Encouraging Words For Kids Starting School:

Starting School Brooker, Liz, 2002-04-01 This is a unique portrait of a group of working class families whose 4 year old children start school on the cusp of the millenium in urban Britain It is a brilliant analysis of ways in which parents children and teachers strive to cross cultural and linguistic boundaries to come to a common understanding of school Beautifully written it is essential reading for all involved in the education of young children Eve Gregory Professor of Language and Culture in Education Goldsmiths University of London This book will challenge and support practitioners in their quest to improve early childhood practice The use of theory is friendly and the real life examples of the experiences of young children and their parents really bring home to the reader the experience of inequality Readers will rarely find a book which expresses the complexity of educational experience in such an accessible form This is a valuable book for every level of early years training Iram Siraj Blatchford Professor of Early Childhood Education Institute of Education University of London How does the home experience of children from poor and ethnic minority communities influence their adaptation to school How does the traditional child centred and progressive pedagogy of early years classrooms meet the needs of children from culturally diverse backgrounds Starting School seeks to address these key questions by tracing the learning experiences of individual children from a poor inner urban neighbourhood half of them from Bangladeshi families as they acquire the knowledge appropriate to their home culture and then take this knowledge to their reception class The book highlights the small differences in family life in parenting practices in perspectives on childhood and in beliefs about work and play which make a big difference to children s adaptations to school In other words it shows how children succeed and fail from their early days at school It shows too how the good intentions of good teachers can sometimes allow children from certain backgrounds to become disaffected and learn to fail and it suggests ways of working with children from working class and multicultural families which may help both children and parents to gain a better understanding of school learning in the UK

Jump-Starting Boys Pam Withers, 2013-06-17 Everyone knows that boys are falling behind in education Largely left out of the discussion are parents of boys who are most aware that their bright eager sons hit an invisible wall somewhere near fourth grade after which they become disengaged discouraged and disaffected There are dozens of books on underachieving boys but most parents brave enough to lift one off the shelf are instantly intimidated by the footnotes graphs case studies and academic speak addressed almost entirely to educators What about the average guilt ridden frustrated mother or father of an underachieving boy Jump Starting Boys is the first book on the market that empowers parents helping them reclaim the duties and rewards of raising their children and navigate the influences of school and media Filled with reassurance and support the authors turn fear and guilt into can do confidence Through easy tips and action list sidebars this is the most practical readable book on the topic

Being Fair with Kids Jim Dueck, 2020-02-10 The current practice of having children begin school within a twelve month cohort is unfair but can be ameliorated by incorporating a dual entry system Such a reform effort will dramatically reduce failure improve student achievement at all levels while reducing expenditures Many students are penalized from maximizing their academic potential simply by being born at the wrong time of the year Not only is there a significant decline in achievement for students born in the second half of the year but they also experience higher rates of failure which negatively impacts self esteem and reduces future success Meanwhile more capable students experience unfairness because of the school's extraordinary effort at helping their failing students With so much focus on the weak many strong students are held back from achieving their potential Parents agonize over when to begin their child s formal education but lack data for making informed decisions Educators understand the issue intuitively but decision makers lack data for justifying reform These informational needs are now available Your Preschooler J.
