Georges Perec: A Life in Words David Bellos, 2010-11-30 It's hard to see how anyone is ever going to better this User's Manual to the life of Georges Perec Gilbert Adair Sunday Times Winner of the Prix Goncourt for Biography 1994 George Perec 1936-82 was one of the most significant European writers of the twentieth century and undoubtedly the most versatile and innovative writer of his generation David Bellos's comprehensive biography which also provides the first full survey of Perec's irreverent polymathic oeuvre explores the life of an anguished comical and endearingly modest man who worked quietly as an archivist in a medical research library. The French son of Jewish immigrants from Poland, he remained haunted all of his life by his father's death in the war fighting to defend France and his mother's in Auschwitz-Birkenau. His acclaimed novel A Void (1969), written without using the letter 'e', has been seen as an attempt to escape from the words 'pre-mere' and even George Perec. His career made an auspicious start with Things: A Story of the Sixties (1965) which won the Prix Renaudot. He then pursued an idiosyncratic and ambitious literary itinerary through the intellectual ferment of Paris in the 1960s and 1970s. He belonged to the Ouvroir de Littérature Potentielle (OuLiPo), a radically inventive group of writers whose members included Raymond Queneau and Italo Calvino. Perec achieved international celebrity with Life: A User's Manual (1978) which won the Prix Médicis and was voted Novel of the Decade by the Salon du Livre. He died in his mid-forties after a short illness, leaving a truly puzzling detective novel, 53 Days Incomplete. Professor Bellos's book enables us at once to relish the most wilfully bizarre aspects of Perec's oeuvre and to understand the whys and wherefores of his protean nature. Jonathan Romney, Literary Review: The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel, Karen L. Taylor, 2006.

French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses. This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century, with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization.

How to Do Things with Forms, Chris Andrews, 2022-09-15. The Oulipo (Ouvroir de littérature potentielle or Workshop for Potential Literature) is a literary think tank that brings together writers and mathematicians. Since 1960, its worldwide influence has refreshed ways of making and thinking about literature. How to Do Things with Forms assesses the work of the group, explores where it came from, and envisages its future. Redefining the Oulipo's key concept of the constraint in a clear and rigorous way, Chris Andrews weighs the roles of craft and imitation in the group's practice. He highlights the importance of translation for the Oulipo's writers, explaining how their new forms convey meanings and how these famously playful authors are also moved by serious concerns. Offering fresh interpretations of emblematic Oulipian works such as Georges Perec's Life: A User's Manual, Andrews also examines lesser-known texts by Jacques Roubaud, Anne F. Garréta, and Michelle Grangaud. How to Do Things with Forms addresses questions of interest to anyone involved in the making of literature, illuminating how writers decide when to stop revising, the risks and benefits of a project mentality in creative writing, and ways of holding a reader's interest for as long as possible. Review of Contemporary Fiction, 2004.

Anthropology in the Public Arena, Jeremy MacClancy, 2013-04-15. ANTHROPOLOGY IN THE PUBLIC ARENA. A critical insider, Jeremy MacClancy celebrates maverick anthropologists who transgressed academic frontiers and urges his colleagues to engage the public. This is an entertaining, original, and provocative book. Adam Kuper, Professor Emeritus, University of Cambridge. Jeremy MacClancy insightfully expands the history of anthropology beyond the confines of the academy showing us how a collection of poets popularizers critics surrealists neo Freudians and iconoclast savants shaped anthropology's imagination David Price St Martin's University Washington ANTHROPOLOGY IN THE PUBLIC ARENA This detailed survey of the evolution of anthropology in Britain is also a spirited defence of the public as well as professional role of the discipline The author argues for a broader vision of the value of anthropological knowledge that allows for the creative contributions of popular scientists and literary figures who often capture the public imagination and add much to our knowledge of human social relations Informed by original archival research and engaging narratives of the larger than life personalities of public intellectuals the author reveals the contributions of neglected but crucial figures such as John Layard Geoffrey Gorer Robert Graves and the originators of Mass Observation today's online repository of anthropological data MacClancy is guided by the notion that anthropology's continued dynamism requires an alliance of interests popular and academic that will recover marginalized studies and recognize the value of contributions from outside the university research community Its synthesis of diverse topics illuminates an anthropology that enriches the popular cultural discourse and serves as a versatile tool for exploring pressing issues of social organization and development The reframed narrative of British anthropological history that emerges is as integral to the future of the subject as it is informative about its past Georges Perec's Geographies Charles Forsdick, Andrew Leak, Richard Phillips, 2019-10-14 Georges Perec novelist filmmaker and essayist was one of the most inventive and original writers of the twentieth century A fascinating aspect of his work is its intrinsically geographical nature With major projects on space and place Perec's writing speaks to a variety of geographical urban and architectural concerns both in a substantive way including a focus on cities streets homes and apartments and in a methodological way experimenting with methods of urban exploration and observation classification enumeration and taxonomy Amir Sjarifoeddin Rudolf Mrázek, 2024-10-15 Amir Sjarifoeddin explores the experiences of a central figure in the Indonesian revolution whose life mirrored the idealism and contradictions of the anti colonial and post war world of twentieth century Indonesia Amir was born at the edge of an empire in a time of change Imprisoned by the Dutch for anti colonialism he was sentenced to death by the Japanese for anti fascism He survived to become the prime minister of the new Indonesian republic Disappointed by the direction the Indonesian elites were taking Amir turned increasingly to the left In 1948 he joined the armed uprising against both the Indonesian government and the corruption of the national revolution and was captured and executed as a traitor In Amir Sjarifoeddin Rudolf Mr zek unveils the human dimensions of a figure who is widely mythologized but often poorly understood Through Sjarifoeddin's life it is possible to study the moral ambiguity and complexities of the political revolutions of the twentieth century iMedia Sarah Kember, 2016-04-05 What can queer feminist writing strategies such as parody and irony do to outsmart the sexism of smart objects environments and materials and open out the new dialecticism of structure and scale critique and creativity Drawing on science and technology studies and feminist theory this book examines the gendering of current and future media technologies such as smart phones Google glass robot nurses tablets and face recognition Kember argues that there is a tendency to affirm and celebrate the existence of smart and often sexist objects environments and materials in themselves to elide writing and other forms of mediation and to engage in disembodied knowledge practices Disembodied knowledge practices tend towards a scientism that currently includes physics envy and are also masculinist Where there is some degree of convergence between masculinist and feminist thinking about objects environments and materials there is also divergence conflict and the possible opening towards a politics of imedia Presenting a lively manifesto for refiguring imedia this book forms an often neglected gender critique of developments in smart technologies and will be essential reading for scholars in Communication Studies Cultural and Media Science and Technology and Feminism Encyclopaedism and Totality in Contemporary Fiction Kiron

Ward, 2025-01-09 Taking as key examples work by Don DeLillo Leslie Marmon Silko Roberto Bola o and Karen Tei Yamashita this book looks at engagements with encyclopaedic thought and practice in contemporary fiction Chapters provide important new insights into the new ways that authors approach reclaim and use totality as a method for approaching the contemporary rather than an object to be represented In this we find some of the most radical and challenging attempts in recent fiction to reimagine our world on the back of a contested history and in the face of an unstable future Where major studies of literary encyclopaedism have historically tended to draw from the canon this book looks to move beyond this tradition and pays particular attention to work from Indigenous Asian American and Latin American contexts In doing so it looks to address the challenges of reading world literature in the contemporary Interventions 2020 Michel

Houellebecq, 2022-03-02 The death of God in the West was the prelude to a formidable metaphysical soap opera that continues to this day Christianity's masterstroke was to combine a fierce belief in the individual with the promise of eternal participation in the Absolute When that dream evaporated various attempts were made to offer the individual a minimum of being The latest of these attempts is advertising which seeks to arouse desire and transform the subject into a docile phantom doomed to follow advertising's every whim But like all previous attempts this skin deep superficial participation in the world fails and unhappiness and depression continue to spread However we can all produce a cold revolution in ourselves by stepping outside the flow of information and advertising We need to take some time out unplug the television turn off our iPhones stop buying stuff stop wanting to buy stuff temporarily detach ourselves and adopt an aesthetic attitude to the world We just need to stay still for a few seconds This is one of the key themes developed by Michel Houellebecq in this collection of his texts and interviews from the last three decades Here he explains and elaborates his point of view discusses his novels and addresses a wide range of topics from politics religion and literature to suicide euthanasia and paedophilia An indispensable book for anyone interested in the work of one of the most widely read and controversial novelists of our time

Barbara Hepworth Rachel Whiteread and others These non architect practitioners she argues show that error need not be excluded and precision can be made accountable

Bion in Film Theory and Analysis Carla Ambrósio Garcia,2016-12-01

In Bion in Film Theory and Analysis The Retreat in Film Carla Ambrósio Garcia introduces the rich potential of the thinking of British psychoanalyst Wilfred Bion for film theory By so doing she rethinks the space of the cinema as a space of retreat and brings new insights into the representation of retreat in film Presented in two parts the book seeks to deepen our understanding of the film experience and psychical growth Part I places Bion's view on the importance of the epistemophilic instinct at the heart of a critique of the pleasure centred theories of the cinematic apparatus of Jean Louis Baudry Christian Metz and Gaylyn Studlar proposing an idea of cinema as thoughts in search of a thinker Garcia then moves from Bion's epistemological period to his later work which draws on mysticism in order to posit an emotional experience in the cinema through which the subject can be or become real or at one with O Part II examines representations of retreat in four European films directed by Ingmar Bergman Pier Paolo Pasolini Georges Perec and Bernard Queysanne and Manoel de Oliveira showing them to articulate a gesture of retreat as an emotionally turbulent transitional stage in the development of the psyche what Bion conceptualizes as caesura Through its investigation of the retreat in cinema the book challenges common understandings of retreat as a regressive movement by presenting it as a gesture and space that can also be future oriented Bion in Film Theory and Analysis will be of significant interest to academics and students of psychoanalysis psychotherapy and film and media studies as well as psychoanalysts and psychotherapists

Mind Works Antonino Ferro,2014-05-12

Is the analyst's mind a factor in the analytic process In Mind Works Antonino Ferro uses clinical material such as detailed reports of sessions together with client's analytic histories to develop Bion's original findings and illustrate complex concepts in the field of psychoanalytic technique These concepts include interpretive modalities the end of analysis psychosomatic pathologies narcissism Mind Works Technique and Creativity in Psychoanalysis also suggests that dreaming is a fundamental moment in analytic work and Ferro discusses how dreams can go beyond the present to become a continuous act of the mind in the waking state allowing internal and external stimuli to be transformed into thoughts and emotions Focusing on how the minds of the analyst and the analysand work in psychoanalysis this book will appeal to psychoanalysts psychotherapists and psychiatrists and will be helpful in psychoanalytic and psychotherapeutic work on a day to day basis

Landscapes of Realism Svend Erik Larsen,Steen Bille Jørgensen,Margaret R. Higonnet,2022-03-15

Few literary phenomena are as elusive and yet as persistent as realism While it responds to the perennial impulse to use literature to reflect on experience it also designates a specific set of literary and artistic practices that emerged in response to Western modernity Landscapes of Realism is a two volume collaborative interdisciplinary investigation of this vast territory bringing together leading edge new criticism on the realist paradigms that were first articulated in nineteenth century Europe but have since gone on globally to transform the literary landscape Tracing the manifold ways in which these paradigms are developed discussed and contested across time space cultures and media this second volume shows in its four core essays and twenty four case studies four major pathways through the landscapes of realism The psychological pathways focusing on emotion and memory the referential pathways highlighting the role of materiality the formal pathways demonstrating the dynamics of formal experiments and the geographical pathways exploring the worlding of realism through the encounters between European and non European languages from the nineteenth century to the present This volume is part of a book set which can be ordered at a special discount Italian Literature since 1900 in English Translation 1929-2016 Robin Healey,2019-03-07 Providing the most complete record possible of texts by Italian writers active after 1900 this annotated bibliography covers over 4 800 distinct editions of writings by some 1 700 Italian authors Many entries are accompanied by useful notes that provide information on the authors works translators and the reception of the translations This book includes the works of Pirandello Calvino Eco and more recently Andrea Camilleri and Valerio Manfredi Together with Robin Healey s Italian Literature before 1900 in English Translation also published by University of Toronto Press in 2011 this volume makes comprehensive information on translations from Italian accessible for schools libraries and those interested in comparative literature
