Encountering Jesus How People Come To Faith And Discover Discipleship:

Encountering Jesus Anthony J. Gittins CSSp, 2018-02-13 In sixteen short but perceptive commentaries Anthony J Gittins recounts the experiences of various women and men from the New Testament insiders and outsiders people of substance and people regarded as sinners whose lives were changed by an encounter with Jesus Based on solid biblical scholarship but retold in language accessible to all and illuminated by the author's fresh perspective these stories emphasize the way in which people come to faith and discover discipleship Encountering Jesus presents New Testament figures in a new light and is perfect for both group study and personal reflection Among the discipleship stories included are the healing of the paralytic from the Gospel of Mark the healing of the Canaanite woman's daughter from Matthew the conversion of Zacchaeus the tax collector from Luke and the healing of the man born blind from John Anthony J Gittins writes Typically the stories demonstrate that there are often a number of stages or steps involved The easiest way to identify them is to notice exactly what each person says and in what sequence during his or her encounter with Jesus With the rare exception of someone immediately identifying Jesus with God most people are a little slower Readers may look out for a three step or four step approach to faith as a person moves to an even more specific identification of Jesus It is an interesting enlightening and sometimes surprising exercise

Called to Be Sent Anthony J. Gittins, 2018-02-13 The gospel tells us to look into other people's eyes as we search for an image of God to help us work for healing justice amid the rubble and the memories that litter our lives to rebuild a human world on the debris of broken dreams and to commit ourselves as God does to restoring communities so that there will be no more estrangement no more strangers and no more aliens It is only a little less than impossible and the only way we can do it is to learn to love the world as God already does It is simply not possible to love in theory we must go further than that We must love in practice We must practice in love That is the disciple s call Called to Be Sent develops and completes the theology of discipleship introduced in the author s previous books This new volume focuses on sending forth the phase that follows our radical encounter with humanity Here we find the hope and strength to move from an understanding of mission to actually being commissioned by Jesus In short as Christians we are gathered for scattering and called to be sent and this book provides much direction Called to Be Sent Anthony J. The Wisdom of Creation Barbara Ellen Bowe, 2004 Description There has been a growing awareness of the plight of the earth at the hands of human beings over the past several decades An important theological contribution to this discussion over the past two decades has been the work of Dianne Bergant She brings first of all a deep concern for the earth and its creatures As a professor of Hebrew Bible she also brings the contribution of the Wisdom literature of the Jewish tradition It is at the intersection of these two resources concern for the earth and the Wisdom literature that much of her work has been done The Wisdom of Creation written to honor her takes up the themes of creation and Wisdom from a variety of perspectives both biblical and theological to think along with Bergant about the challenge of caring for the earth and for those who dwell upon it The work of a theology that will contribute to the care of and the future of the earth is still in many ways in its early stages Dianne Bergant's own work on themes of wisdom creation prayer and preaching has made a significant contribution to that theology It is hoped that these essays will continue that important task of making a better world in which the next generation will grow and mature Essays and contributors are The Creatures Know by Walter Brueggemann Redeeming Gospel Feminism From Anti Judaism by Mary C Boys S N J M The Divine I Am Wisdom Motifs in the Gospel of John by Barbara E Bowe Creation as a Divine Human Collaboration by Herman E Schaalman Creation Revelation and Redemption Recovering the Biblical Tradition as a Conversation Partner to Ecology by Carol J Dempsey O P Three Who Loved Wisdom by Agnes Cunningham S S C M Charged with the Grandeur of God The Created World as a Path to Prayer by Anthony J Gittins C S Sp The Myth of the Garden and Spiritual Ministry in Postmodern America by Mary Frohlich R S C J Nature's Parables and the Preaching of the Gospel by Mary Catherine Hilkert O P and Preaching Morality without Moralizing by Andrew L Nelson

Jay Moon,2017-12-05 This addition to an acclaimed series brings cutting edge research to bear on a topic of perennial interest making disciples The book looks at disciple making from multiple cultures to help readers discover contextual approaches that are culturally relevant and biblically faithful It emphasizes methods that are especially effective with contemporary converts and includes practical examples from around the world Each chapter includes sidebars discussion questions an activity for discipling and a case study An appendix contains further suggestions and exercises for instructors The Making of a Disciple Edward W. Watson,Martin M. Culy,2021-09-02 Modern readers sometimes view the Gospels and other biblical narratives as mere historical accounts of events that occurred long ago Biblical narratives however are intended to do far more than teach us history They are intended to change how we think and how we live In The Making of a Disciple Watson and Culy use insights from narrative criticism to show that the message of the Gospel of John is communicated not only through the teachings and deeds of Jesus but also through the actions of the other main characters and the consequences of their actions As readers observe characters interacting with Jesus they are implicitly encouraged to either emulate or avoid their behavior Coupled with the teachings and acts of Jesus these characters serve as potent tools in the Gospel of John to showcase what it looks like not only to become a disciple of Jesus but also to grow to maturity and experience the fullness of joy that Jesus offers In the Garden there was a New Tomb Paul Creevey,2024-11-18 Paul Creevey considers the central question Can one simply assume that the story of the burial empty tomb and appearance narratives in John s Gospel are a literary unity There are many issues in coherence and cohesion that have led to a wide number of interpretations given to many different aspects of the text that is John 19 37 20 29 It is also widely recognized that John s retelling of these events are distinctive Creevey analyses the text of John 19 37 20 29 showing that the Johannine Evangelist has created a two part tripartite defense of two central aspects of Christian faith the case for the empty tomb and the case for the appearance narratives Using internal literary evidence as well as external evidence from the earliest extant manuscripts he argues that this text has been created to show that the testimony and witness of those first disciples is true and is the basis of any future Christian belief This work addresses all the issues in the apparent lack of cohesion and coherence in the text to show that each part of the text is connected to an overall defense of belief in these two central aspects of faith Finally what is at the heart of these two events is the need to accept that it is the relationship that one has to Jesus and the Father that is central to acceptance of this narrative as an inspired narrative that offers hope for all people

Resurrection: Faith or Fact? Carl Stecher, Craig L. Blomberg, 2019-04-09 Is there enough evidence to believe Jesus rose from the dead or must such a judgment be based only on faith Can the resurrection story be considered a fact of history or should it be viewed as an ahistorical account Two renowned professors atheist Carl Stecher and Christian Craig Blomberg engage in a groundbreaking new debate on these very questions Other experts on the resurrection atheist Richard Carrier and Christian Peter S Williams comment on the outcome Presenting new approaches to these centuries old questions and taking into account the latest scholarly research Resurrection Faith or Fact is a must have not only for all those following the resurrection question but also for those skeptics and Christians alike who are interested in determining for themselves the truth behind this foundational doctrine of the Christian faith

Reichenbach, 2023-02-09 Diving into the Gospel of John displays the rich and diverse arguments John presents for his thesis that Jesus is the Messiah the Son of God and that through believing readers listeners will find eternal life John s arguments are developed in four parts The first two chapters develop the author s literary techniques that are often based on ambiguity and his key symbols and concepts the understanding of which are essential to fully appreciate the Gospel Chapters 3 through 6 progressively portray the author s evidence for his thesis in the form of signs testimony of those who encounter Jesus Jesus s self identification and Jesus s relationships to others Chapters 7 and 8 show how the author uses theatrically patterned dialogues and triadic discourses to convey Jesus s identity and mission Finally chapters 9 through 11 provide important hints that the author gives for his thesis Jesus s appeals to time the indirect use of seven as the number of completeness and invocation of parentage in pointing to salvation Through diving into the Gospel readers will discover the richness of John s argument the Jesus he portrays and the God Jesus reveals The book aims to stimulate commitment challenge mind and spirit and encourage further reflection and conversation The Meaning of “Make Disciples” in the Broader Context of the Gospel of Matthew Lindsay D. Arthur, 2022-05-09 Students of the Bible are generally comfortable with their understanding of the command make disciples Matt 28 19 Indeed most of them would argue that the Gospel writer Matthew spells out very clearly the meaning of the term in the Great Commission Matt 28 16 20 by utilizing three key words viz go ing baptizing and teaching This point of view is the result of centuries of scholarly opinion that has looked primarily if not solely to these three adjacent participles of make disciples Matt 28 19 and not to the entire Gospel of Matthew for the meaning of the command This book does not suggest that going baptizing and teaching are not to be considered in determining the essence of Christian disciple making Rather it contends that the three terms should not be our only source of meaning This problem is tackled herein by demonstrating that Matthew establishes a framework within the Great Commission itself that points to a fuller meaning of make disciples in the broader context of his Gospel and that the Gospel writer expects his reader to draw on his entire Gospel to grasp the full meaning of this important command
