Boschma, Robert C. Kloosterman, 2006-03-30 Jan Lambooy retired in October 2002 When Jan was asked how he wanted to celebrate this occasion he was adamant that no great festivities should take place Characteristically Jan wanted just a scientific conference so he could learn something from it and as he insisted no great festivities So that is what we did and a conference was organised in Amsterdam on 25 October 2002 hosted by the Faculty of Economics and Econometrics of the University of Amsterdam Friends of Jan's from academia in the Netherlands and abroad participated and thus paid homage to Jan both as a scientist and as a person We are now very proud to present this festschrift firstly as the palpable result of this conference and secondly as a token of sincere respect and great affection for Jan Edited volumes run the danger of being a hotchpotch of contributions on a wide variety of topics Here we have explicitly focused on a central theme in contemporary economic geography and regional science namely the relationship between learning innovation and clustering Internationally renowned scientists made both theoretical and empirical contributions to this volume We think this book constitutes a broad palette of contemporary thinking and research on the relationship between spatial concentration and innovation and hope it will play a significant role in future debates on this issue 20 Years 010 Hans Oldewarris, Peter de Winter, 2003 Published for 010 Publisher's twentieth anniversary in 2003 this volume celebrates the publishing vision of Hans Oldewarris and Peter de Winter 010's founders Besides hundreds of monographs by and about Dutch architects 010 has published books on architecture interior design photography industrial design graphic design and the visual arts Exhaustively annotated and

OMA/Rem Koolhaas Christophe van Gerrewey,2019-10-21 The most incisive texts on Rem Koolhaas OMA The activities of Rem Koolhaas and his staff were widely discussed even before the foundation of the Office for Metropolitan Architecture in 1975 Today many contributions on the work of OMA can be found in the international architectural press including Koolhaas own writings The book contains about 150 selected texts interviews feature articles essays lead articles reviews letters introductions appraisals and competition reports that have been compiled for the first time This compilation not only provides a fresh and critical view of the oeuvre of one the most important contemporary architects but also represents an account of the debate on architectural and urban design in recent decades The most incisive texts on the work of OMA Rem Koolhaas with many articles that have never before been translated into English An overview of notions ideas and debates in architectural discourse theory and criticism from the 1970s until 2000 that remain relevant today Illustrated with more than 100 cover shoots In Black and Gold ,2022-06-08 In Black and Gold indicates that opposed styles of poetry reveal subterranean correspondences that occasionally meet and run together Austerity or tomfoolery are two of the many valid responses to the human condition that create the contiguous traditions that cannot help touching and reacting to each other The poetry discussed in this book deals with the relation of individuals to strange or to familiar landscapes and what this means to their own sense of displacement or rootedness with the use of history as an escape from or as a challenge to an apparently failing present and with the role of nationalism either as a refuge for angry frustration or as a weapon against the affronting world or as an ambivalent loyalty that needs to be scoured or as all three Here we find poetry as a means of discovering true or false allegiances and valid or invalid public and private identities poetry as a medium for exploring the uses of the demotic in confronting the breakdowns and injustices of modern democracy poetry as play in the midst of private and public woe poetry as a spiritual quest as a spiritual scourging as a wrestling with spiritual absences and poetry as an intermittent and sporadic commemoration of the triumphs and delights of epiphanic encounters with the physical world
