The Higher Education of Women in England and

America, 1865-1920 Elizabeth Seymour Eschbach, 2016-11-18 This study first published in 1993 traces the path of women toward intellectual emancipation from eighteenth century precedents through the hard won access to college education in the nineteenth century to the triumphs of the early 1900s The author compares women's experiences in both the US and

England and will be of interest to students of history education and gender studies

In Pursuit of Beauty Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),1986 This project is the first comprehensive study of a phenomenon that not only dominated the American arts of the 1870s and 1880s but also helped set the course of such later developments in the United States as the Arts and Crafts movement the indigenous interpretation of Art Nouveau and even the rise of modernism In fact the early history of the Metropolitan its founding its sponsorship of a school of industrial design and its display of decorative works is inextricably tied to the Aesthetic movement and its educational goals In Pursuit of Beauty Americans and the Aesthetic Movement comprised some 175 objects including furniture metalwork stained glass ceramics textiles wallpaper painting and sculpture Some of these had rarely been displayed others although familiar were being shown in new and even startling contexts The exhibition and catalogue are arranged thematically to illustrate both the major styles of a visually rich movement and the ideas that generated its diversity From publisher s description Women's Periodicals and Print Culture in Britain, 1918-1939 Catherine Clay,2017-11-22 This collection of new essays recovers and explores a neglected archive of women s print media and dispels the myth of the interwar decades as a retreat to home and duty for women
