A Message to the Children Jim Williams, 2021 Those who come after us will want to know we really lived and loved as intensely as they do Tell them WHO ARE YOU WHY DO YOU ACT THE WAY THAT YOU DO These questions capture the essential things we want to know about ourselves and explain to others Yet so often we fail to do so Instead many of us spend a great deal of effort researching the history of our ancestors to discover no more than the fact that they were workmen servants and grocers of whom we can learn next to nothing If only they had written the story of their lives A Message to the Children is a book with a difference an account of the author s life a memoir to his children a love letter to his wife and a guide to how you too can write about your own life Written in an easy and amusing style it explains for the benefit of the non writer such subjects as how to break the task down into manageable sections how to exploit photographs and scrapbooks for materials and what themes to write about Then it applies those lessons in a way that will both touch and entertain you Jim Williams is a Booker nominated author of thirteen novels and two works of non fiction

Visual Writing Alex Baratta, 2010-07-12 Considering the fact that the academic essay continues to be widely used as an assessment tool within education there is a need for students to develop their skills in this area However it is often the case that students perceive instruction in academic writing if it is offered at all as boring This book addresses these two issues First the book can be used by students themselves even in the absence of academic writing classes as a self help guide from which they can develop their knowledge of academic writing and subsequent proficiency Second by discussing the components of academic writing in terms such as film which are familiar to today's generation students are enabled to relate to the material better and see what might have been perceived as dull from a brand new perspective Visual learners in particular will enjoy the analogous link between films and essays and students today are arguably more visually literate than previous generations being exposed to visuals on a daily basis through text message iconography computer games and the Internet The visual instruction provided in turn helps to facilitate mental visuals in students minds from which their knowledge of essay writing can start to develop

You Don't Know What It's Like Barbara Cunningham, 2011-06-01 Description Following a drunken violent attack by her husband, Barbara Cunningham grabs her two children and flees the family home. To her, this will draw a line under the most difficult part of her life; it will bring to an end living in fear for she always knew that one day her alcoholic husband would attack her. Things can only get better, the song says, but for her and her children, David 5 and Louise 2, life gets harder and harder. Living in abject poverty, fighting periods of dark depression, yet displaying an air of confidence and coping, Barbara finds sleep impossible. She turns to the bottle for uncritical support until one morning she walks her children to school in a drunken haze. Whilst crossing the road, the three narrowly escape injury when a car swerves to miss them. From that point on, Barbara fights to turn life around for herself and her children. She takes on anyone who dares stand in the way of her children having every opportunity other children take for granted. The desire to crawl out of the poverty trap and throw off the stigma of being a single mother living on benefits takes her and the children 200 miles North where she puts herself through University. At the same time, not wanting men in and out of her children's lives and not feeling able to commit to a relationship, she chooses a life of celibacy. This will last for 10 long years until her children are independent. Then, feeling like a born again virgin, Barbara explodes back into the world of men and dating, only to find that this world has changed and all the men of her age have turned into her father. About the Author My Mum, Barbara Cunningham, is a fabulous if at times slightly eccentric mother of a beautiful, witty, intelligent daughter and a ginger son. Educated at Keele University, she holds a dual honours Bachelor of Science degree in Psychology and Criminology as well as various slightly less orthodox qualifications including Culinary Arson Studies. With a career history that borders on chameleonic, her lines of work have included journalism, insurance broking, running a pub, being the life and soul of the staff party at the Keele University Nuffield Library, a surprisingly tall order, and most recently putting the youth of our nation on the straight and narrow as part of the Essex Youth Offending Team. A keen badminton and netball player, she even had a stint playing for and managing a netball team who while not perhaps being the most feared opponents in the land were nonetheless the envy of the Chelmsford league for being such a thoroughly nice bunch of girls Whilst this is her first literary publication she has high hopes of writing a host of Pulitzer Prize winners in the future Possible titles include The Carbon Cookbook and 100 Ways to Shut Your Daughter Up A Practical Guide to Domestic Serenity I might have never told her but now she can see it in print that I am one of her biggest fans I admire her for her endurance for her courage and for her strength I admire her for the care and guidance she gave to her offspring when she would have desperately needed someone to guide and care for her and I admire her for her selflessness and durability But most of all I admire her for never giving up and for giving so much love to those she loved even though she was so often deprived of it herself Mum you are really cool and I love you loads
