Encountering Islam Richard Sudworth, 2017-10-30 What do Christian Churches say Islam is What does the Church of England say Islam is And in the end what space is there for genuine engagement with Islam Richard Sudworth's unique study takes as its cue the question of political theology and brings this burgeoning area of debate into dialogue with Christian Muslim relations and Anglican ecclesiology The vexed subject of Christian Muslim Relations provides the presenting arena to explore what political theologies enable the Church of England to engage with the diverse public square of the twenty first century Each chapter concludes with an Anecdotes from the Field section setting themes from the chapter in the context of Richard Sudworth's own ministry within a Muslim majority parish

Encountering Islam on the First Crusade Nicholas Morton, 2016-07-14 The First Crusade 1095-9 has often been characterised as a head to head confrontation between the forces of Christianity and Islam For many it is the campaign that created a lasting rupture between these two faiths Nevertheless is such a characterisation borne out by the sources Engagingly written and supported by a wealth of evidence Encountering Islam on the First Crusade offers a major reinterpretation of the crusaders attitudes towards the Arabic and Turkic peoples they encountered on their journey to Jerusalem Nicholas Morton considers how they interpreted the new peoples civilizations and landscapes they encountered sights for which their former lives in Western Christendom had provided little preparation Morton offers a varied picture of cross cultural relations depicting the Near East as an arena in which multiple protagonists were pitted against each other Some were fighting for supremacy others for their religion and many simply for survival

Islam's Encounter with Modern Science Taner Edis, 2023-12-07 Within Muslim populations debates about the compatibility between science and religion tend to be framed by the long standing competition between modernizing reformers particularly westernizers and theological conservatives Much like their liberal Christian counterparts reformers propose to embrace technical knowledge and reinterpret traditional beliefs undermined by modern science Conservatives are more open to challenging the content of science especially when science appears to support materialist views Islamists promote an alternative non western style of modernity nurturing a more pious professional class that contrasts with westernized elites By scientific standards westernizers appear to have the upper hand especially as conservative apologetics is drawn toward distortions of science such as creationism or fruitless attempts to Islamize science But conservatives can also point to some success in defusing tensions between scientific and religious institutions without adopting the full secularization of science seen in post Christian countries

Islam Encountering Globalisation Ali Mohammadi, 2012-11-12 One of the greatest dilemmas facing Muslims today is the fact that Muslim culture is often seemingly incompatible with the culture of the modern Western world and the features associated with it technological progress consumerism and new electronic communication all of which have the potential for a homogenizing effect on any culture This book explores many key aspects of the globalisation process discussing how Muslim countries are coping with globalisation as well as considering how the West is responding to Islam

World Christianity in Muslim Encounter Stephen R. Goodwin, 2011-11-03 Global Christianity in Local Context and Muslim Encounter is a unique collection of essays in honour of David A Kerr well known for his contributions in the areas of Christian Muslim dialogue Ecumenical Studies and Missions With contributions from recognized experts in these fields the book provides a platform for examining contemporary Christian Muslim relations and critical issues facing twenty first century Christianity Volume 2 is a veritable Who's Who of renowned Christian and Muslim scholars that have shaped the course of Christian Muslim dialogue over the last half century Their contributions in this volume address contemporary and pivotal issues facing Christians and Muslims today such as Islamophobia Islamism Religious Freedom Inter religious Challenges and Urbanism Mission and Economic Globalisation Suffering and Social Responsibility and others

Christianity Encountering World Religions (Encountering Mission) Terry C. Muck, Frances S. Adeney, 2009-04-01 The current religious climate poses unique challenges to those engaged in mission Thus the authors of this book propose a new yet very biblical model for interacting with people of other faiths They term this model giftive mission as it is based on the metaphor of free gift We bear the greatest gift possible the gospel message Adopting this perspective not only has the potential for greater missionary success but also enables us to more closely imitate God's gracious activity in the world The core of the book explores eleven practices that characterize giftive mission Each practice is illustrated through the story of a figure from mission history who embodied that practice Further discussion shows how to incorporate these practices in specific mission settings

Europe's Encounter with Islam Luca Mavelli, 2013-03-01 In the last few years the Muslim presence in Europe has been increasingly perceived as problematic Events such as the French ban on headscarves in public schools the publication of the so called Danish cartoons and the speech of Pope Benedict XVI at the University of Regensburg have hit the front pages of newspapers the world over and prompted a number of scholarly debates on Muslims capacity to comply with the seemingly neutral and pluralistic rules of European secularity Luca Mavelli argues that this perspective has prevented an in depth reflection on the limits of Europe's secular tradition and its role in Europe's conflictual encounter with Islam Through an original reading of Michel Foucault's spiritual notion of knowledge and an engagement with key thinkers from Thomas Aquinas to Jürgen Habermas Mavelli articulates a contending genealogy of European secularity While not denying the latter's achievements in terms of pluralism and autonomy he suggests that Europe's secular tradition has also contributed to forms of isolation which translate into Europe's incapacity to perceive its encounter with Islam as an opportunity rather than a threat Drawing on this theoretical perspective Mavelli offers a contending account of some of the most important recent controversies surrounding Islam in Europe and investigates the postsecular as a normative model to engage with the tensions at the heart of European secularity Finally he advances the possibility of a Europe willing to reconsider its established secular narratives which may identify in the encounter with Islam an opportunity to flourish and cultivate its democratic qualities and postnational commitments This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion and international relations social and political theory and Islam in Europe Religious Encounter and the Making of the Yoruba John David Yeadon Peel, J. D. Y. Peel, 2003-02-21 Peel is by training an anthropologist but one possessed of an acute historical sensibility Indeed this magnificent book achieves a degree of analytical verve rare in either discipline History Today This is scholarship of the highest quality Peel lifts the Yoruba past to a dimension of comparative seriousness that no one else has managed The book teems with ideas about big and compelling matters of very wide interest T C McCaskie In this magisterial book J D Y Peel contends that it is through their encounter with Christian missions in the mid 19th century that the Yoruba came to know themselves as a distinctive people Peel's detailed study of the encounter is based on the rich archives of the Anglican Church Missionary Society which contain the journals written by the African agents of mission who as the first generation of literate Yoruba played a key role in shaping modern Yoruba consciousness This distinguished book pays special attention to the experiences of ordinary men and women and shows how the process of Christian conversion transformed Christianity into something more deeply Yoruba Scripture, Reason, and the Contemporary Islam-West Encounter S. Kepnes, B. Koshul, 2007-08-06 The unique essays in this collection use the underlying allegiance to scripture in Islam Judaism and Christianity to underscore the deep affinities between the three monotheistic traditions while at the same time encouraging respect for the differences between the traditions to be preserved The Christian Encounter with Muhammad Charles Tieszen, 2020-11-12 This book offers a fresh appraisal of Muhammad that considers the widest possible history of the ways in which Christians have assessed his prophethood To medieval Christian communities Muhammad the leader of a religious and political community that grew quickly and with relative success was an enigma Did God really send him as a prophet with a revelation Was the political success of the community he founded a divine validation Or were he and his followers inspired by something evil Despite their attempts modern Christians continued to be puzzled by Muhammad The Qur'an provided a framework for understanding and honouring Jesus was it possible for Christians to reciprocate with regard to Muhammad This book applies the same analysis to both medieval and modern assessments of Muhammad in order to demonstrate the continuities and disparities present in literature from the two eras God's Heart for Muslims
