Desert Blood The Juarez Murders:

Desert Blood Alicia Gaspar de Alba, 2005-03-31 It's the summer of 1998 and for five years over a hundred mangled and desecrated bodies have been found dumped in the Chihuahua desert outside of Juarez Mexico just across the river from El Paso Texas The perpetrators of the ever rising number of violent deaths target poor young women terrifying inhabitants on both sides of the border El Paso native Ivon Villa has returned to her hometown to adopt the baby of Cecilia a pregnant maquiladora worker in Juarez When Cecilia turns up strangled and disemboweled in the desert Ivon is thrown into the churning chaos of abuse and murder Even as the rapes and killings of girls from the south continue their tragic stories written in desert blood a conspiracy covers up the crimes that implicate everyone from the Maquiladora Association to the Border Patrol When Ivon's younger sister gets kidnapped in Juarez Ivon knows that it's up to her to find her sister whatever it takes Despite the sharp warnings she gets from family friends and nervous officials Ivon's investigation moves her deeper and deeper into the labyrinth of silence From acclaimed poet and prose writer Alicia Gaspar de Alba Desert Blood is a gripping thriller that ponders the effects of patriarchy gender identity border culture transnationalism and globalization on an international crisis

Making a Killing Alicia Gaspar de Alba, Georgina Guzmán, 2010-11-01 Since 1993 more than five hundred women and girls have been murdered in Ciudad Juarez across the border from El Paso Texas At least a third have been sexually violated and mutilated as well Thousands more have been reported missing and remain unaccounted for The crimes have been poorly investigated and have gone unpunished and unresolved by Mexican authorities thus creating an epidemic of misogynist violence on an increasingly globalized U S Mexico border This book the first anthology to focus exclusively on the Juarez femicides as the crimes have come to be known compiles several different scholarly interventions from diverse perspectives including feminism Marxism critical race theory semiotics and textual analysis Editor Alicia Gaspar de Alba shapes a multidisciplinary analytical framework for considering the interconnections between gender violence and the U S Mexico border The essays examine the social and cultural conditions that have led to the heinous victimization of women on the border from globalization free trade agreements exploitative maquiladora working conditions and border politics to the sexist attitudes that pervade the social discourse about the victims The book also explores the evolving social movement that has been created by NGOs mothers organizing efforts and other grassroots forms of activism related to the crimes Contributors include U S and Mexican scholars and activists as well as personal testimonies of two mothers of femicide victims

Chicano Nations Marissa K. López, 2011 Chicano Nations argues that the trans nationalism that is central to Chicano identity originated in the global postcolonial moment at the turn of the nineteenth century rather than as an effect of contemporary economic conditions which began in the mid nineteenth century and primarily affected the labouring classes The Spanish empire then began to implode and colonists in the new world debated the national contours of the viceroyalties This is where Marissa K Lopez locates the origins of Chicano literature which is now and always has been

post national encompassing the wealthy the poor the white and the mestizo Tracing the long history of Chicano literature and the diversity of subject positions it encompasses Chicano Nations explores the shifting literary forms authors have used to write the nation from the nineteenth to the twenty first centuries Lopez argues that while national and global tensions lie at the historical heart of Chicana o narratives of the nation there should be alternative ways to imagine the significance of Chicano literature other than as a reflection of national identity In a nuanced analysis the book provides a way to think of early writers as a meaningful part of Chicano literary history and in looking at the nation rather than the particularities of identity as that which connects Chicano literature over time it engages the emerging hemispheric scholarship on U S literature

Coloniality of the US/Mexico Border Roberto D. Hernández, 2018-10-23 National borders are often taken for granted as normal and necessary for a peaceful and orderly global civil society Roberto D Hernández here advances a provocative argument that borders and border violence are geospatial manifestations of long histories of racialized and gendered colonial violence In Coloniality of the U S Mexico Border Hernández offers an exemplary case and lens for understanding what he terms the epistemic and cartographic prison of modernity coloniality He adopts coloniality of power as a central analytical category and framework to consider multiple forms of real and symbolic violence territorial corporeal cultural and epistemic and analyzes the varied responses by diverse actors including local residents government officials and cultural producers Based on more than twenty years of border activism in San Diego Tijuana and El Paso Ciudad Juárez this book is an interdisciplinary examination that considers the 1984 McDonald's massacre Minutemen vigilantism border urbanism the ongoing murder of women in Ciudad Juárez and anti border music Hernández's approach is at once historical ethnographic and theoretically driven yet it is grounded in analyses and debates that cut across political theory border studies and cultural studies The volume concludes with a theoretical discussion of the future of violence at and because of national territorial borders offering a call for epistemic and cartographic disobedience International Perspectives on

Chicana/o Studies Catherine Leen, Niamh Thornton, 2013-10-15 This volume examines how the field of Chicana o studies has developed to become an area of interest to scholars far beyond the United States and Spain For this reason the volume includes contributions by a range of international scholars and takes the concept of place as a unifying paradigm As a way of overcoming borders that are both physical and metaphorical it seeks to reflect the diversity and range of current scholarship in Chicana o studies while simultaneously highlighting the diverse and constantly evolving nature of Chicana o identities and cultures Various critical and theoretical approaches are evident from eco criticism and autoethnography in the first section to the role of fiction and visual art in exposing injustice in section two to the discussion of transnational and transcultural exchange with reference to issues as diverse as the teaching of Chicana o studies in Russia and the relevance of Anzaldá's writings to post 9 11 U S society

Romero-Ruiz, 2014-12-24 The development of new sexualities and gender identities has become a crucial issue in the field of literary and cultural studies in the first years of the twenty first century The roles of gender and sexual identities in the struggle for equality have become a major concern in both fields The legacy of this process has its origins in the last decades of the nineteenth century and the twentieth century The Victorian preoccupation about the female body and sexual promiscuity was focused on the regulation of deviant elements in society and the control of venereal disease homosexuals lesbians and prostitutes identities were considered out of the norm and against the moral values of the time The relationship between sexuality and gender identity has attracted wide ranging discussion amongst feminist theorists during the last few decades The methodologies of cultural studies and in particular of post structuralism and post colonialism urges us to read and interpret different cultures and different texts in ways that enhance personal and collective views of identity which are culturally grounded These readings question the postmodernist concept of identity by looking into more progressive views of identity and difference addressing post positivist interpretations of key identity markers such as sex gender race and agency As a consequence an individual s identity is recognized as culturally constructed and the result of power relations Identities on the Move Contemporary Representations of New Sexualities and Gender Identities offers creative insights on pressing issues and engages in productive dialogue Identities on the Move to addresses the topic of new sexualities and gender identities and their representation in post colonial and contemporary Anglophone literary historical and cultural productions from a trans national trans cultural and anti essentialist perspective The authors include the views and concerns of people of color of women in the diaspora in our evermore multiethnic and multicultural societies and their representation in the media films popular culture subcultures and the arts

Chicano Detective Fiction Susan Baker Sotelo, 2015-03-10 In his 1985 novel Partners in Crime writer Rolando Hinojosa introduced homicide investigator Rafe Buenrostro the first Chicano protagonist in one of the most enduring genres of modern literature Since that time Chicano writers have embraced the detective novel successfully diversifying and refining a traditional Anglo American and British genre The 21 whodunits of Hinojosa Rudolfo Anaya Lucha Corpi Michael Nava and Manuel Ramos are closely studied in this groundbreaking work The models both contemporary and Romantic of this relatively new Chicano genre are first discussed Next come detailed analysis and reviews of such novels as Shaman Winter Partners in Crime Cactus Blood and 18 others focusing on how each writer departs from contemporary detective genre formula uniquely rendering a particular regional or cultural variation of what it means to be Chicano It is this departure from the norm that defines these writings and distinguishes them from the Anglo American and British whodunit Interviews with the writers conclude the work

Documenting the Undocumented Marta Caminero-Santangelo, 2017-10-10 Looking at the work of Junot Diaz Cristina Garcia Julia Alvarez and other Latino authors who are U S citizens Marta Caminero Santangelo examines how writers are increasingly expressing their solidarity with undocumented immigrants Through storytelling these writers create community and a sense of peoplehood that includes non citizen Latino as This volume also foregrounds the narratives of unauthorized migrants themselves showing how their stories are emerging into the public sphere Immigration and citizenship are multifaceted issues and the voices are myriad They challenge common interpretations of illegal immigration explore inevitable traumas and ethical dilemmas protest their own silencing in immigration debates and even capitalize on the topic for the commercial market Yet these texts all seek to affect political discourse by advancing the possibility of empathy across lines of ethnicity and citizenship status As border enforcement strategies escalate along with political rhetoric detentions and deaths these counternarratives are more significant than ever before and their perspectives cannot be ignored What we are witnessing argues Caminero Santangelo is a mass mobilization of stories This growing body of literature is critical to understanding not only the Latino immigrant experience but also alternative visions of nation and belonging

Cultural Representations of Femicidio at the US-Mexico Border Nuala Finnegan, 2018-07-18 Since the early 1990s the repeated murders of women from Ciudad Juarez Mexico have become something of a global cause celebre Cultural Representations of Femicidio at the US Mexico Border examines creative responses to these acts of violence It reveals how theatre art film fiction and other popular cultural forms seek to remember and mourn the female victims of violent death in the city at the same time as they interrogate the political legal and societal structures that produce the crimes Different chapters examine the varying art forms to engage with Ciudad Juarez rez's feminicidal wave Finnegan discusses lex Rigola's theatrical adaptation of Roberto Bolaño's novel 2666 by Teatre Lliure in Barcelona as well as painting about the victims of feminicidio by Irish painter Brian Maguire There is analysis of documentary film about Ciudad Juárez including Lourdes Portillo's acclaimed Se orita Extraviada 2001 The final chapter turns its attention to writing about femicide and examines testimonial and crime fiction narratives like the mystery novel Desert Blood The Juárez Murders by Alicia Gaspar de Alba among other examples By drawing on a range of artistic responses to the murders in Ciudad Juárez Cultural Representations of Feminicidio at the US Mexico Border shows how art film theatre and fiction can unsettle official narratives about the crimes and undo the static paradigms that are frequently used to interpret them

The Latino Body Lazaro Lima, 2007-08-01 The Latino Body tells the story of the United States Latino body politic and its relation to the state how the state configures Latino subjects and how Latino subjects have in turn altered the state L zaro Lima charts the interrelated groups that define themselves as Latinos and examines how these groups have responded to calls for unity and nationally shared conceptions of American cultural identity He contends that their responses in times of cultural or political crisis have given rise to profound cultural transformations enabling the so called Latino subject to emerge Analyzing a variety of cultural literary artistic and popular texts from the nineteenth century to the present Lima dissects the ways in which the Latino body has been imagined dismembered and reimaged anew providing one of the first comprehensive accounts of the construction of Latino cultural identity in the United States

Imagined Transnationalism K. Concannon, F. Lomelí, M. Priewe, 2009-11-09 With its focus on Latina/o communities in the United States this collection of essays identifies and investigates the salient narrative and aesthetic strategies with which an individual or a collective represents transnational experiences and identities in literary and cultural texts

Transnational Crime Fiction Maarit Piipponen, Helen Mäntymäki, Marinella Rodi-Risberg, 2020-10-27 Focusing on contemporary crime narratives from different parts of the world this collection of essays explores the mobility of crimes criminals and investigators across social cultural and national borders The essays argue that such border crossings reflect on recent sociocultural transformations and geopolitical anxieties to create an image of networked and interconnected societies where crime is not easily contained The book further analyses crime texts wider sociocultural and affective significance by examining the global mobility of the genre itself across cultures languages and media Underlining the global reach and mobility of the crime genre the collection analyses types and representations of mobility in literary and visual crime narratives inviting comparisons between texts crimes and mobilities in a geographically diverse context The collection ultimately understands mobility as an object of study and a critical lens through which transformations in our globalised world can be examined

Transnational Borderlands in Women's Global Networks M. Sierra, C. Román-Odio, 2011-06-06 Transnational Borderlands The Making of Cultural Resistance in Women's Global Networks investigates the implications of transnational feminist methodologies at multiple levels collective actions theory pedagogy discursive and visual productions It addresses a substantial gap in the field of transnational feminisms namely the absence of a voice that links social and theoretical outcomes to the politics of representation in literature visual art discourses of rights and citizenships and pedagogy The book encompasses three categories of relevance to contemporary transnational methodologies the politics of cultural representation in literature and visual art the de centering of human women's rights and pedagogies of crossing and dissent Given current interest in the cultures of globalization and the role women and other minorities play in them we expect this book will appeal to scholars in the fields of Women's and Gender Studies Borderlands Studies Transnational Studies and to anyone interested in how transnational processes shape a culture of resistance in women's global networks

Border Masculinities Amit Thakkar, Brian Baker, Chris Harris, 2024-10-08 This volume collates and examines literary and screened representations of what the editors term border masculinities It seeks to understand masculine subjectivities through fiction and screen within a complex global arena of relationships and fluid movements across multiple boundaries within that arena It also concerns paradigmatic borders related to class gender and ethnicities as well as other theoretical parameters which cut across porous spatial boundaries This collection contains a range of theoretically informed responses to varying cultural representations of such masculinities in Europe the Americas the Caribbean Australasia and Asia Thematic and conceptual connections between them are discussed in the introductory chapter and such links are also made between chapters

Amexica Ed Vulliamy, 2010-10-26 Amexica is the harrowing story of the extraordinary terror unfolding along the U S Mexico border a country in its own right which belongs to both the United States and Mexico yet neither as the narco war escalates to a fever pitch there In 2009 after reporting from the border for many years Ed Vulliamy traveled the frontier from the Pacific coast to the Gulf of Mexico from Tijuana to Matamoros a journey through a kaleidoscopic landscape of corruption and all out civil war but also of beauty and joy and resilience He describes in revelatory detail how the narco gangs work the smuggling of people weapons and drugs back and forth across the border middle class flight from Mexico and an American celebrity culture that is feeding the violence the interrelated economies of drugs and the maquiladora factories the ruthless systematic murder of young women in Ciudad Juarez Heroes villains and victims the brave and rogue police priests women and journalists fighting the violence the gangs and their freelance killers the dead and the devastated all come to life in this singular book Amexica takes us far beyond today s headlines It is a street level portrait by turns horrific and sublime of a place and people in a time of war as much as of the war itself
