Huang, 1999-11-30 Huang's book analyzes the major Neo Confucian philosophers from the eleventh to the sixteenth centuries. Focusing on metaphysical, epistemological, and ethical philosophical issues, this study presents the historical development of the Neo Confucian school as an outgrowth of ancient Confucianism and characterizes its thought background and influence. Key concepts, for example, Utai (supreme ultimate), Uxin (mind), and Uren (humanity) as interpreted by each thinker are discussed in detail. Also examined are the two major schools that developed during this period: Cheng Zhu School of Principle and Lu Wang School of Mind. These schools, despite different philosophical orientations, were convinced that their common goal to bring about a harmonious relationship between man and the universe and between man and man could be achieved through different ways of philosophizing. To understand the Chinese mind, it is necessary to understand Neo Confucianism as a reformation of early Confucianism. This analytical presentation of major Neo Confucian philosophers from the eleventh to the sixteenth centuries examines Zhou Dun yi (1017-1073), Shao Yong (1011-1077), Zhang Zai (1020-1077), Cheng Hao (1032-1085), Cheng Yi (1033-1107), Zhu Xi (1130-1200), Lu Xiang shan (1139-1193), and Wang Yang ming (1427-1529). With its focus on metaphysical, epistemological, and ethical philosophical issues, Huang's study presents the historical development of the Neo Confucian school as an outgrowth of ancient Confucianism and characterizes its thought background and influence. Key concepts, for example, Utai (supreme ultimate), Uxin (mind), and Uren (humanity) as interpreted by each thinker are discussed in detail. The two major schools that developed during these six centuries are examined as well. Lu Wang School of Mind developed in criticism of Cheng Zhu School of Principle. The two schools, despite different approaches toward their philosophical pursuits, were convinced that their common goals to bring about harmonious relationships between man and the universe and between man and man could be achieved through different ways of philosophizing. To understand the Chinese mind, it is necessary to understand Neo Confucianism as a reformation of early Confucianism. Scholars of Eastern religions and philosophy will appreciate the objective interpretations of each thinker's philosophy for which pertinent passages spoken by each man have been selected and translated by the author from the original Chinese and the comparisons of the Neo Confucian philosophies with those of the West. An introduction provides the historical background in which to study the rise of Neo Confucianism. The study is organized chronologically and includes a glossary of terms and a bibliography which serves as a helpful guide for further research.
