Desert Flower Waris Dirie:

Desert Flower Waris Dirie, Cathleen Miller, 1999 Waris Dirie the name means desert flower lives a double life by day she is a famous model and UN spokeswoman on women's rights in Africa at night she dreams of her native Somalia Waris one of 12 children was born into a traditional family of desert nomads in East Africa She remembers her early childhood as carefree racing camels and moving on with her family to the next grazing spot until it came her turn to meet the old woman who administered the ancient custom imposed on most Somali girls circumcision Waris suffered this torture when she was just five years old Then aged 12 when her father attempted to arrange a marriage with a 60 year old stranger in exchange for five camels she took flight After an extraordinary escape through the dangerous desert she made her way to London and worked as a maid for the Somali ambassador until that family returned home Penniless and speaking little English she became a janitor in McDonalds where she was famously discovered by a fashion photographer Her story is a truly inspirational and extraordinary self portrait of a remarkable woman whose spirit is as breathtaking as her beauty

Desert Flower by Waris Dirie and Cathleen Miller Shelley O'Reilly, Waris Dirie, Cathleen Miller, 2001

Female Genital Mutilation in the book "Desert Flower" by Waris Dirie Nevin Baidoun, 2021-08-16 Seminar paper from the year 2018 in the subject Literature Africa grade 2.0 University of Würzburg language English abstract The paper deals with the topic of female genital mutilation in the book Desert Flower by Waris Dirie Waris Dirie became a bestselling author through her autobiographical novel in which she describes inter alia her childhood in Somalia and thus the genital mutilation she and her sister had to undergo It is a life story which has contributed a significant part to the worldwide combating of FGM through the establishment of the Desert Flower Foundation Simultaneously Waris success story is a political tool for the world's fight against genital mutilation and for human rights The principal tool therefore is a natural non dramatic perspective exposing her intimate experience which is in this case her and her sister's genital mutilation in their childhood

Desert Flower, 2011

Between Rites and Rights, 2007-08-24 The study shows in chronological fashion how African women writers in the past five decades have introduced a new autobiographical discourse around their experience of excision bringing nuance and vitality to the FGM debate

Desert Dawn Waris Dirie, Jeanne D'Haem, 2004 Fashion model UN ambassador and courageous spirit Waris Dirie is a remarkable woman born into a traditional family of tribal desert nomads in Somalia She told her story enduring at five years old the ancient and savage custom of female circumcision running away at twelve on foot through the desert in order to escape an arranged marriage being discovered by Terence Donovan as she worked as a cleaner in London and becoming a top fashion model in her book the worldwide bestseller Desert Flower Although Waris Dirie fled her homeland she never forgot the country and culture that moulded her The world of famine and violence where women have no voice and no place the very world that nearly destroyed her also gave her the tools to survive She traces the roots of her courage resilience and humour back to her motherland and most particularly to her mother Desert Dawn is the story of that return and a testimony to the stubborn fact that you can love something dearly and yet not love all that it represents Desert Dawn is about coming home Desert Children Waris Dirie, 2014-11-20 Fashion model UN ambassador and courageous spirit Waris Dirie was born into a family of tribal desert nomads in Somalia She told her story enduring female circumcision at five years old running away through the desert being discovered by Terence Donovan and becoming a top fashion model in her book the worldwide bestseller DESERT FLOWER In DESERT DAWN she wrote about becoming a UN Special Ambassador against FGM female genital mutilation and returning to her family in Somalia DESERT CHILDREN tells us how she and the journalist Corinna Milborn have investigated the practice of FGM in Europe they estimate that up to 500 000 women and girls have undergone or are at risk of FGM At the moment France is the only European country in which offenders are convicted and no European country officially recognises the threat of genital mutilation as a reason for asylum Here are the voices of women who have felt encouraged and emboldened by Waris Dirie's courage They speak out for the first time and move us to action Female Genital Mutilation and Social Media Christina Julios, 2018-09-26 This book explores the phenomenon of anti female genital mutilation FGM social media activism Against a backdrop of over 200 million girls and women worldwide affected by FGM this volume examines key global online campaigns to end the practice involving leading virtual platforms such as Twitter Facebook and YouTube Drawing from twenty one fieldwork interviews with anti FGM activists frontline practitioners and survivors the volume investigates opportunities and challenges inherent to cyberspace These include online FGM bans as well as practices such as cyber misogyny and clicktivism Global campaigns featured include the UN's International Day of Zero Tolerance for FGM the WHO's Sexual and Reproductive Health Programme The Girl Generation The Guardian's End FGM Global Media Campaign and the Massai Cricket Warriors Furthermore ten case studies document prominent anti FGM campaigners Firstly five African led narratives from celebrated activists Efua Dorkenoo OBE Waris Dirie Ayaan Hirsi Ali Jaha Mapenzi Dukureh and Leyla Hussein Second five accounts from FGM survivors interviewed for the book Mama Sylla Masooma Ranaalvi Farzana Doctor Fatou Baldeh and Mariya Taher By exploring anti FGM online activism this book fills a gap in the literature which has largely overlooked FGM's presence in cyberspace as a virtual social movement Female Genital Mutilation and Social Media will be of interest to activists survivors frontline professionals students academics and the wider public Africa and Its Significant Others, 2016-08-09 When did the intimate dialogue between Africa Europe and the Americas begin Looking back it seems as if these three continents have always been each other's significant others Europe created its own modern identity by using Africa as a mirror but Africans traveled to Europe and America long before the European age of discovery and African cultures can be said to lie at the root of European culture This intertwining has become ever more visible Nowadays Africa emerges as a highly visible presence in the Americas and African American styles capture Europe's youth many of whom are of North African descent This entanglement however remains both productive and destructive The continental economies are intertwined in ways disastrous for Africa and African knowledge is all too often exported and translated for US and European scholarly aims which increases the intercontinental knowledge gap This volume proposes a fresh look at the vigorous and painful but inescapable relationships between these significant others It does so as a gesture of gratitude and respect to one of the pioneering figures in this field Dutch Africanist and literary scholar Mineke Schipper who is taking her leave from her chair in Intercultural Literary Studies at the University of Leiden Where have the past four decades of African studies brought us What is the present day state of this intercontinental dialogue Sixteen of Mineke's colleagues and friends in Europe Africa and the Americas look back and assess the relations and debates between Africa Europe America Ann Adams Ernst van Alphen Mieke Bal Liesbeth Bekers Wilfried van Damme Ariel Dorfman Peter Geschiere Kathleen Gyssels Isabel Hoving Frans Willem Korsten Babacar M Baye Harry Olufunwa Ankie Peypers Steven Shankman Miriam Tlali and Chantal Zabus write about the place of Africa in today's African Diaspora about what sisterhood between African and European women really means about the drawbacks of an overly strong focus on culture in debates about Africa about Europe's reluctance to see Africa as other than its mirror or its playing field about the images of Africans in seventeenth century Dutch writing about genital excision the flaunting of the African female body and the new self writing about new ways to look at classic African novels and about the invigorating disturbing political art of intercultural reading

Saving Safa Waris Dirie, 2015-07-02 Waris Dirie the Somalia nomad who became a supermodel and an anti FGM activist first came to the world's attention with the publication of her autobiography Desert Flower The book was subsequently made into a film and little Safa Nour from one of the slums of Djibouti in the Horn of Africa was chosen to play the young Waris The book and the film record many extraordinary things from facing down a tiger to being discovered by a famous photographer in London but it also tells the grim story of female circumcision an ordeal that the young Waris had to endure Saving Safa opens with a letter from Safa now aged seven who explains that she is worried that she will undergo FGM in spite of the contract her parents have signed with Dirie's Desert Flower Foundation stating that they will never have their daughter cut Waris drops everything and flies to Djibouti where she meets Safa's father and mother who thinks her daughter should be cut to stop the community ostracising them As Safa was saved from FGM through a contract with her parents the Foundation believes a thousand other girls can be saved through providing their families with aid in return for a promise not to mutilate their daughters

Feminist Writings from Ancient Times to the Modern World Tiffany K. Wayne, 2011-10-17 Collecting more than 200 sources in the global history of feminism this anthology supplies an insightful record of the resistance to patriarchy throughout human history and around the world From writings by Enheduana in ancient Mesopotamia 2350 BCE to the present day manifesto of the Association of Women for Action and Research in Singapore Feminist Writings from Ancient Times to the Modern World A Global Sourcebook and History excerpts more than 200 feminist primary source documents from Africa to the Americas to Australia Serving to depict feminism as much broader and older than simply the modern struggle for political rights and equality this two volume work provides a more comprehensive and varied record of women s resistance cross culturally and throughout history The author s goal is to showcase a wide range of writers thinkers and organizations in order to document how resistance to patriarchy has been at the center of social political and intellectual history since the infancy of human civilization This work addresses feminist ideas expressed privately through poetry letters and autobiographies as well as the public and political aspects of women s rights movements A New Introduction to

The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Literature Richard Eldridge,2009-03-27 The Oxford Handbook of Philosophy and Literature contains twenty three newly commissioned essays by major philosophers and literary scholars that investigate literature as a form of attention to human life Various forms of attention are considered under the headings of Genres from Ancient Epic to the Novel and Contemporary Experimental Writing Periods from Realism and Romanticism to Postcolonialism

Devices and Powers Imagination Plot Character Style and Emotion and Contexts and Uses in relation to inquiry morality and politics In each case the effort is to track and evaluate how specific modes and works of imaginative literature answer to important needs of human subjects for orientation the articulation of interest in life and the working through of emotion within situations that are both sociohistorical and human Hence these essays show how and why literature matters in manifold ways in and for human cultural life and they show how philosophers and imaginative literary writers have continually both engaged with and criticized each other

Salma Rajathi Salma, Kim Longinotto, 2013-10-01 In this book the Indian poet Salma and filmmaker Kim Longinotto come together to portray Salma's extraordinary life and the challenges of capturing it in a documentary film When Salma a young Muslim girl growing up in a South Indian village was 13 years old her family shut her away for eight years forbidding her to study and forcing her into marriage After her wedding her husband insisted she stay indoors Salma was unable to venture outside for nearly two and a half decades During that time words became her salvation She began covertly composing poems on scraps of paper and through an intricate system smuggled them to the outside world The poems many of which are included here describe the hardships Salma and countless women like her suffer in their secluded lives Eventually they reached a local publisher who printed them Against all odds and in a direct challenge to the stultifying traditions of her village Salma has gone on to become a renowned Tamil poet and influential human rights activist

Transcultural Modernities Elisabeth Bekers, Sissy Helff, Daniela Merolla, 2009 The swelling flows of migration from Africa towards Europe have aroused interest not only in the socio political consequences of the migrants insistent appeals to fortress Europe but also in the artistic integration of African migrants into the cultural world of Europe While in recent years the creative output of Africans living in Europe has received attention from the media and in academia little critical consideration has been given to African migrants modes of narration and the manner in which these modes give expression to or are an expression of their creators transcultural realities Transcultural Modernities Narrating Africa in Europe responds to this need for reflection by examining the manner in which migrants compose and negotiate their Euro African affiliations in their narratives The book brings together scholars in the fields of literary and art criticism cultural studies and anthropology for an extensive interdisciplinary exchange on the specific modes of narration displayed in Euro African literatures the visual arts and cinema as well as offering ethnographic case studies The result is a wide range of reflections on how African artists writers and ordinary people living in Europe experience and explore their transcultural and or postcolonial environments and how their experiences and explorations in turn contribute to the construction of modern Euro African life worlds

Diaspora and Multiculturalism, 2021-12-28 In postcolonial theory we have now reached a new stage in the succession of key concepts After the celebrations of hybridity in the work of Homi Bhabha and Gayatri Spivak it is now the concept of diaspora that has sparked animated debates among postcolonial critics This collection intervenes in the current discussion about the new diaspora by placing the rise of diaspora within the politics of multiculturalism and its supersession by a politics of difference and cultural rights theory The essays present recent developments in Jewish negotiations of diasporic tradition and experience discussing the reinterpretation of concepts of the old diaspora in late twentieth century British and American Jewish literature The second part of the volume comprises theoretical and critical essays on the South Asian diaspora and on multicultural settings between Australia Africa the Caribbean and North America The South Asian and Caribbean diasporas are compared to the Jewish prototype and contrasted with the Turkish diaspora in Germany All essays deal with literary reflections on and thematizations of the diasporic predicament Feminism and Modernity in Anglophone African Women's Writing Dobrota Pucherová, 2022-07-29

This book re-reads the last 60 years of Anglophone African women's writing from a transnational and trans-historical feminist perspective rather than postcolonial from which these texts have been traditionally interpreted Such a comparative frame throws into relief patterns across time and space that make it possible to situate this writing as an integral part of women's literary history Revisiting this literature in a comparative context with Western women writers since the 18th century the author highlights how invocations of tradition have been used by patriarchy everywhere to subjugate women the similarities between women's struggles worldwide and the feminist imagination it produced The author argues that in the 21st century African feminism has undergone a major epistemic shift from a culturally exclusive to a relational feminism that conceptualizes African femininity through the risky opening of oneself to otherness transculturation and translation Like Western feminists in the 1960s contemporary African women writers are turning their attention to the female body as the prime site of women's oppression and freedom reframing feminism as a demand for universal human rights and actively shaping global discourses on gender modernity and democracy The book will be of interest to students and researchers of African literature but also feminist literary scholars and comparatists more generally The Missionary Self-Perception of Pentecostal/Charismatic Church Leaders from the Global South in Europe Claudia Währisch-Oblau, 2009-03-16 In a situation of growing interest in the religion of migrants there are still few publications dealing with pentecostal and charismatic Christians from the global South and the churches they have been starting all over Europe This ground-breaking study based on extensive interviews conducted during a nine-year research period encompassing more than 100 churches describes how pentecostal charismatic migrant pastors live out their pastoral role how they construct their missionary biographies and how they conceptualize and practice evangelism The result is a comprehensive portrait of an immigrant group which does not define itself as victimized and in need of assistance but as expatriate agents with a clear calling and a vision to change the continent they now live in
