The Report: Nigeria 2013 Oxford Business Group, 2013-12-04 As the single most populous nation in Africa Nigeria recently overtook South Africa as the largest economy on the continent Natural resources oil and gas in particular comprise the country's single largest revenue earner but the 170m person economy also has seen significant activity in recent years into the industrial financial telecoms and as of 2013 power sectors Hydrocarbons reserves have traditionally attracted the vast majority of domestic and foreign investment in Nigeria Oil production capacity has remained at roughly 2.5m barrels per day bpd since the start of 2000 although output fell to 2.2m bpd on average in 2012 Still the country has long operated below its true potential and government efforts in recent years have sought to increase local value addition by boosting refining capacity and minimising theft and bunkering The country's banking sector has been through a significant shake up as well resulting in a far healthier and more robust financial industry while reforms in the telecoms and agricultural sectors have strengthened medium term prospects Brandfaces, 2007 Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena Onyebadi, Uche T., 2019-01-15 Political campaigning affects numerous realms under the communication umbrella with each channel seeking to influence as many individuals as possible In higher education there is a growing scholarly interest in communication issues and subjects especially on the role of music in the political arena Music and Messaging in the African Political Arena provides innovative insights into providing music and songs as an integral part of sending political messages to a broader spectrum of audiences especially during political campaigns The content within this publication covers such topics as framing theory national identity and ethnic politics and is designed for politicians campaign managers political communication scholars researchers and students Focus On: 100 Most Popular Billboard Mainstream Top 40 (Pop Songs) Number-one Singles Wikipedia contributors, The Nigerian Information and Communications Technology Handbook, 2005 Billboard, 2009-10-03 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends The Future of the Music Business Steve Gordon, 2011-08-01 Music Pro Guide Books Using blogs and social networks Developing an online record company Creating an Internet radio station Opening an online music store Raising money for recording projects online Creating a hit song in the Digital Age Taking advantage of wireless technologies and much more This revised third edition is the most up to date and thorough examination of current trends and offers special sections on What to do if someone steals your song Protecting the name of your band or label How to find and get a music lawyer to shop your music How to land a deal with an indie or a major label The video includes a comprehensive lecture How to Succeed in Today's Music Business delivered by the author at the Tisch School of the Arts at NYU African Media and the Digital Public Sphere O. Mudhai, W. Tettey, F. Banda, 2009-05-25 This book examines the claims that new information and communication technologies ICTs are catalysts of democratic change in Africa It takes optimist pragmatist realist and pessimist stances on various political actors and institutions from government units and political parties to civil society organizations and minority groups New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa Rosalind I. J. Hackett, Benjamin F. Soares, 2015-01-21

New Media and Religious Transformations in Africa casts a critical look at Africa's rapidly evolving religious media scene Following political liberalization media deregulation and the proliferation of new media technologies many African religious leaders and activists have appropriated such media to strengthen and expand their communities and gain public recognition Media have also been used to marginalize and restrict the activities of other groups which has sometimes led to tension conflict and even violence Showing how media are rarely neutral vehicles of expression the contributors to this multidisciplinary volume analyze the mutual imbrications of media and religion during times of rapid technological and social change in various places throughout Africa ITworld International, 2007 Global Black Narratives for the Classroom: Africa, the Americas and the Caribbean BLAM UK, 2023-12-06 Rather than reserving the teaching of Black history to Black history month Black narratives deserve to be seen and integrated into every aspect of the school curriculum A unique yet practical resource Global Black Narratives for the Classroom addresses this issue by providing primary teachers with a global outline of Black history culture and life within the framework of the UK's National Curriculum Each topic explored in this essential book provides teachers and teaching assistants with historical geographic and cultural context to build confidence when planning and teaching Full lesson plans and printable worksheets are incorporated into each topic alongside tips to build future lessons in line with the themes explored Volume II of this book explores the following parts Part 1 guides teachers through planning and delivering lessons focused on Africa Pupils will benefit from developing a diverse and accurate understanding of the changing nature of Africa throughout history linking the continent's social history with its geographical features Part 2 The Caribbean builds upon the lesson plans of Part 1 to further highlight the interconnectedness of diaspora cultures in influencing the musical visual and religious practices of the Caribbean and Central America Part 3 begins by addressing the incorrect assumption that the history of Black people in the Americas begins and ends with plantation slavery Instead this section proposes a range of in depth lesson plans on the diverse histories cultures and experiences of Black people within the United States Created by BLAM UK this highly informative yet practical resource is an essential read for any teacher teaching assistant or senior leader who wishes to diversify their curriculum and address issues of Black representation within their school It is published in two practical and comprehensive volumes Volume 1 covers Britain and Europe whilst Volume 2 includes Africa the Americas and the Caribbean Each volume can be used individually for teaching but when used together they provide a truly global perspective on black history and culture
