Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Advancing Trinitarian Theology Zondervan,2014-11-04 An Exploration of Different Issues in the Doctrine of the Trinity Throughout the last century theologians gave great attention to the doctrine of the Trinity and they largely succeeded in restoring it to a central place in Christian thought But as they highlighted the novelty of the revolutionary new trinitarianism a number of generalizations crept into the discussion that requires a careful reevaluation of the classical tradition Trinitarian Theology the subject of the second annual Los Angeles Theology Conference sought to make constructive progress in the doctrine of the Trinity by aligning the trinitarian revival with the ongoing task of retrieving the classical doctrine of the Trinity The nine diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Ways to clarify the doctrine of the Trinity without sacrificing its essential mystery The ways in which trinitarian theology applies practically to the Christian life and mission Highlighting the counter revolutionary trends in the most recent trinitarian thought Discourse on the role Karl Barth played in advancing trinitarian thought Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future The Christian Doctrine of Humanity Zondervan, 2018-11-06 Engaging with the Complex Subject of Theological Anthropology Theological anthropology is a complicated doctrinal subject that needs to be elaborated with careful attention to its relation to other major doctrines Among other things it must confess the glory and misery of humanity from creation in the image of God to the fall into a state of sin It must reckon with a holism that spans distinctions between body soul and spirit and a unity that encompasses male and female as well as racial and cultural difference The Christian Doctrine of Humanity represents the proceedings of the sixth annual Los Angeles Theology Conference which sought constructively and comprehensively to engage the task of theological anthropology The twelve diverse essays in this collection include discussions on Human thought and the image of God The relevance of biblical eschatology for philosophical anthropology Living and flourishing in the Spirit Vocation and the oddness of human nature Each of the essays collected in this volume engage with Scripture as well as with others in the field theologians both past and present from different confessions in order to provide constructive resources for contemporary systematic theology and to forge a theology for the future The Third Person of the Trinity: Explorations in Constructive Dogmatics Fred Sanders, Zondervan, 2020-12 The 2020 Los Angeles Theology Conference examined pneumatology as a core component of the doctrine of the Trinity Conference contributions sought to offer constructive proposals for understanding the Holy Spirit with theological and historical depth ecumenical scope and analytic clarity This book represents the proceedings of the conference Subject Guide to Books in Print, 2001 Retrieving Eternal Generation Fred Sanders, Scott R. Swain, 2017-11-21 Although the doctrine of eternal generation has been affirmed by theologians of nearly every ecclesiastical tradition since the fourth century it has fallen on hard times among evangelical theologians since the nineteenth century The doctrine has been a structural element in two larger doctrinal complexes Christology and the Trinity The neglect of the doctrine of eternal generation represents a great loss for constructive evangelical Trinitarian theology Retrieving the doctrine of eternal generation for contemporary evangelical theology calls for a multifaceted approach Retrieving Eternal Generation addresses 1 the hermeneutical logic and biblical bases of the doctrine of eternal generation 2 key historical figures and moments in the development of the doctrine of eternal generation and 3 the broad dogmatic significance of the doctrine of eternal generation for theology The book addresses both the common modern objections to the doctrine of eternal generation and presents the productive import of the doctrine for twenty first century evangelical theology Contributors include Michael Allen Lewis Ayres D A Carson Oliver Crisp and more Christology, Ancient and Modern Oliver Crisp, Fred Sanders, 2013 A Fresh Look at the Doctrine of Christ Essential for Modern Theological Work Christology was the central doctrine articulated by the early church councils and it remains the subject of vigorous theological investigation today The study of the doctrine of Christ is a field of broad ecumenical convergence inviting theologians from all denominational settings to fruitful collaborative exploration In the contemporary setting it is especially crucial for theologians to investigate
