Doing the Time Warp Sarah Taylor Ellis, 2022-01-27 Doing the Time Warp explores how song and dance sites of aesthetic difference in the musical can warp time and enable marginalized and semi marginalized fans to imagine different ways of being in the world While the musical is a bastion of mainstream theatrical culture it also supports a fan culture of outsiders who dream themselves into being in the strange liminal timespaces of its musical numbers Through analysing musicals of stage and screen ranging from Rent to Ragtime Glee to Taylor Mac's A 24 Decade History of Popular Music Sarah Taylor Ellis investigates how alienated subjects find moments of coherence and connection in musical theatre's imaginaries of song and dance Exploring an array of archival work and live performance such as Larry Gelbart's papers in the UCLA Performing Arts Collections and the shadowcast performances of Los Angeles's Sins o the Flesh Doing the Time Warp probes the politics of musicals and consider show the genre's strange temporalities can point towards new futurities for identities and communities in difference EBOOK: Introduction to Mass Communication: Media Literacy and Culture

BARAN, STANLEY, 2011-02-16 EBOOK Introduction to Mass Communication Media Literacy and Culture How Television Invented New Media Sheila C. Murphy, 2011-03-17 Now if I just remembered where I put that original TV play device the universal remote control Television is a global industry a medium of representation an architectural component of space and a nearly universal frame of reference for viewers Yet it is also an abstraction and an often misunderstood science whose critical influence on the development history and diffusion of new media has been both minimized and overlooked How Television Invented New Media adjusts the picture of television culturally while providing a corrective history of new media studies itself Personal computers video game systems even iPods and the Internet built upon and borrowed from television to become viable forms The earliest personal computers disguised as video games using TV sets as monitors provided a case study for television's key role in the emergence of digital interactive devices Sheila C Murphy analyzes how specific technologies emerge and how representations from South Park to Dr Horrible's Sing Along Blog mine the history of television just as they converge with new methods of the making and circulation of images Past and failed attempts to link television to computers and the Web also indicate how services like Hulu or Netflix On Demand can give rise to a new era for entertainment and program viewing online In these concrete ways television's role in new and emerging media is solidified and finally recognized
