Vladimir Solov'ev William Peter van den Bercken, Manon de Courten, Evert van der Zweerde, 2000 Vladimir Solov'ev 1853 1900 is regarded as the most original and systematic of the Russian philosophers in the 19th century He has once again become the subject of international scholarly attention both in Slavic countries and the West This volume contains selected papers presented at the international conference on Vladimir Solov'ev held at Nijmegen University the Netherlands in September 1998 The scope of this conference was wide ranging dealing with theological metaphysical philosophical and historical themes Though Solov'ev's broad intellectual activity defies any strict attempt at categorisation the editors have classified its major themes under the dual characteristic of reconciliation and polemics Solov'ev was passionately committed to the reconciliation of all beings under the idea of all unity which he attempted to achieve by engaging in uncompromising polemics with his contemporaries The thirty contributors to this volume are specialists from Russia Ukraine Bulgaria Western Europe and the United States The volume makes a significant contribution to the intellectual reassessment of Vladimir Solov'ev since the rediscovery of his philosophical heritage in his own homeland in the 1980s

T. F. Torrance and Eastern Orthodoxy Matthew Baker, Todd Speidell, 2015-11-05 A properly ecumenical theology T F Torrance believed points the church to Christ as the only source and reality of its own unity Its only hope for unity must be discovered in him and unveiled to the church rather than pieced together and manufactured through ecumenical slogans and well meaning intentions Acting on this belief Torrance initiated an international dialogue of Reformed and Orthodox Churches which culminated when the World Alliance of Reformed Churches and the Orthodox Church issued a groundbreaking joint statement of agreement concerning the Trinity in 1991 a move beyond the filioque controversy that has divided East and West for a millennium The current volume on T F Torrance and Eastern Orthodoxy continues the theological

Knight,2016-03-03 John Zizioulas is widely recognised as the most significant Orthodox theologian of the last half century and acclaimed advocate of ecumenism From his in-depth knowledge of the intellectual resources of the Church Zizioulas has argued that the Church Fathers represent a profound account of freedom and community that represents a radical challenge to modern accounts of the person Zizioulas uses the work of the Fathers to make an important distinction between the person who is defined by a community and the individual who defines himself in isolation from others and who sees community as a threat to his freedom Zizioulas argues that God is the origin of freedom and community and that the Christian Church is the place in which the person and freedom come into being This volume offers a critical appraisal of the theology of John Zizioulas Leading Anglican Reformed Catholic and Orthodox international scholars including Colin Gunton Nicholas Loudovikos Paul McPartlan Wolfhart Pannenberg and Philip Rosato present essays which analyse Zizioulas trinitarian doctrine of God and his theological account of the Church as the place in which freedom and communion are actualised Many include discussions of Zizioulas Being as Communion as well as other lesser known works now available in Communion and Otherness Together they represent an unrivalled introduction to the work of this great theologian Das Schweizer Buch ,1998
