Principles of marketing CRISTINA CALVO PORRAL, JOHN L. STANTON, 2017-03-08 Marketing reversed prior business logic 50 years ago and said the customer is king and the companies began to recognize that it was not just the product that was the most important aspect of their business Companies recognized that consumers had a myriad of choices of product offerings and marketing was responsible to ensure that the company's products had the benefits and attributes that customers wanted and were willing to pay for Today considering the technology development which influences every function of the company the focus of the successful marketing oriented companies has changed from the customer is king to the customer is a dictator However and despite the new trends in marketing like any social science marketing has basic principles and these principles need to be considered when making any type of marketing decisions So the major step of a student of marketing whether it is a young university student or an experienced business executive is to understand the principles of marketing and reading the present book will be the first step in accomplishing this task This book describes these basic principles of marketing and while the authors recognize that each decision may be slightly different from any previous decision the rules or principles remain the same The present book presents these basic marketing principles and tries to capture the essence of practical and modern marketing today Therefore the purpose of Principles of Marketing is to introduce readers to the fascinating world of marketing today in an easy enjoyable and practical way offering an attractive text from which to learn about and teach marketing Marketing Higher Education Paul Sergius Koku, 2022-07-15 This book provides a comprehensive and accessible guide to marketing Higher Education institutions discussing how universities are service providers and how education is a service both of which need to be defined and marketed together Unlike the current offering available on the subject this book provides a uniquely applied approach linking the theory of marketing practice to the Higher Education sector through real life case studies and examples Each topic is covered in depth including marketing segmentation pricing location brand management internationalization and expansion Overarchingly the book considers how to develop and promote the university as a product and as a brand Two case studies from real life universities in a broad range of locations are provided at the end of each chapter alongside questions to aid understanding and application Holistic and practical Marketing Higher Education is an ideal guide for academics and students studying services marketing Higher Education management and leadership and marketing in the public sector It will also be an invaluable resource for professionals working in Higher Education administration looking to develop their skills and understanding of marketing and brand building

Business to Business Marketing Management Alan Zimmerman,Jim Blythe,2013-04-12 Business to business markets are considerably more challenging than consumer markets and demand specific skills from marketers Buyers with a responsibility to their company and specialist product knowledge are more demanding than the average consumer. The products themselves may be highly complex, often requiring a sophisticated buyer to understand them. Increasingly, B2B relationships are conducted in a global context. However, all textbooks are region specific except this one. This textbook takes a global viewpoint with an international author team and cases from across the globe. Other unique features of this excellent textbook include placement of B2B in a strategic marketing setting, full discussion of strategy in a global setting, including hypercompetition, full chapter on ethics early in the text, detailed review of global B2B services, marketing trade shows and market research. This new edition has been completely rewritten and features expanded sections on globalisation and purchasing, plus brand new sections on social media marketing and intellectual property. More selective, shorter and easier to read than other B2B textbooks, this is ideal for introduction to B2B and shorter courses. At the same time, it is comprehensive enough to cover all the aspects of B2B marketing any marketer needs, be they students or practitioners looking to improve their knowledge.

Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations Zhixian George Yi, 2017-09-20. With the rapid development of information and communication technology and increasingly intense competition with other organizations, information organizations face a pressing need to market their unique services and resources and reach their user bases in the digital age. Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations explores a variety of important and useful topics in information organisations based on the author's marketing courses and his empirical studies on Australian academic librarians' perceptions of marketing services and resources. This book provides an introduction to marketing, the marketing process and marketing concepts, research, mix and branding and much more. Readers will learn strategic marketing, planning, implementation and evaluation, effective techniques for promoting services and resources and effective social media and Web 2.0 tools used to promote services and resources. Marketing Services and Resources in Information Organizations is survey based, theoretical and practical. The advanced statistical techniques used in this book distinguish the findings from other survey research products in the marketing field and will be useful to practitioners when they consider their own marketing strategies. This book provides administrators, practitioners, instructors and students at all levels with effective marketing techniques, approaches and strategies as it looks at marketing from multiple perspectives.

Dr Zhixian George Yi is a Leadership Specialization Coordinator and Ph.D. supervisor in the School of Information Studies at Charles Sturt University, Australia. He received a doctorate in information and library sciences and a Ph.D. minor in educational leadership from Texas Woman's University and he was awarded his master's degree in information science from Southern Connecticut State University. In 2009, he was awarded the Eugene Garfield Doctoral Dissertation Fellowship from Beta Phi Mu, the International Library and Information Studies Honor Society. He was selected for inclusion into Who's Who in America in 2010. Examines effective marketing techniques, approaches and strategies. Studies marketing from multiple perspectives. Empirical based, theoretical and practical. Systematic and comprehensive.
