Christopher Brown, RoSusan D. Bartee, 2008-12-01 The failure of American education to achieve racial diversity has resulted from the inability of educational researchers policy makers and judicial officials to disentangle the complex definitions that have emerged in a post segregated society More specifically the capricious aim of post segregated educational settings leads to the confusing and often conflicting interchangeable usage of terms desegregated integrated and diversity This ambiguity is further confounded by the imprecise definitions of equity equality and opportunity The proposed book will examine the role of language post Brown v Board of Education and the effects of that language on educational policy and practice He also examines how the fundamental implications of language within post Brown court cases in pre through post secondary education demonstrate the unspecified outcomes for desegregation and integration while concomitantly demand an educational continuum of equitable distribution The arguments will further interrogate how education policy and practices implicitly contain a scholarly roadmap to forge equal opportunity and access fifty years after Brown Dismantling a Broken System Zachary Wright, 2022-01-04 Become a hyperlocal activist for change and help ensure a bright future for every student Written for educators at all levels this resource dives into the American education system exposing the history of discrimination and offering strategies for establishing financially and academically equitable learning environments You'll be empowered with specific action steps to educate yourself and others and to move toward inclusion and cultural relevance in your school community Engage in specific ways to acknowledge and educate yourself and your students about racism and improve your cultural responsiveness Know the link between school funding and local wealth and how it perpetuates educational injustice Explore ways to improve programs for those who are becoming teachers or who are new to the profession Consider new policies for teachers unions Discover people and organizations that are making change in their local areas Contents Introduction Chapter 1 America's History of Racism Color Blindness and Implicit Bias Chapter 2 School Funding Zip Codes and Housing Chapter 3 Teacher

Preparation Chapter 4 Conflicts Between Reformers Unions and Schools Epilogue Appendix Suggested Resources and Readings References and Resources Index      Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools, Families, and Communities Sue Winton, Gillian Parekh, 2020-03-01 Critical Perspectives on Education Policy and Schools Families and Communities offers scholars students and practitioners important new knowledge about how current policies impact families schools and community partnerships The book s authors share a critical orientation towards policy and policy research and invite readers to think differently about what policy is who policymakers are and what policy can achieve Their chapters discuss findings from research grounded in diverse theories including institutional ethnography critical disability theory and critical race theory The authors encourage scholars of family school and community partnerships to ask who benefits from policies and who loses and how proposed reforms maintain or disrupt existing relations of power The chapters present original research on a broad range of policies at the local state provincial and national levels in Canada and the USA Some authors look closely at the enactment of specific district policies including a school district s language translation policy and a policy to create local advisory bodies as part of decentralization efforts Other chapters reveal the often unacknowledged yet necessary work parents do to meet their children s needs and enable schools to operate A few chapters focus on challenges and paradoxes of including families and community members in policymaking processes including a case where parents demonstrated a preference for a policy that research demonstrates can be detrimental to their children s future education opportunities Another set of chapters emphasizes the centrality of policy texts and how language influences the educational experiences and engagement of students and their families Each chapter concludes with a discussion of implications of the research for educators families and other community partners      Screwed-Up School Reform Bruce S. Cooper, Richard G. Shear, 2012-09-11 The unspoken American promise is that each generation will lead a better more successful life than the previous one In earlier times it was an education that provided the next generations a better life For today s children though decades of failed school reform have left a generation wondering if this promise has been broken Despite policies programs and resources American education does not live up to its expectations In Screwed Up School Reform Richard G Shear and Bruce S Cooper reveal that generations of school reforms have actively worked to cure the symptoms of broken schools but not the overarching fundamental problems that permeate the system Virtually an entire society has failed to understand the main problem with American education children are rejecting its practices and conditions But the screwed up education system is fixable and it can be fixed now If reformers focus instead on changing education s foundation then children will instead succeed at school and in their personal lives      Broken Tom C. Miller, 2025-03-21 Johnny is conflicted Self doubt the animosity of the students he teaches and the soul crushing education system are killing him As a young idealistic teacher the school environment which once seemed so promising has crumbled into misery His spirit is breaking Trapped in a failing system and gasping for air will Johnny rediscover his purpose and find his path      The Broken Compass Keith Robinson,2014-01-06 It seems like common sense that children do better when parents are actively involved in their schooling But how well does the evidence stack up The Broken Compass puts this question to the test in the most thorough scientific investigation to date of how parents across socioeconomic and ethnic groups contribute to the academic performance of K 12 children The surprising discovery is that no clear connection exists between parental involvement and student performance Keith Robinson and Angel Harris assessed over sixty measures of parental participation at home and in school While some of the associations they found were consistent with past studies others ran contrary to previous research and popular perceptions It is not the case that Hispanic and African American parents are less concerned about education or that Tiger parenting among Asian Americans gets the desired results Many low income parents want to be involved in their children s school lives but often receive little support from school systems For immigrant families language barriers only worsen the problem In this provocative work Robinson and Harris believe that the time has come to reconsider whether parental involvement can make much of a dent in the basic problems facing American schools today      Special Education in the Early Years Heidi Harju-Luukkainen,Natallia Bahdanovich Hanssen,Christel Sundqvist,2022-04-21 This book explores policies and practices in special education in the early years highlighting shared enablers and barriers It examines research policies and practices from different Nordic countries and discusses the theory and empirical data underlying the research It looks at specific issues including gifted children social inequality and exclusion teaching children with autism inclusive practice language and emotions The book offers critical perspectives highlights potential developmental objects and gives recommendations for further research as well as policy and practice The book features many aspects of the so called Nordic model the economic and social policies common to the Nordic Countries Denmark Finland Norway and Sweden The findings provide important insights into the Nordic model and advance the understanding of relevant issues facing the Nordic countries      Cosmic Citizens and Moonshot Thinking Rohan Roberts,2018-08-16 From award winning educator innovation expert and Global Teacher Prize finalist Rohan Roberts comes a provocative look at why our current education system is not fit for purpose and why we need to overhaul it Cosmic Citizens and Moonshot Thinking Education in an Age of Exponential Technologies takes a fresh approach to what we need to do differently to prepare our children for a world of exponential technologies disruptive innovations and ubiquitous A I In this groundbreaking book Roberts outlines the purpose of education in a world of increased outsourcing and automation and explains how we can future proof our youth to survive and thrive in a world of accelerating change Through interactions with corporate leaders interviews with principals meetings with parents and surveys of students this book considers how the best and brightest students would overhaul their education system The book highlights the role of neuroscience in education and explores several fascinating concepts such as radical openness abundance mindsets the gig economy the technological singularity intelligent optimism the age of imagination humanics transhumanism and the importance of Enlightenment values

Lee, 2020-09-01 Over the last few years Orthodox Jewish private schools also known as yeshivas have been under fire by a group of activists known as Young Advocates for Fair Education run by several yeshiva graduates who have criticized them for providing an inadequate secular education At the heart of the yeshiva controversy lies two important interests in education the right of the parent to choose an appropriate education which may include values laden religious education and the right of each child to receive an appropriate education as guaranteed by the state These interests raise further questions If preference is given to the former how much freedom should be given to a parent in choosing an appropriate education If the latter how does the state define what constitutes an appropriate education or measure the extent to which an appropriate education has been achieved And when can or must the state override the wishes of parents The purpose of this book is to explore these difficult questions      Critical Perspectives on Plurilingualism in Deaf

Multicultural Education in Global Perspectives

Yun-Kyung Cha, Jagdish Gundara, Seung-Hwan Ham, Moosung Lee, 2016-11-15 This conceptually rich and empirically grounded book draws upon expertise from a panel of emerging and established international scholars to explore the institutionalization and effect of multicultural education on a global scale Previous studies of multicultural education have largely ignored the significance of understanding the combination of multiple sociopolitical influences on multicultural education in both policy and practice Filling this void this book sheds light on the two main reasons for taking a global perspective on multicultural education First children should be provided with meaningful learning opportunities to acquire the knowledge skills and attitudes necessary to live in a culturally and ethno linguistically diverse society where the distinction between the local and the global is becoming blurred Second understanding both the global grammar and the local semantics of multicultural education helps researchers and policy makers grasp the whole picture of multicultural education as an evolving social construct and phenomenon This new book provokes a new round of discussion and research to expand and enrich our inquiry into cultural diversity and educational inclusion
