The Killing of Osama Bin Laden Seymour M. Hersh, 2016-04-12 An electrifying investigation of the White House lies about the assassination of Osama bin Laden from a Pulitzer Prize winner hailed as the greatest investigative journalist of his era New Yorker An explosive account Los Angeles Times In 2011 an elite group of US Navy SEALs stormed an enclosure in the Pakistani city of Abbottabad and killed Osama bin Laden the man the United States had begun chasing before the devastating attacks of 9 11 The news did much to boost President Obama's first term and played a major part in his reelection victory of the following year But much of the story of that night as presented to the world was incomplete or a lie The evidence of what actually went on remains hidden At the same time the full story of the United States involvement in the Syrian civil war has been kept behind a diplomatic curtain concealed by doublespeak It is a policy of obfuscation that has compelled the White House to turn a blind eye to Turkey's involvement in supporting ISIS and its predecessors in Syria This investigation which began as a series of essays in the London Review of Books has ignited a firestorm of controversy in the world media In his introduction Hersh asks what will be the legacy of Obama's time in office Was it an era of change we can believe in or a season of lies and compromises that continued George W Bush's misconceived War on Terror How did he lose the confidence of the general in charge of America's forces who acted in direct contradiction to the White House What else do we not know

Manhunt Peter L. Bergen, 2013-04-30 NOW AN HBO DOCUMENTARY In Manhunt Peter Bergen delivers a taut yet panoramic account of the pursuit and killing of Osama bin Laden Here are riveting new details of bin Laden's flight after the crushing defeat of the Taliban to Tora Bora where American forces came startlingly close to capturing him and of the fugitive leader's attempts to find a secure hiding place As the only journalist to gain access to bin Laden's Abbottabad compound before the Pakistani government demolished it Bergen paints a vivid picture of bin Laden's grim Spartan life in hiding and his struggle to maintain control of al Qaeda Half a world away Bergen takes us inside the Situation Room where President Obama considers the courses of action presented by his war council and receives conflicting advice from his top advisors before deciding to risk the raid that would change history and then inside the Joint Special Ops Command whose secret warriors the SEALs would execute Operation Neptune Spear From the moment two Black Hawks take off from Afghanistan until bin Laden utters his last words Manhunt reads like a thriller
