Espectros Ghostly Hauntings In Contemporary Transhispanic Narratives:

Espectros Alberto Ribas-Casasayas, Amanda L. Petersen, 2015-12-24 Espectros is a compilation of original scholarly studies that presents the first volume length exploration of the spectral in literature film and photography of Latin America Spain and the Latino diaspora In recent decades scholarship in deconstructionist hauntology trauma studies affect in image theory and a renewed interest in the Gothic genre has given rise to a Spectral Studies approach to the study of narrative Haunting the spectral and the effects of the unseen carry a special weight in contemporary Latin American and Spanish cultures referred to in the book as Transhispanic cultures due to the ominous legacy of authoritarian governments and civil wars as well as the imposition of the unseen yet tangible effects of global economics and neoliberal policies Ribas and Petersen s detailed introductory analysis grounds haunting as a theoretical tool for literary and cultural criticism in the Transhispanic world with an emphasis on the contemporary period from the end of the Cold War to the present The chapters in this volume explore haunting from a diversity of perspectives in particular engaging haunting as a manifestation of trauma absence and mourning The editors carefully distinguish the collective cultural dimension of historical trauma from the individual psychological experience of the aftermath of a violent history always taking into account unresolved social justice issues The volume also addresses the association of the spectral photographic image with the concept of haunting because of the photograph s ability to reveal a presence that is traditionally absent or has been excluded from hegemonic representations of society The volume concludes with a series of studies that address the unseen effects and progressive deterioration of the social fabric as a result of a globalized economy and neoliberal policies from the modernization of the nation state to present Indigenous Plots in Twenty-First Century Latin American Cinema Maria Chiara

D'Argenio, 2022-03-31 In this engaging book Maria Chiara D'Argenio delineates a turn in recent Latin American filmmaking towards inter cultural feature films made by non Indigenous directors Aimed at a global audience but played by Indigenous actors these films tell Indigenous stories in Indigenous languages Over the last two decades a growing number of Latin American films have screened the Indigenous experience by combining the local and the global in a way that has proved appealing at international film festivals Locating the films in composite webs of past and present traditions and forms Indigenous Plots in Twenty First Century Latin American Cinema examines the critical reflection offered by recent inter cultural films and the socio cultural impact if any they might have had Through the analysis of a selection of films produced between 2006 and 2019 the book gauges the extent to which non Indigenous directors who set out to engage critically with colonial legacies and imaginaries as well as with contemporary Indigenous marginalization succeed in addressing these concerns by unthinking and undoing Western centrism and coloniality Drawing on a wide range of disciplines and considering the entire cinematic process from pre production to the films production circulation and critical reception Indigenous Plots in Twenty First Century Latin American Cinema makes the case for a holistic cultural criticism to explain the cultural and political work cinema does in specific historical contexts Haunting Without Ghosts Juliana Martínez, 2020-12-01 Winner William M LeoGrande Prize Center for Latin American and Latino Studies at American University 2022 For half a century cultural production in Colombia has labored under the weight of magical realism above all the works of Gabriel García Márquez where ghosts told stories about the country's violent past and warned against a similarly gruesome future Decades later the story of violence in Colombia is no less horrific but the critical resources of magical realism are depleted In their wake comes spectral realism Juliana Martínez argues that recent Colombian novelists filmmakers and artists from Evelio Rosero and William Vega to Beatriz González and Erika Diettes share a formal and thematic concern with the spectral but shift the focus from what the ghost is toward what the specter does These works do not speak of ghosts Instead they use the specter to destabilize reality by challenging the authority of human vision and historical chronology By introducing the spectral into their work these artists decommmodify well worn modes of representing violence and create a critical space from which to seek justice for the dead and disappeared A Colombia based study Haunting without Ghosts brings powerful insight to the politics and ethics of spectral aesthetics relevant for a variety of sociohistorical contexts Politically Animated Jennifer Nagtegaal, 2023-10-12 Politically Animated studies the convergence of animation and actuality within films television series and digital shorts from across the Spanish speaking world It interrogates the many ways in which animation as a stylistic tool and storytelling device participates in political projects underpinning an array of non fiction works The case studies in the book cover a diverse geographical scope including Spain Argentina Colombia and Mexico They critically analyse different works such as feature length animated documentary films a work of animated journalism a short animated essay and micro short episodes from a televised animated documentary series Jennifer Nagtegaal employs the term politically animated in reference to the ideological implications of choosing specific techniques and styles of animation within certain socio historical and cultural contexts Nagtegaal illuminates the creative union of animated documentary and the comics medium currently being exploited by Spanish and Latin American cartoonists and filmmakers alike By paying particular attention to cultural production beyond the big screen Politically Animated continues to stretch the bounds of animated documentary scholarship This Ghostly Poetry Daniel Aguirre-Oteza, 2020-04-02 The Spanish Civil War was idealized as a poet's war The thousands of poems written about the conflict are memorable evidence of poetry's high cultural and political value in those historical conditions After Franco's victory and the repression that followed numerous Republican exiles relied on the symbolic agency of poetry to uphold a sense of national identity Exilic poems are often read as claim making narratives that fit national literary history This Ghostly Poetry critiques this conventional understanding of literary history by arguing that exilic poems invite readers to seek continuity with a traumatic past just as they prevent their narrative articulation The book uses the figure of the ghost to address temporal challenges to historical continuity brought about by memory tracing the discordant disruptive ways in which memory is interwoven with history in poems written in exile Taking a novel approach to cultural memory This Ghostly Poetry engages with literature history and politics while exploring issues of voice time representation and disciplinarity

The Supernatural Sublime Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández, Claudia Schaefer, 2019-07-01 The Supernatural Sublime explores the long neglected element of the supernatural in films from Spain and Mexico by focusing on the social and cultural contexts of their production and reception their adaptations of codes and conventions for characters and plot and their use of cinematic techniques to create the experience of emotion without explanation Deploying the overarching concepts of the supernatural and the sublime Raúl Rodríguez-Hernández and Claudia Schaefer detail the dovetailing of the unnatural and the experience of limitlessness associated with the sublime The Supernatural Sublime embeds the films in the social histories of twentieth and twenty first century Mexico and Spain both of which made a forced leap into modernity after historical periods founded on official ideologies and circumscribed visions of the nation Evoking Kant's definition of the experience of the sublime Rodríguez-Hernández and Schaefer concentrate on the unrepresentable and the contradictory that oppose purported universal truths and instead offer up illusion deception and imagination through cinema itself a type of illusion writing with light

Haunted Families and Temporal Normativity in Hispanic Horror Films Charles St-Georges, 2018-04-20 This book examines the interactions between ghosts and families in three recent horror films from the Spanish speaking world that rather than explicitly referencing recent political violence speak to the societal conditions and everyday normative violence that serve as preconditions for political violence This study deconstructs intersectional processes of racially and sexually normative subject formation and its oppositional other ghostly erasure that are framed by a common temporal logic wherein full citizenship is contingent upon a nation's dominant notions of contemporaneity and whether individuals properly inhabit prescriptive timelines of reproductivity St-Georges's study explores ways in which ghosts and families are manipulated in each national imaginary as a strategy for negotiating volatility within symbolic order a tactic that can either naturalize or challenge normative discourses As a literary and cinematic trope ghosts are particularly useful vehicles for the exploration of national imaginaries and the dominant or competing cultural attitudes towards a country's history and thus the articulation of a present political reality The rhetorical figure of the family is also key in this process as a mechanism for expressing national allegories for expressing generational anxieties about a nation's relationship to time and for organizing societies and social subjects as such interpellating them into or excluding them from national imaginaries By proposing these specific coordinates ghosts and families and by mapping their relationship between Spain and Latin America Troubling Timelines proposes a study of a temporal framework that besides bridging the traditional area studies divide across the Atlantic creates a space for interdisciplinary inquiry while also responding to increasing demand for studies that focus on intersectionality

Latin American Culture and the Limits of the Human Lucy Bollington, Paul Merchant, 2020-03-18 This volume explores works from Latin American literary and visual culture that question what it means to be human and examine the ways humans and nonhumans shape one another In doing so it provides new perspectives on how the region challenges and adds to global conversations about humanism and the posthuman Contributors identify posthumanist themes across a range of different materials including an anecdote about a plague of rabbits in Historia de las Indias by Spanish historian Bartolom de las Casas photography depicting desert landscapes at the site of Brazil's War of Canudos and digital and installation art portraying victims of state sponsored and drug violence in Colombia and Mexico The essays illuminate how these cultural texts broach the limits between life and death human and animal technology and the body and people and the environment They also show that these works use the category of the human to address issues related to race gender inequality necropolitics human rights and the role of the environment Latin American Culture and the Limits of the Human demonstrates that by focusing on the boundary between the human and nonhuman writers artists and scholars can open up new dimensions to debates about identity and difference the local and the global and colonialism and power Contributors Natalia Aguilar V squez Emily Baker Lucy Bollington Liliana Ch vez D az Carlos Fonseca Niall H D Geraghty Edward King Rebecca Kosick Nicole Delia Legnani Paul Merchant Joanna Page Joey Whitfield Teaching Central American Literature in a Global Context Gloria Elizabeth Chacón, Mónica Albizúrez Gil, 2022-06-15 Central America has a long history as a site of cultural and political exchange from Mayan and Nahua trade networks to the effects of Spanish imperialism capitalism and globalization In Teaching Central American Literature in a Global Context instructors will find practical interdisciplinary and innovative pedagogical approaches to the cultures of Central America that are adaptable to various fields of study The essays map out classroom lessons that encourage students to relate writings and films to their own experience of global interconnectedness and to read critically the history that binds Central America to the United States Mexico and the Caribbean In the context of debates about immigration and a growing Central American presence in the United States this book provides vital resources about the region's cultural production and covers trends in Central American literary studies including Mayan and other Indigenous literatures modernismo Jewish and Afro descendant literatures nineteenth and twentieth century literature and contemporary texts and films This volume contains discussion of the following authors filmmakers and public figures Humberto Ak abal Mar a Jos lvarez and Martha Clarissa Hern ndez Dennis vila Abner Benaim Jayro Bustamante Berta C ceres Isaac Esau Carrillo Can Jennifer C rcamo Horacio Castellanos Moya Quince Duncan Jacinta Escudos Regina Jos Galindo Francisco Gavidia Francisco Goldman Enrique G mez Carrillo Gaspar Pedro Gonz lez Carlos Cubena Guillermo Wilson Eduardo Halfon Tatiana Huezo Florence Jaugey Hern n Jimenez scar Mart nez Victor Montejo Marisol Ceh Moo Victor Perera Archbishop scar Romero Jos Coronel Urtecho and Marcela Zamora Undocuments John-Michael Rivera, 2021-03-30 How do you document the undocumented UNDOCUMENTS both poses and attempts to answer this complex question by remixing the forms and styles of the first encyclopedia of the New World the Florentine Codex in order to tell a modern story of Greater Mexico Employing a broad range of writing genres and scholarly approaches

UNDOCUMENTS catalogs recovers and erases documents and images by and about peoples of Greater Mexico from roughly the first colonial moment This brave and bracing volume organizes and documents ancient New World Mexican peoples from the Florentine Codex 1592 to our current technology heavy age wherein modern lawmakers and powerful global figures desire to classify deport and erase immigrants and their experiences While grappling with anxiety and the physical and mental health consequences of the way the United States treats immigrant bodies John Michael Rivera documents and scrutinizes what it means to seek opportunities in America With a focus on the poetics of Latinx documentality itself this book is concerned with the complicated and at times contradictory ways peoples of Greater Mexico have been documented and undocumented within systems of colonial knowledges and how these peoples have been rendered as specters of the bureaucratic state Rivera takes us through the painful anxiety ridden and complex nature of what it means to be documented or undocumented and the cruelty married to each of these states of being

Animation in Mexico, 2006 to 2022 David S. Dalton, 2025-04-01 Answering a call to view Mexican film through the lens of commercial cinema Animation in Mexico 2006 to 2022 is the first book length study of the country s animated cinema in the twenty first century As such the volume sheds light on one of the country s most strategically important and lucrative genres subjecting it to sustained intellectual analysis for the first time Building on earlier film history David S Dalton identifies two major periods during which the focus shifted from success at the national box office to internationalization and streaming In eight original essays contributors use an array of theoretical and disciplinary approaches to interrogate how this popular genre interfaces with Mexican politics and society more broadly from Huevocartoon to Coco and beyond The book will appeal to students scholars and fans of Mexican film by situating animation within broader currents in the field and the industry

The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a masterful and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
