Essays on Heidegger and Others Richard Rorty, 1991 Richard Rorty's collected papers written during the 1980s and now published in two volumes take up some of the issues which divide Anglo Saxon analytic philosophers and contemporary French and German philosophers and offer something of a compromise agreeing with the latter in their criticisms of traditional notions of truth and objectivity but disagreeing with them over the political implications they draw from dropping traditional philosophical doctrines The second volume pursues the themes of the first volume in the context of discussions of recent European philosophy focusing on the work of Heidegger and Derrida Essays on Heidegger and Others: Volume 2 Richard Rorty, 1991-02-22 The second volume pursues the themes of the first volume in the context of discussions of recent European philosophy focusing on the work of Heidegger and Derrida His four essays on Heidegger include Philosophy as Science as Metaphor and as Politics and Heidegger Kundera and Dickens three essays on Derrida including Deconstruction and Circumvention and Is Derrida a Transcendental Philosopher are followed by a discussion of the uses to which Paul de Man and his followers have put certain Derridean ideas Rorty's concluding essays broaden outward with an essay on Freud and Moral Deliberation and essays discussing the social theories and political attitudes of various contemporary figures Foucault Lyotard Habermas Unger and Castoriadis Essays on Heidegger and Others Richard Rorty, 1991 Truth and Progress Richard Rorty, 1991 The volume complements two highly successful previously published volumes of Richard Rorty's philosophical papers Objectivity Relativism and Truth and Essays on Heidegger and Others The essays in the volume engage with the work of many of today's most innovative thinkers including Robert Brandom Donald Davidson Daniel Dennett Jacques Derrida Juergen Habermas John McDowell Hilary Putnam John Searle and Charles Taylor The collection also touches on problems in contemporary feminism raised by Annette Baier Marilyn Frye and Catherine MacKinnon and considers issues connected with human rights and cultural differences Cultural Conservatism, Political Liberalism James Seaton, 1996 Examines whether cultural studies has been too dismissive of the tradition of literary cultural criticism that preceded it Rorty, Public Reason, and Modernity's Crisis of Critique Ivan Marquez, 2024-11-12 Starting with Richard Rorty's critique of reason this book discusses modernity's legitimation crisis in political discourse Rorty Public Reason and Modernity's Crisis of Critique explores the contemporary crisis of rational justification and collective will formation in our current political institutions and the public sphere arguing that there is an array of untapped rational resources that should be deployed to justify social political and economic views agendas and programs It also identifies limits to the powers of public reason to generate rational agreement and collective will formation Using a critical analysis of Rorty's non foundationalist perspective as a vehicle to study modernity's project of rational critique Ivan Marquez highlights both the strengths and promise and the weaknesses and limitations of liberal and democratic societies especially within pluralistic socio cultural contexts and some possible ways to work within this space of possibilities and constraints Ultimately this book

Persuasion and Compulsion in Democracy Jacquelyn Kegley, Krzysztof Piotr Skowronski, 2013-01-25 This collection of essays focuses on the roles that coercion and persuasion should play in contemporary democratic political systems or societies A number of the authors advocate new approaches to this question offering various critiques of the dominant classical liberalism views of political justification freedom tolerance and the political subject A major concern is with the conversational character of democracy Given the problematic and ambiguous status of the many differences present in contemporary society the authors seek to alert us to the danger that an emphasis on reasonable consensus will conceal exclusion in practice of some contending positions The voices of vulnerable peoples can be unconsciously or even deliberately silenced by various institutional processes and operating procedures and a strong media influence can change the tenor of conversations and even lead to deception To counter these factors a number of the essays in differing ways urge the fostering of local community conversations or democratic agoras so that democratic debate and conversation might maintain the vitality necessary to a strong democratic system Exploring Education Through Phenomenology Gloria
