George Nelson Compact Design Portfolio:

George Nelson Michael Webb, George Nelson, Marisa Bartolucci, 2003-04 The Nelson office worked on the cutting edge of design and put to practical use their work in the 1959 American National Exhibition in Moscow a triumph of technology and enlightened public relations at the height of the Cold War Nelson himself pioneered the pedestrian shopping mall developed a revolutionary concept of storage and pushed the envelope on residential design He collaborated with some of the foremost designers of his era including Charles and Ray Eames Alexander Girard Isamu Noguchi and Buckminster Fuller With an abundance of images and an insightful essay by design critic Michael Webb Compact Design Portfolio George Nelson celebrates this inclusive genius of classic mid twentieth century design BOOK JACKET Michael Graves: Compact Design Portfolio Julie V. Iovine, Marisa Bartolucci, 2002 A leading designer of the 20th century is profiled in this book that defies the idea that design is inaccessible Contains an introductory essay addressing Michael Graves life plus photos of his work in color and b w The Prefabricated Interior Deborah Schneiderman, 2024-11-12 Though much attention has been given to the prefabrication of architecture there has been little discussion on the influence and importance of prefabrication within the interior environment This book does just that providing a comprehensive investigation into the prefab interior from the 19th century to the present and beyond Each chapter focuses on a typology of the prefabricated interior looking at the bathroom kitchen workspace furniture mobile interiors the prefab house textiles wearables and the digital realm of printed interiors Taken as a group these chapters and illustrations indicate that constructs of the interior have been pivotal in the generation of techniques and processes of prefabrication in architecture and the built environment Chapters explore a diverse range of examples of innovative prefabricated elements and assemblages within interior environments illustrating the inherent sustainability accessibility building efficiency and affordability of prefabricated design The culmination of a decade of research by the leading expert on the topic this will be the go to resource on prefabricated interiors and an important read for all students and researchers in interior design Deconstructing Product Design William Lidwell, Gerry Manacsa, 2011-10 What makes a product successful How it looks The way it functions Its ease of use Or do factors like price and marketing dominate In a quest to find answers to these questions Deconstructing Product Design engages readers in a process of critically analyzing a diverse collection of 100 innovative products from well known classics to contemporary objects of desire The goal is to support critical thinking about design facilitate discovery of patterns of success and failure across products and enable readers to apply lessons learned to their own design work Experts from multiples design disciplines contribute commentary including Robert Blaich industrial design Jill Butler graphic design Alan Cooper technology design Brock Danner architecture Kimberly Elam graphic design Donald Emmite design history Larimie Garcia graphic arts Scott Henderson product design Kritina Holden human factors Robert Kingslyn graphic design Jon Kolko interaction design Lyle Sandler experience design Rob Tannen human factors Dori Tunstall Design Anthropology Steven

Kroeter, 2003 Dwell, 2006-02 At Dwell we're staging a minor revolution We think that it's possible to live in a house or apartment by a bold modern architect to own furniture and products that are exceptionally well designed and still be a regular human being We think that good design is an integral part of real life And that real life has been conspicuous by its absence in most design and architecture magazines

Architecture, 2003-07 Inside Prefab Deborah Schneiderman, 2012 As an inherently sustainable and affordable building method prefabrication has enjoyed a revival in recent years attracting clients and architects alike Low construction costs efficiency and sustainability make prefabrication an attractive solution for contemporary interior designers Off site production for interior design elements has been the norm for centuries from the first Asian paper screens to the packaged kitchens of the mid twentieth century but it has rarely been the topic of serious discussion In Inside Prefab author Deborah Schneiderman offers a fascinating history of prefabricated interior design followed by twenty four contemporary case studies The richly illustrated examples in this book range from interior walls kitchens bathrooms furniture and offices to complete prefabricated house interiors This first book length discussion and showcase of the prefabricated interior environment includes projects by established architects such as Shigeru Ban Atelier Tekuto and Greg Lynn as well as up and coming firms

The Housing Project Gaia Caramellino, Stéphanie Dadour, 2020-03-03 Throughout the twentieth century housing displays have proven to be a singular genre of architectural and design exhibitions By crossing geographies and adopting multiple scales of observation from domestic space to urban visions this volume investigates a set of unexplored events devoted to housing and dwelling organised by technical professional cultural or governmental institutions from the interwar years to the Cold War The book offers a first critical assessment of twentieth century housing exhibits and explores the role of exhibitions in the codification of notions of domesticity social models policies and architectural and urban discourse At the intersection of housing studies and the history of exhibitions The Housing Project not only offers a novel angle on architectural history but also enriches scholarly perspectives in urban studies cultural and media history design and consumption studies This publication is GPRC labeled Guaranteed Peer Reviewed Content Contributors Tamara Bja i Klarin Gaia Caramellino John Crosse Stéphanie Dadour Rika Devos Freddie Flor Johanna Hartmann Erin McKellar Laetitia Overney Jos Parra Martine
