Riordan,2019-05-01 Recipient of the 2020 Shelf Unbound Notable Indie Award A collection of essays by novelist J F Riordan Reflections on a Life in Exile is easy to pick up and hard to put down By turns deeply spiritual and gently comic these brief meditations range from the inconveniences of modern life to the shifting nature of grief Whether it's an unexpected revelation from a trip to the hardware store a casual encounter with a tow truck driver the changing seasons or a conversation with a store clerk grieving for a dog J F Riordan captures and magnifies the passing beauty of the ordinary and the extraordinary that lingers near the surface of daily life      Wild Life Keena Roberts,2019-11-12 Don't Let's Go to the Dogs Tonight meets Mean Girls in this funny insightful fish out of water memoir about a young girl coming of age half in a baboon camp in Botswana half in a ritzy Philadelphia suburb Keena Roberts split her adolescence between the wilds of an island camp in Botswana and the even more treacherous halls of an elite Philadelphia private school In Africa she slept in a tent cooked over a campfire and lived each day alongside the baboon colony her parents were studying She could wield a spear as easily as a pencil and it wasn't unusual to be chased by lions or elephants on any given day But for the months of the year when her family lived in the United States this brave kid from the bush was cowed by the far more treacherous landscape of the preppy private school social hierarchy Most girls Keena's age didn't spend their days changing truck tires baking their own bread or running from elephants as they tried to do their schoolwork They also didn't carve bird whistles from palm nuts or nearly knock themselves unconscious trying to make homemade palm wine But Keena's parents were famous primatologists who shuttled her and her sister between Philadelphia and Botswana every six months Dreamer reader and adventurer she was always far more comfortable avoiding lions and hippopotamuses than she was dealing with spoiled middle school field hockey players In Keena's funny tender memoir Wild Life Africa bleeds into America and vice versa each culture amplifying the other By turns heartbreaking and hilarious Wild Life is ultimately the story of a daring but sensitive young girl desperately trying to figure out if there's any place where she truly fits in      Burnt Barley Peta Mathias,2016-02-01 Winner of Best Literary Food Writing in English category at the World Cookbook Fair this is a lively journey discovering Ireland's food people and music If Peta hadn't known of her Irish ancestry her love of potatoes would have betrayed it Peta always connects with a place through its food and in visiting the country of her forebears she set herself a difficult task But it didn't take long for Peta to find the world class restaurants hidden up windy cobbled streets to savour the delights of grand country cooking high quality primary produce and seafood from sleepy fishing villages She dances her way between such traditional fare as Guinness barmbrack and black puddings and refined fusion dishes of roasted tomato and goat cheese charlotte with lentils and basil oil and cured wild salmon topped off with slugs of fine Irish whiskey In this wonderful account of travelling through Ireland Peta searches for its gastronomic heartland introduces her intriguing relatives discovers her love of music is intricately intertwined with Irish social life and eating habits and spins tales both traditional and true Cancer, Faith, and

Unexpected Joy Becky Baudouin, 2017 I've taught you how to live now I want to teach you how to die You don't have to be afraid When Becky Baudouin's mother spoke those words to her they weren't said lightly Her mother had an inoperable tumor and after months of treatment there was no hope for a longer life There was however assurance of life everlasting Learned in the dark hours of pain and the bright moments of love the honest insights on fear loss and grief that Becky shares in this book are applicable to everyone's story including yours If you're losing a loved one or facing death you won't be alone on your journey Becky walks with you every step of the way There are even questions for reflection to guide you to comfort whether you're reading on your own or with others sharing the struggle In times when hope seems lost Becky's story reveals that God is the only source for a spirit's true healing For anyone living with the tension of wanting to hold on yet needing to let go Cancer Faith and Unexpected Joy demonstrates a powerful and profound love In Cancer Faith and Unexpected Joy Becky's mother becomes my mother her grief my grief her hope my hope With a combination of emotion vulnerability and dailiness this book offers practical comfort and wisdom for anyone in a place of trial or suffering Jane Rubietta international speaker and author Write Successful College Applications: It's More Than Just the Essay! Cynthia Muchnick, 2014-09-30
