Catalog of Reprints in Series Robert Merritt Orton, 1952 Little Red Readings Angela E. Hubler, 2014-04-29 A significant body of scholarship examines the production of children's literature by women and minorities as well as the representation of gender race and sexuality But few scholars have previously analyzed class in children's literature This definitive collection remedies that by defining and exemplifying historical materialist approaches to children's literature The introduction of Little Red Readings lucidly discusses characteristics of historical materialism the methodological approach to the study of literature and culture first outlined by Karl Marx defining key concepts and analyzing factors that have marginalized this tradition particularly in the United States The thirteen essays here analyze a wide range of texts from children's bibles to Mary Poppins to The Hunger Games using concepts in historical materialism from class struggle to the commodity Essayists apply the work of Marxist theorists such as Ernst Bloch and Fredric Jameson to children's literature and film Others examine the work of leftist writers in India Germany England and the United States The authors argue that historical materialist methodology is critical to the study of children's literature as children often suffer most from inequality Some of the critics in this collection reveal the ways that literature for children often functions to naturalize capitalist economic and social relations Other critics champion literature that reveals to readers the construction of social reality and point to texts that enable an understanding of the role ordinary people might play in creating a more just future The collection adds substantially to our understanding of the political and class character of children's literature worldwide and contributes to the development of a radical history of children's literature Essays for Boys and Girls Stephen Paget, 2015-07-07 Excerpt from Essays for Boys and Girls A First Guide Toward the Study of the War About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

 Addams The Publishers' Trade List Annual ,1904 The Myth of Persephone in Girls' Fantasy Literature Holly Blackford,2012-04-23 In this book Blackford historicizes the appeal of the Persephone myth in the nineteenth century and traces figurations of Persephone Demeter and Hades throughout girls literature of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries She illuminates developmental patterns and anxieties in E T A Hoffmann's Nutcracker and Mouse King Louisa May Alcott's

 E B White's Charlotte's Web J K Rowling's Harry Potter and the Chamber of Secrets Stephenie Meyer's Twilight and Neil Gaiman's Coraline The story of the young goddess's separation from her mother and abduction into the underworld is at root an expression of ambivalence about female development expressed in the various Neverlands through which female protagonists cycle and negotiate a partial return to earth The myth conveys the role of female development in the perpetuation and renewal of humankind coordinating natural and cultural orders through a hieros gamos fertility coupling rite Meanwhile popular novels such as Twilight and Coraline are paradoxically fresh because they recycle goddesses from myths as old as the seasons With this book Blackford offers a consideration of how literature for the young squares with broader canons how classics flexibly and uniquely speak through novels that enjoy broad appeal and how female traditions are embedded in novels by both men and women Constructing the Canon of Children's Literature Anne Lundin, 2004-10-15 In this pioneering historical study Anne Lundin argues that schools libraries professional organizations and the media together create and influence the constantly changing canon of children's literature Lundin examines the circumstances out of which the canon emerges and its effect on the production of children's literature The volume includes a comprehensive list of canonical titles for reference
