of The Lausanne Covenant 1974 and The Manila Manifesto 1989 It has been translated into twenty five languages and has commanded wide acceptance around the world The Commitment is set in two parts Part 1 is a Confession of Faith crafted in the language of covenantal love Part 2 is a Call to Action The local church mission agencies special interest groups and Christians in the professions are all urged to find their place in its outworking This annotated bibliography of The Cape Town Commitment arranged by topic has been compiled by specialists in a range of fields As such it is the first bibliography of its kind Arranged in sections for graduate level teaching Equally useful for research students Passing on the Faith James L. Heft, 2009-08-25 From the beginning the Abrahamic faiths Judaism Christianity and Islam have stressed the importance of transmitting religious identity from one generation to the next Today that sustaining mission has never been more challenged Will young people have a faith to guide them How can faith traditions anchor religious attachments in this secular skeptical culture The fruit of a historic gathering of scholars and religious leaders across three faiths and many disciplines this important book reports on the religious lives of young people in today s world It s also a unique inventory of creative and thoughtful responses from churches synagogues and mosques working to keep religion a significant force in those lives The essays are grouped thematically Opening the book Melchor Sanchez de Toca and Nancy Ammerman explore fundamental issues that have an impact on religion from the cultural effects of global consumerism and personal technology to pluralism and individualism In Part Two leading investigators present three leading studies of religiosity among young people and college students in the United States illuminating the gap between personal values and organized religion and the emergence of new different forms of spirituality and faith How religious institutions deal with these challenges forms the heart of the book in portraits of best practices developed to revitalize traditional institutions from a synagogue in New York City and a Muslim youth camp in California to the famed French Catholic community of the late Brother John of Taiz Finally Jack Miles and Diane Winston weave the findings into a broader perspective of the future of religious belief practice and feeling in a changing world Filled with real world wisdom Passing the Faith will be an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand what religions must and can do to inspire a vigorous faith in the next generation The Centrality of Christ in Contemporary Missions Mike Barnett, Michael Pocock, 2005-09-15 Is Jesus really the only way What is unique about Christ and missions How can a new understanding of Jesus Christ bridge the gap between modern positivism and post modern relativism Can we learn from the model of Jesus how to be more effective mission workers This volume Number 12 of the annual Evangelical Missiological

Society series offers answers to these questions and more as it discusses the clear and relevant communication of the centrality of Jesus Christ Asian Christian Theology Timoteo D. Gener, Stephen T.
