Essays In The Metaphysics Of Mind:

Essays in the Metaphysics of Mind Jaegwon Kim, 2010-10-21 Jaegwon Kim presents a selection of his essays from the last two decades. The volume includes three new essays on an agent centered first person account of action explanation, the concepts of realization and their bearings on the mind body problem and the nonexistence of laws in the special sciences. Among other topics covered are emergence and emergentism, the nature of explanation and of theories of explanation, reduction and reductive explanation, mental causation and explanatory exclusion. Kim tackles questions such as: How should we understand the concept of emergence and what are the prospects of emergentism as a doctrine about the status of minds? What does an agent centered first person account of explanation of human actions look like? Why aren't there strict laws in the special sciences? Sciences like biology, psychology and sociology. The essays will be accessible to attentive readers without an extensive philosophical background.

Having Thought John Haugeland, 2000-09-15 The unifying theme of these thirteen essays is understanding. Haugeland addresses mind and intelligence, intelligibility, analog and digital systems and supervenience, presuppositions about the foundational notions of intentionality and representation and the essential character of understanding in relation to what is understood.

Reason, Metaphysics, and Mind Kelly James Clark, Michael Rea, 2012-02-09 In May 2010 philosophers, family and friends gathered at the University of Notre Dame to celebrate the career and retirement of Alvin Plantinga, widely recognized as one of the world's leading figures in metaphysics, epistemology and the philosophy of religion. Plantinga has earned particular respect within the community of Christian philosophers for the pivotal role that he played in the recent renewal and development of philosophy of religion and philosophical theology. Each of the essays in this volume engages with some particular aspect of Plantinga's views on metaphysics, epistemology or philosophy of religion. Contributors include Michael Bergman, Ernest Sosa, Trenton Merricks, Richard Otte, Peter VanInwagen, Thomas P. Flint, Eleonore Stump, Dean Zimmerman and Nicholas Wolterstorff. The volume also includes responses to each essay by Bas van Fraassen, Stephen Wykstra, David VanderLaan, Robin Collins, Raymond VanArragon, E. J. Coffman, Thomas Crisp and Donald Smith.

Philosophy of Mind George Trumbull Ladd, 1905
Philosophy of Mind George Trumbull Ladd, 1983
Philosophy of Mind George Trumbull Ladd, 2015-06-02 Excerpt from Philosophy of Mind: An Essay in the Metaphysics of Psychology. This book is an essay in the speculative treatment of certain problems suggested but not usually discussed in the course of a thorough empirical study of mental phenomena. Inasmuch as these problems all relate to the real nature and actual performances and relations of the human mind, the essay may properly be called metaphysical. Let it be confessed then that the author comes forward with a treatise in metaphysics in the more special meaning of that term. I think however that in spite of the marked disfavor into which all metaphysics has fallen in certain quarters, no detailed apology for asking readers for such a treatise need be offered in its Preface. Indeed the first two chapters of the book are occupied in showing how inevitable is the demand which the science of psychology makes for a further philosophical discussion of all its principal problems If then this demand is not made perfectly clear by the more detailed discussion which follows it would be quite useless to put it forward unsupported at the beginning of my task in the hope of producing a favorable first impression upon reluctant intelligences As to the kind of metaphysics which it is designed to offer two or three preliminary remarks seem important And first of all it is to be open and undisguised About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works

Reason, Metaphysics, and Mind, 2012 Each of the essays in this volume engages with some particular aspect of philosopher Alvin Plantinga's views on metaphysics epistemology or philosophy of religion

Philosophy of Mind George Ladd, 2015-06-23 THIS book is an essay in the speculative treatment of certain problems suggested but not usually discussed in the course of a thorough empirical study of mental phenomena Inasmuch as these problems all relate to the real nature and actual performances and relations of the human mind the essay may properly be called metaphysical Let it be confessed then that the author comes forward with a treatise in metaphysics in the more special meaning of that term I think however that in spite of the marked disfavor into which all metaphysics has fallen in certain quarters no detailed apology for asking readers for such a treatise need be offered in its Preface Indeed the first two chapters of the book are occupied in showing how inevitable is the demand which the science of psychology makes for a further philosophical discussion of all its principal problems If then this demand is not made perfectly clear by the more detailed discussion which follows it would be quite use less to put it forward unsupported at the beginning of my task in the hope of producing a favorable first impression upon reluctant intelligences No one whose peace of mind is sure to be disturbed by any attempt however carried out at this form of reflective thinking should venture beyond the title page and table of contents of this volume On the other hand however I wish to be held responsible for two things which are required in order to entitle to respect every treatise of a similar character These are first the statement of the facts and laws scientifically established to which the speculative discussion constantly refers for its own grounds in experience And for metaphysics which has no foundations in incontestable experience I have as little respect as has any one But besides this constant appeal to facts and to laws empirically established sound reasoning is indispensable for the derivation of acceptable conclusions in any metaphysical enterprise Any reader or critic therefore who will point out violations of either of these two requirements will be entitled to grateful recognition for his service no less by the author than by the readers of this volume A few words concerning the relations which this book sustains to preceding works by the same author will be helpful for its better understanding In some sort the entire volume may be regarded as in continuation of a series of works I on psychology or the Science of mental phenomena This science which as a science is and ever must remain chiefly descriptive starts many inquiries regarding the real nature and relations to the external World

Philosophy Of Mind An Essay In The Metaphysics Of Psychology Georger Trumbull Ladd, 2023-07-18 In this groundbreaking work Ladd offers a new perspective on the nature of the mind drawing on the latest research in the field of psychology He argues that traditional views of the mind as a separate entity from the body are no longer tenable and proposes a new way of thinking about the relationship between the two This book is a must read for anyone interested in cutting edge research into the workings of the human mind This work has been selected by scholars as being culturally important and is part of the knowledge base of civilization as we know it This work is in the public domain in the United States of America and possibly other nations Within the United States you may freely copy and distribute this work as no entity individual or corporate has a copyright on the body of the work Scholars believe and we concur that this work is important enough to be preserved reproduced and made generally available to the public We appreciate your support of the preservation process and thank you for being an important part of keeping this knowledge alive and relevant

Identity, Cause, and Mind Sydney Shoemaker, 2003 This is an expanded edition of Sydney Shoemaker's seminal collection of his work on interrelated issues in the philosophy of mind and metaphysics It reproduces all of the original papers many of which are now regarded as classics and includes four papers published since the first edition appeared in 1984 Themes include the nature of self knowledge and self reference personal identity persistence over time properties mental states and perceptual experience A number of the papers including Self Reference and Self Awareness Persons and Their Pasts Causality and Properties and The Inverted Spectrum have remained at the centre of discussion of their topics Several of the essays in the original collection discuss the ways in which causal considerations enter into the individuation of properties and three of the added essays Causal and Metaphysical Necessity Realization and Mental Causation and On What There Are deal with related themes The neo Lockean view of personal identity presented in Persons and Their Pasts is developed with a different emphasis in the added paper Self and Substance Identity Cause and Mind's reappearance will be warmly welcomed by scholars and students alike

The Realm of Mind Frederick James Eugene Woodbridge, 1926 Looks at the mind as a logical structure of existence and that our thinking as individuals is a bodily activity congruent with that structure

Boundaries of the Mind Robert A. Wilson, 2004-06-28 Where does the mind begin and end Most philosophers and cognitive scientists take the view that the mind is bounded by the skull or skin of the individual Robert Wilson in this provocative and challenging new book provides the foundations for the view that the mind extends beyond the boundary of the individual Written with verve and clarity this ambitious book will appeal to a broad swathe of professionals and students in philosophy psychology cognitive science and the history of the behavioral and human sciences

main topics of metaphysics in its first section formal objects and truth makers tropes properties and predicates varieties of relations and the notion of explanation in metaphysics The second part of this volume focuses on the history of philosophy with an emphasis on Austrian philosophy the ideas of Bolzano Wittgenstein Locke and Bergson amongst others are explored in the papers presented here This is the first volume in a two volume set that originates from papers presented to Professor Kevin Mulligan covering the subjects that he contributed to during his career including ontology mind and value history and philosophy of mind and philosophy of language This volume contains thirty two chapters written by researchers from across Europe North America and North Africa These papers cover topics in metaphysics ranging from Lehrer and Tolliver s discussion of truth and tropes to Johansson s defence of the distinction between thick and thin relations and Persson and Sahlin s presentation of the difficulties inherent in applying the concept of explanation in metaphysics Papers on the history of philosophy include a look at Bolzano s formative years and his conception of mathematics De Libera examines Brentano s adverbial theory of judgment and Fisette traces the history of the Philosophical Society of the University of Vienna in the late 19th and early 20th century Marion contests the trendy pragmatist accounts that lump Wittgenstein and Heidegger together and there are analyses of Locke and Bergson s work amongst the many papers presented here This volume contains three chapters in French and one in Spanish The second volume of this set looks at ethics values and emotions epistemology perception and consciousness as well as philosophy of mind and philosophy of language

Mind, Values, and Metaphysics Anne Reboul, 2014-08-06 There are three themed parts to this book values ethics and emotions in the first part epistemology perception and consciousness in the second part and philosophy of mind and philosophy of language in the third part Papers in this volume provide links between emotions and values and explore dependency between language meanings and concepts and topics such as the liar s paradox reference and metaphor are examined This book is the second of a two volume set that originates in papers presented to Professor Kevin Mulligan covering the subjects that he contributed to during his career This volume opens with a paper by Moya who proposes that there is an asymmetrical relation between the possibility of choice and moral responsibility The first part of this volume ends with a description of foolishness as insensitivity to the values of knowledge by Engel Marconi s article makes three negative claims about relative truth and Sundholm notes shortcomings of the English language for epistemology amongst other papers This section ends with a discussion of the term subjective character by Nida R melin who finds it misleading The third part of this volume contains papers exploring topics such as the mind body problem whether theory of mind is based on simulation or theory and K nne shows that the most common analyses of the so called Liar paradox are wanting At the end of this section Rizzi introduces syntactic cartography and illustrates its use in scope discourse semantics This second volume contains twenty nine chapters written by both high profile and upcoming researchers from across Europe North America and North Africa The first volume of this set has two main themes metaphysics especially truth making and the notion of explanation and the second theme is the history of philosophy with an emphasis on Austrian philosophy Causality and Mind Nicholas Jolley,2013-11 This text presents 17 of Nicholas Jolley s essays on early modern philosophy They focus on two main themes the debate over the nature of causality and the issues posed by Descartes innovations in the philosophy of mind Together they show that philosophers in the period are systematic critics of their contemporaries and predecessors Supervenience and Mind Jaegwon Kim,1993-11-26 This collection of essays presents the core of the work of influential philosopher Jaegwon Kim

Content, Consciousness, and Perception Conor McHugh,Ezio Di Nucci,2009-01-14 What sort of thing is the mind And how can such a thing at the same time belong to the natural world represent the world give rise to our subjective experience and ground human knowledge Content Consciousness and Perception is an edited collection comprising eleven new contributions to the philosophy of mind written by some of the most promising young philosophers in the UK and Ireland The book is arranged into three parts Part I Concepts and Mental Content which begins with an attack by Hans Johann Glock on the representational theory of mind addresses the nature of mental representation Part II Consciousness and the Metaphysics of Mind concerns the prospects for a naturalistic metaphysics of the conscious mind Finally Part III entitled Perception pursues the project of giving a satisfactory philosophical account of perceptual experience The book begins with an introductory essay by the editors which provides an overview of the state of contemporary philosophy of mind locating the articles to follow within that context The individual chapters of Content Consciousness and Perception are professional contributions to their respective areas of interest to any philosopher of mind The volume as a whole is ideal for non specialists and students interested in getting to grips with the state of the art in contemporary philosophy of mind Mind, Meaning, and Reality D. H. Mellor,2012-08-30 Mind Meaning and Reality contains fifteen philosophical papers by D H Mellor including a new defence of success semantics and an introduction arguing that metaphysics can and need only be justified by doing it and not by a meta metaphysics which it needs no more than physics needs metaphysics The papers are grouped into three parts Part I is about how the ways we are disposed to act fix both what we believe and what we use language to mean Part II is about what there is the reality of dispositions what makes beliefs and sentences true why there is only one universe and how social groups and other things composed of parts are related to the people and other things that constitute them Part III is about time and includes discussions of twentieth century developments in the philosophy of time why Kant was right about tense even though he was wrong about time why forward time travel is trivial and backward time travel impossible and what gives time its direction Idealism Tyron Goldschmidt,Kenneth L. Pearce,2017 Idealism is a family of metaphysical views each of which gives priority to the mental The best known forms of idealism in Western philosophy are Berkeleyan idealism which gives ontological priority to the mental minds and ideas over the physical bodies and Kantian idealism which gives a kind of explanatory priority to the mental the structure of the understanding over the physical the structure of the empirical world Although idealism was once a dominant view in Western philosophy it has suffered almost total neglect over the last several decades This book rectifies this situation by bringing together seventeen essays by leading philosophers on the topic of metaphysical idealism The various essays explain attack or defend a variety of idealistic theories including not only Berkeleyan and Kantian idealisms but also those developed in traditions less familiar to analytic philosophers including Buddhism and Hassidic Judaism Although a number of the articles draw on historical sources all will be of interest to philosophers working in contemporary metaphysics This volume aims to spark a revival of serious philosophical interest in metaphysical idealism
